NO COMPETING INTERURBAN LINES

If Senator Bamberger Completes Ogden-Salt Lake Railway, McCarron Will Withdraw.

CUSHNAHAN AGAINST VICE.

Holds That Immoral Element Should Be Better Governed—Wants Public Limelight Turned On.

Ogden, Utah, Feb. 1.—On a recent visit of a prominent Ogden gentleman to Chicago he met J. F. McCarron, who last week accepted the franchise granted him by the Weber county commissioners for the running of an electric line through this county, and in car lines through the same Mr. McCarron stated that if Senator Simon Bamberger was going to carry out his plans to build a line from Layton to Ogden, that he would not carry out his plan, but that he would build the line from Ogden to the mouth of the Ogden canyon. For some time past an effort has been made by the representatives of the local street railway company and the Bamberger interests to effect an agreement whereby one of these corporations would build their line to the mouth of Ogden canyon and the other company could use the same at a reasonable rental. It is reasonably certain that at least one line will be built to the canyon and unless the matter now under consideration can be amicably adjusted both companies may build at that point.

against vice that exists in Ogden. He states that it was his moral duty to raise his voice and use his influence in the protection of the youth of Ogden and in abating the existing evil. Rev. Cushman stated that he had every regard for the police authorities of the city, but insisted that there was a lack in the governing of immoral elements, and that the evil was extending. He said that he did not believe that there was another city, even including the mining towns, the size of Ogden, wherein so many prostitutes existed. In speaking of the statement that there were so many entrances to the quarter that it would require an army of bluecoats to watch them all, he said that if the evil must exist then it should be removed to some conspicuous place where the public limelight could be turned upon those who visit that quarter. He stated emphatically that there was no one urging him in the stand he had taken, and that so long as he was in the right he would not relent.

STRIKERS FAILED TO BREAK INTO JAIL.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Five hundred members of typographical union No. 16 voted unanimously yesterday to go to jail. As they are on strike, they estimated they might save the $100,000 fund, which the union by Judge Holden if they were permitted to work out the amount in prison.

After the resolution was adopted a committee was sent to Atty. W. H. Barham to learn if there was any hope for the strikers breaking into jail and in that manner satisfying justice. They were disappointed when they learned that if the jail was upheld by the higher courts it would have to be paid, and that there was no prospect of the debt being liquidated by the strikers going to jail.

WALKER'S All Salt Lake City CHARITY SALE.

Friday--Five per cent of the entire sales will go to Orphan's Home and Day Nursery and Salvation Army.

THE ORPHAN'S HOME AND DAY NURSERY was organized in 1886 by Miss Elizabeth Dickey. With money raised through its own efforts and through kindness of outsiders interested—a home was purchased on State street, their present location. The children are well provided for and educated in the district school. They are kept and cared for till they are able to support themselves.

MORE AFFIDAVITS IN PATRICK'S BEHALF.

New York, Feb. 1.—Among the affidavits filed in support of the application for a new trial for Albert T. Patrick is one by Alexander B. Stanbury, a corporal of the Thirtieth U. S. Infantry. After Charles E. Jones, the valet of William Marsh Rice, the murdered man, and who was the principal witness against Patrick, went back to Texas, Stanbury says they met at the Spindletop oil field. After shaking hands Jones said:

"I hope you do not consider me as one of my other friends do—a murderer."

Stanbury says Jones told him he had made several confessions regarding the death of Mr. Rice's death, and that they were all lies. Jones went on to say that he was surprised the jury could be so foolish enough to believe his confessions, that he had been advised to make such confessions by James A. Baker of Houston, and that Patrick was innocent of the murder charge.

T. J. McNierny, in the real estate business at Houston, makes affidavit by Jones in April of last year, and that Jones told them he had been tortured by officers in New York until Fayette Lee, a fisherman of Lynchburg, Tex., swore Jones told him in April last year.

"I was so tortured and troubled by officers and harassed by them that I feared that if I did not lay the blame on or send me to the penitentiary for life, I just told the officers that Patrick did not tell me to chloroform Mr. Rice and did he in any way advise me to

NEW HYMN BOOK AND PSALMODY.

A new edition of the L. D. S. Hymn Book (the twenty-fourth), revised under the direction of the Church Authorities, has just been issued by the Deseret News. Many improvements will be observed. The names of the authors, as far as they could be ascertained, have been appended to each hymn. Special type was selected for the edition, to secure a large, plain and bold print, without increasing the size of the book. Thirteen new selected hymns have been added to the collection, among which are "Onward, Christian Soldier," "Peace Be Still," "Rock of Ages," "Aid With Me," the two National anthems, "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner," and several others.

NEW PSALMODY.

A new edition of the L. D. S. Psalmody has been issued to correspond with the revised Hymn Book. It also contains the music for the additional thirteen hymns. New plates have been made throughout. The book, though enlarged in its number of pages, has been somewhat reduced in form, making it more convenient for choir use. The price has also been reduced in the various binds as follows: Cloth, $1.25; half leather, $1.50; limp leather, $1.75; and full morocco gilt, $2.50. Both Hymn Book and Psalmody are now ready at the Deseret News Book Store.
