FRAGMENTS.

The last day of April.

STEVENS' concert to-night. A treat is assured all who attend.

BISHOP MCKAY, of Granger, was about town to-day.

ON Monday evening the Sunday School Union will hold its monthly meeting.

The Old Folks' Committee are working for the next annual trip; this time to Ogden.

S. W. ECKLES, Esq., of the Union Pacific, is in Salt Lake on a brief visit.

The flag at the City Hall was flying to-day, in honor of the visit of Prince Leopold.

To-day's rain storm caused the farmer to smile. But the pedestrian doesn't think it so nice.

GERMAN flags were conspicuous on a number of buildings to-day, in honor of Prince Leopold.

JES. BARTON, Esq., prosecuting attorney for Davis County, was down from the north to-day on business.

ED. RIXON was lodged in the city jail last night, and will have a hearing to-day on the charge of vagrancy.

A THING is one case of diphtheria in family residing in the Angell house, Fourth East Street, Twelfth Ward.

It is said to have been an open country, we would probably have had a cyclone last night; the wind blew awfully for a while.

Track game of baseball, which was to have taken place between the Nationals and Silver Greys, was postponed because of rain.

THE Hallen & Hart Variety Company, with some new and wonderful acts, occupy the boards of the Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

ANOTHER case of scarlet fever has been quarantined. This, with Mrs. Clawson's children, makes three in the city. The latest case is at Aurelius Miller's house.

In the item "Opening for Employment," in yesterday's News, the compositor, through neglect, made the pay for miners read 80 to 84 cents per "hour," instead of per "ton."

A FARM carnival will be given at the Walker Opera House Tuesday evening, May 3d, for the benefit of the "Young Ladies' Aid Society." Tickets, including supper, are placed at $3 each.

There is altogether too much shooting in the Eleventh Ward; in fact, one shot is too much, unless fired in defense of life or property. The shots referred to are for none of these and are very frequent.

AT 8 o'clock this morning a party of Maywalkers began to assemble at the Eagle Gate. The day was hardly promising then and city creek channels must have been very cheerful quarter for the little ones.

BROTHERS C. R. Savage states that he has received $3 from a gentleman in Chicago to help along with the Old Folks' excursion. The reputation of the Saints for kindness to the aged spreads even the midst of calumny.

THE Montreal Silver Mining Company has been incorporated and its articles filed with the clerk of the Third District Court. A number of well known gentlemen are among the incorporators.

SAMPET COUNTY will have to look well to its laurels as the "armory of Utah" if the farmers of Davis County continue to be successful in their dry farming. The wheat grown on the Kayville bench is of the best quality.

DR. GEORGE H. BOOTH, late Surgeon Army Medical Department and Surgeon Physician, Island and Colonial Emigration Service, J. M. J., has now located in the Herald building where he has his office. His hours are from 8 to 11 a. m., and 1 to 5 p. m.

THE Burton-Gardner Company have placed a combination fence machine in the hands of Bernard White, of Ogden. Mr. White will manufacture the fence for the good folks of Weber County. Sappete, Morgan and Wasatch counties will soon be provided with fence factories.

THE prospects who formerly occupied a place near the Cannington corner have been required to move, as their array of plants and flowers was considered an obstruction. But an ugly piece of furniture called a fruit stand is permitted to occupy the same site, with just as much "obstructiveness" but with none of the fragrance and beauty of the former's stock.

J. W. SUMMERS, Esq., of the wool business, of this city, have prepared and just had published a circular that will be valuable to men engaged in the wool business. It shows the wool clip of the world, the estimated production of the United States for the last five years, and many other matters dealing with the wool trade. It will be of great use to wool growers.

NOISE AND PISTOLS.

THE CHIEF INGREDIENTS OF A DISTURBANCE AT TAYLORSVILLE.

A few days ago Edwin Senior took it into his head to make the grain-field of Mr. Hansen of Taylorsville, a battle. Mr. Hansen objected and a quarrel ensued, in which Senior was worsted by the old gentleman and a shovel, and got out of the field without stopping to pick up his ignominious defeat. Senior complained to a Commissioner against Hansen, but nothing was done, as the latter had a right to the peaceful possession of his property. Senior, however, was out a hat and a spool of thread, so, on Thursday afternoon, he and his brother went to Mr. Hansen's to demand the property.

Mr. Hansen was not at home, but Mr. Senior insisted on having his title. Mrs. Hansen and her son refused to give it up until fifty cents damage for his walk over the grain was paid by Senior. The latter would not agree to this, and revolver in hand he entered the Hansen mansion—or dugout—and at the point of a pistol compelled young Hansen to produce the articles, which was done. Time Mrs. Hansen's protest under the circumstances was insufficient evidence to hold him, and he was accordingly discharged.

