SHOCKING FATE OF BRAKEMAN

F. A. Denison of Evanston Meets Tragic Death Near Morgan Yesterday.

HOSPITAL STORY IS UNTRUE.

Father Cushman Says Statement is a Fiction—Kick From a Horse Saves Man's Life.

Ogden, March 13.—F. A. Denison, a freight brakeman of Evanston, Wyo., in the employ of the Union Pacific, was accidentally killed yesterday afternoon near Morgan about 30 miles east of Ogden. He was braked on one of the sections of No. 52. While the train was moving along at a moderate rate of speed he thought there was a hot box on one of the wheels and bent over to see if he could detect the wheel. In bending over he did so just at the time when the train was passing a cattle guard which raises up on either side of the track. He evidently did not observe the danger and the guard struck him on the side of the head crushing in his skull. The train was stopped and the body was taken to Morgan and brought on to Ogden by passenger train which arrived here soon after 5 o'clock last evening. The accident occurred about 1 o'clock. Conductor F. W. Dunn was in charge of the train. Denison was only 22 years old and had been in the employ of the railroad company but a few months. He was the son of Louis Denison, a locomotive engineer on the Union Pacific. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

LIFE SAVED BY A KICK.

Thrilling Experience of Frank Scane in Railroad Yards.

Ogden, March 13.—It is not often that a kick from a horse saves a man's life, but such was the thrilling experience of Frank Scane who was driving a job wagon for Mr. Barnes yesterday afternoon. Scane was at Parker's coal yard getting a load of coal. The wagon was between the main line and the coal shed. Union Pacific No. 9 came into the yard about 5 o'clock and struck the wagon practically demolishing it. The horses were knocked down and Scane was thrown beneath the wheels of the slow moving train and would have no doubt been crushed to death had it not been for one of the horses. In kicking the driver's blow and knocked him from under the car, and both the horses escaped without injury.

HOSPITAL STORY A FABRICATION.

Rev. Father P. M. Cushman, who has been in California during the past week for the benefit of his health, returned home last evening on the Overland Limited, greatly improved in health from the rest for a few weeks from his hard labors in looking after his large congregation here. When taken to a "News" representative concerning the report recently given here that while away he had succeeded in getting a promise of $75,000 with which to build a large hospital in Ogden, he was greatly surprised at the report and said he had not authorized anyone to make such a statement, and knows nothing of any such project. He said no one had given him any kind of donation, and that he could not understand who gave out the report. He further said that some time ago such a rumor was talked of, but that no steps had been taken by anyone so far as he knew to raise the money. He would, he said, have been glad to have brought $75,000 back home with him for such a project.

While away Father Cushman visited various parts of California, and greatly enjoyed the trip.

TOO MANY CHILDREN.

Too many children is the cause of a divorce suit filed in the Second district court by Mrs. Mornella Geisler against Charles G. Geisler. The complaint alleges that the couple were married at Salt Lake City, January 19, 1899, that at the time of their marriage plaintiff had seven children by a former husband and defendant had four by a former wife. That ever since their marriage the children have not agreed because of their different dispositions, which has resulted, it is alleged, in the defendant becoming very irritable and he has scolded the children so much that they have lost respect for him and that he has been unkind to his wife. A decree of divorce and such other relief as the court may deem proper is prayed for.
