Ead's Little Scheme.

CHICAGO, 5.—The Thibunc's Washington special says: Captain James B. Eads has a little scheme in connection with his ship railroad which has not yet been made public and which may help to explain the reason of the pressure brought to bear on Congress in favor of its passage. He says his bill, now before Congress, is somewhat incomplete, and it will be changed before it comes up for action by the addition of a very important provision. This is nothing less than a proposition to obtain from government a guarantee for 30 years of 6 per cents dividend materials should the interest on the bonds make it necessary for the government to pay every cent of dividend.