Harvey H. Cluff Arrested.—Just as we were about to press this afternoon news received a dispatch from Provo conveying the intelligence that Brother Harvey H. Cluff was arrested to-day at that place. The charge is the usual one—cohabitation. He was taken before the U. S. Commissioner, waived examination, and was held in $1,000 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Raiding American Fork.—Deputies Redfield, McEllen and Dicks raided this place yesterday afternoon, and arrested Charles McCarthy on the usual charge, his family and all their relatives being subsequently released. The family of H. E. King were subpoenaed also, but Mr. King was not. Pleasant Grove also had a very pleasant call from these kentry-people because they didn't find anyone, the object of their search, B. W. Driggs, being out in the corn milking, and they were afraid of the cows.

Gone to Her Rest.—The service over the remains of Grandma Nicholson was conducted yesterday afternoon. The opening prayer was offered by Elder Robert F. Egerton. Appropriate and feeling remarks were made by Bishop O. F. Whitney and Elders John T. Caine and H. Patrick. The benediction was pronounced by Elder C. W. Stayer. At the grave the dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder W. B. Horton. Brother John Nicholson and family have received numerous expressions of sympathy, which they highly appreciate, from many kind friends since the deplorable accident which resulted in death and bereavement. Among these was a sympathetic note received this morning, from Rev. T. C. Hill, written on the Utah & Northern train. Mr. Hill was an eyewitness of the accident last Monday, and kindly assisted to carry the venerable lady to her home after she was hurt.

An Enterprising Company.—In to-day's issue will be found the advertisement of the Co-operative Wagon and Machine Company, formerly Grant, Odell & Co., in which their business for the season is announced and some of the goods they handle are enumerated. It will be seen at a glance that the list includes the products of many of the best and most favorably known manufacturers of wagons, carriages, carts, farm machinery of all kinds, and fencing wire, throughout the Union. The company have manifested commendable enterprise in securing such goods for this market, and the public evidently appreciate it, for the do an immense business, both in this city and in Ogden. The extensive patronage accorded the company, however, is not less attributed to the popularity of the men who constitute it and the confidence which the public have of fair treatment at the hands of the management than to the excellence of the goods handled.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day: Wm. B. Jones, Wm. H. Tolhurst and James Blake were admitted to citizenship. People vs. George Lawrence; selling liquor on Sunday; sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs of prosecution. United States vs. James Woods; unlawful cohabitation; sentence postponed to September, 1887, term. The People vs. Frank H. Dyer; Alma Crow; battery; three cases; defendants arraigned and pleaded not guilty. United States vs. John T. Gerber; unlawful cohabitation; defendant arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Solomon Bruckner vs. Frank H. Dyer; trial before jury in progress. Application of Herald Company to disincorporate; order fixing time for hearing. United States vs. Alexander Edwards; unlawful cohabitation; sentenced to six months in penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and costs. United States vs. Richard Collett; unlawful cohabitation; sentenced to six months in penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

An Example Wanted.—When some deputy marshals have done to work up cases, we are all pretty familiar with what we have not learned it all yet. Provo furnished a specimen that ought to be presented at once. On Wednesday last, says the Enquirer, one Jared Davis of Salem was arrested on the usual charge and taken before the commissioner on Tuesday evening, when the case was postponed till the following morning at 10 o'clock. At the appointed hour the defendant appeared with his attorney, Mr. Thurman, with the expectation of making an interesting "fight against justice." Mr. Thurman asked for the complaint in the case and was informed by the Commissioner that no subpoena had been returned and no witnesses were necessary; the defendant and his bondsman would be discharged.

The complaint was afterwards shown to Mr. Thurman upon request and proved to have been sworn to by one Deputy Dykes as "fact." But the real fact of the matter is that Davis is not and never has been a polygamist, and the prosecution was one of those too frequently repeated schemes of unscrupulous lawyers to provide some "test case" for the grand jury.

PROPOSED TRIP TO ENGLAND.

FAVORABLE TERMS TO EXCURSIONISTS.

Messrs. William C. Spence and William A. Rosseter have completed arrangements for an excursion party from Utah to England. The rate of passage is quite low, being $10 for the round trip between Salt Lake City and Liverpool. The accommodations for this fare will be excellent, being first-class (intermediate) on the ocean steamer. Those who prefer to cross the Atlantic with first-class saloon accommodations can do so by simply changing their intermediate tickets at New York for first-class ones and paying the necessary advance in price.

The outgoing journey will be taken in the most delightful part of the year, as the company will leave Salt Lake City on the 30th of May. The tickets will be good for the return trip at any time and at the option of the holders within six months, with a choice of any one of three of Gilson and Co.'s commodious and handsome ocean steamers. This will provide an excellent opportunity for people to pay a visit to the Old Country, to see relatives, compile genealogical information, transact business or for any other purpose. Doubtless many will take advantage of it. The enterprise is under good and reliable management. Those who wish to make the trip on the terms specified can obtain all needed information by applying to W. C. Spence or William A. Rosseter, Box B, Salt Lake City.

Sunday School Union.—The regular meeting of the officers and members of this body will be held in the Society Hall on Monday evening, May 2d, at 7:30 o'clock.

After a Boiler for the Asylum.—James Dunn, Esq., of Provo, was in Salt Lake Friday, getting bids from different firms for a new boiler to be used in the insane Asylum. The one now there needs repairing. Besides, if anything should happen to it, so that it would not work, all the means of the Asylum for lighting up, for cooking, washing, heating, etc., would be destroyed. An additional boiler is absolutely necessary to the safety of the institution. Brother Dunn got bids from three parties.

Harmon Held.—This morning, George Harmon, of Taylorsville, came in to the city and was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. The complaint is made by Deputy Frank, and the names of the defendants' wives are stated to be Eliza Harmon and Margaret Ann Arthur. The defendant was arraigned before Commissioner McKay and pleaded guilty. He stated that he married his second wife in 1881, and that her youngest child was three years of age. He was required to give $1,000 bail to await trial.

Arrested in Plain City.—Yesterday, Deputies Steele, Whitestone and Williams visited Plain City and arrested H. C. Hansen, of that place, on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. Mr. Hansen was taken before Commissioner Rogers. Defendant waived preliminary examination and was bound over in the sum of $1,000 to appear before the grand jury. Messrs. J. H. Wright and A. W. Child were also bound over in the sum of $300. Ogden Herald, April 23.

A Fatal Accident.—Our correspondent at Plain City, O. G., furnishes the following: Wednesday evening our quiet little village was startled by the news that our old and faithful citizen, James P. Robison, was severely injured by receiving a kick from a coal which he was breaking to work. The deceased was plowing in his orchard. His wife asked him to turn the corner of the land, and then turned her head away, but looked around again in time to see his falling. She and her son James hastened to the spot, but found him lifeless. Mr. Robison was telephoned for and died in his power to relieve the suffering but he could not. The coal which he kicked him in the left side of the head, breaking his jaw bone in two places, and the point of the coal entered his ear. He received the blow about 5:30 p. m. and died 11:30 a. m. of the 25th. He was never recovered from the blow and only moved his hands twice. It is supposed he was in the act of pushing a coal into the fire. He was a faithful Latter-day Saint, and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. Brother Robison was one of the most cautious men that could be found around horses and the accident is therefore more painful. His family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Salt Lake Stock Association.—This association has filed its articles of incorporation with the clerk of the Third District Court. The names of the shareholders are here given with the amount of stock credited to each: George Romney, 100 shares; James Sharp, 100 shares; George H. Taylor, 100 shares; Frank W. Jennings, 100 shares; Le Grand Young, 100 shares; Abraham H. Cannon, 100 shares. The capital stock is placed at $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares, each valued at $100. The directors elected for the first year are as follows: George Romney, President; James Sharp, Vice-President; Abraham H. Cannon, Secretary and Treasurer; Frank W. Jennings and Le Grand Young.

The closing section of the articles states: "We the undersigned have subscribed the amount of stock set opposite our respective names, and we have paid 60 per cent, thereon by conveying to the association 15,000 head of sheep including all dues and increase therefrom for the ensuing year, which sheep are hereby declared to be the property of the corporation with their profits and increase."

The First District.—The following is a list of cases of alleged violations of the Edmunds law to be tried at the next term of the First District Court at Ogden: The United States vs. Bernard White; unlawful cohabitation; new trial. The United States vs. Joseph H. Dean; polygamy. The United States vs. Wm. Skeen; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Soren L. Petersen; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Elijah Box; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Geo. Chandler; unlawful cohabitation; for trial on second and third counts. The United States vs. Richard Fry; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Thomas McNeel; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. James McFarland; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Peter Peterson; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Francisco Dwyer; polygamy and unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Wm. Butler; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Jas. Burdett; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. Mark Higley; unlawful cohabitation. The United States vs. A. J. Kershaw; unlawful cohabitation.

PRINCE LEOPOLD

AND SUITE IN SALT LAKE—THEY INSPECT THE TABERNACLE.

This morning the city flag was run up to the thirty pole and hung to the breeze. Many wondered why. Prince Leopold of Prussia was to arrive by the train from the north. Hence the display. This prince is a son of Prince Frederick Charles, deceased, younger brother of the Emperor, and one who distinguished himself in the late Franco-German war. He is accompanied by Von Nicklas-Rosenegg, Major a la suite des Generalstabes a Militair-lacher Reglement S. K. H. des Prinzen Friedrich Leopold von Prussen; and Le Comte de Kanitz, Maréchal de Cour de S. A. R. Marg. le Prince Frederic Leopold de Prusse.

Though it was known the Prince and his suite were coming, it was also ascertained that he was, in a degree, traveling incognito and was averse to the ostentatious which would follow a public recognition of his distinguished position as a member of the Royal family of Germany. For this reason and in deference to his wishes, no public reception or recognition was accorded him.

The party was received at Ogden by Ferdinand Dickert, Alexander Niedlinghaus and Dr. Bredemeyer, the latter acting as escort here to the party. The train was late and on its arrival the party was driven to the Walker Hotel, where they remained until to-morrow, when the journey east will be resumed.

In the afternoon they visited the Tabernacle where they were shown about the building and while there Professor Jos. F. Daynes played a number of selections from the organ. The first selection played was "God Save the Queen" with the full power of the organ; then came "The Pilgrim's Song of Hope," and lastly a fantasia by Professor Daynes himself. The Prince expressed himself as delighted with the acoustic properties of the organ, and the power and sweetness of the organ, the first as shown in "God Save the Queen," and the shading and delicacy of tone displayed in the succeeding selections.

When through this there were presented to the party of the city authorities. Mayor Armstrong, Aldermen Weber and Fyler, Councilors J. F. Wells and D. L. Davis, Recorder A. M. W. Brown, Treasurer O. F. Whitney, Marshal Alfred Solomon and also John Sharp, Hon. Jas. Sharp, Judge E. A. Smith and others. The party then visited the Assembly Hall and looked through the Temple.

The Prince is a fine young man, his companions much older. They resume their journey to-morrow morning over the D. & R. G.

TWO MORE.

RICHARD COLLETT AND ALAN RD. WARDS IMPRISONED.

To-day Brothers Richard Collett and Alexander Edwards appeared in the Third District Court to receive sentence for violating the Edmunds law. In reply to Judge Kane, both stated that they had no promise to make in regard to the future, and also that they were poor men, having to depend on their daily labor for a living. They were sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and costs, and taken to the bastille this afternoon.

Stephens' Chamber Concert.—This evening Stephens' Chamber Concert will be given in his hall. The admission price is 50 cents, and each seat is reserved. If we read the names and note the selections and remember Mr. Stephens' care and painstaking, it will be agreed that the entertainment is singularly cheap. We give the programme:

PART I—OPERA.

Soldiers' Chorus.—Eranal Select-Voice.

Duo—"Holy Mother"—Maritana Mrs. Maggie Hill and Mrs. Agnes Thomas.

Solo—"Dear God"—Mrs. Agnes Thomas.

Trio—"Believe Me"—Attilla Mrs. Thomas, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Stephens.

Solo—"If We Were Free"—Johnson Mrs. Maggie Hill.

Ballad—"The Old Soldier's Home"—Norma Mrs. Nellie Pughley, Mrs. Agnes Thomas, Mr. Stephens.

PART II—LIT. TROVATORE SELECTIONS.

Solo—"Hercules Furens"—Miss Beattie Dean.

Nuns' Chorus—"Turn from these Scenes of Error"—Ladies' Voices.

Recitativo—"Tempest of the Heart"—Mrs. Nellie Pughley.

Recitativo—"I would be Lonely"—Mrs. Nellie Pughley.

Aria—"The Song of the Lark"—Mrs. Nellie Pughley.

Solo—"Ah, Send thy Beams, Aurora"—Miss Beattie Dean.

Ensemble—"Lovers, Troubadours and Chorus"—Mrs. Nellie Pughley.

Fuller's Hill.—On Monday this resort will be opened to the public, and for the day many attractions of a special nature have been provided. Its energetic owner will exercise his customary caution in seeing that good order is preserved and that nothing indecorous is permitted. He promises good old times and preserves the attractive features of previous seasons. In the evening there will be a party with Held's band furnishing the music. Admission 10 cents, children 5 cents.
