WALTER LUCKY COMMITTS SUICIDE

Well Known Gambler Shoots Himself With a .22 Rifle and Dies Instantly.

ARE AFTER POSTMASTERSHIP

Woolgrowers Meet to Discuss Tariff and Wool Storage.

Ogden, Nov. 25.—Using a Winchester rifle of 22 caliber to accomplish his design, Walter Lucky, a well known gambler of this city, fired a bullet into his brain in a room in the Grand Opera House block Tuesday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock and died instantly.

The body was discovered by a friend, J. R. Buchanan, at half past 6 o'clock, when the latter returned to his room, stretched at full length on the bed without a stitch of clothing covering his person and with a bullet wound going in his throat, the dead man was found. So muffled had been the report of the weapon that none of the other tenants of the building were aware that a tragedy had been enacted until after Buchanan had made the ghastly discovery.

Why Lucky took his own life is a fact which as yet has been disclosed. His friends who conversed with him during the day assert that he showed no evidences of mental worry, but appeared to be in good spirits. He was seen on the streets of the city at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and must have gone to the room a short time after this with his mind fully made up to take his own life. The only reason for the deed which appears at all tenable is that he may have lost considerable money while gambling Tuesday. Some of his friends declare that when he came to Ogden Monday he was well supplied with money. Others say he was "on his uppers." When his clothing was searched by Capt. C. C. Brown of the police department, but 30 cents in money and a cheap watch was all that was found.

Lucky came to Ogden Monday. He met a number of his friends and to some he expressed his intention of going to Winnemucca, Nev., today, Tuesday he called at the postoffice and was given two letters, both from Portland, Or. One was from his mother and the other from his sister, Mrs. Harry M. Word, 94 East Fifteenth street. Both letters were written in an affectionate vein, as mother and sister would naturally write to a son and brother.

Across the back of one of the letters he had written to Buchanan as follows: "Buck: This is an imposition." Below that and was well educated. He was Portland was notified.

Lucky worked at the White Elephant gambling hall about a year ago, but since leaving the city has been employed in several cities of the west. He was a man of good appearance, seldom drunk and was well educated. He was popular with his associates.

The body was taken in charge by Undertaker Lindquist and his family notified by telegraph. An inquest will be held Wednesday morning.

ASPIRANTS FOR POSTMASTER-SHIP.

The statement given out a few days ago that William Glasman would resign as postmaster of Merely because you have used such-and-such a soap for years, it does not necessarily follow that it is as good as, or better than, Ivory Soap.

Ivory Soap would never have attained the sale it has if it were not superior to other soaps.

Try it! That is the best way to determine how good it is.

Ogden in the near future has caused the politicians of the city to become active in furthering their claims to the postmastership. Among those who have been mentioned are E. T. Spencer, R. A. Moyes, John E. Bagley, John D. Murphy, O. B. Madison, Rudolph Kuchler, W. C. Howell, George M. Hanson, William Sheely is also talked of as one of the strong candidates, and has a number of endorsements that he secured when Mr. Glasman first talked of resigning.

CUPID'S BUSY DAY.
The work of the weather man in bringing on the wintry weather had little effect upon Cupid and his followers. Such would appear to be the case from the number of marriages licensed that were issued from the office of the county clerk yesterday afternoon.

Licenses were issued to the following: George Burnett and Ada La Verne Porter, both of Ogden; William J. Salmon and Olive G. Gay, both of Ogden; Edward C. Peattie of Chicago and Margaret Shelton of Kadiashell, Montana; E. E. Marriott and Wealtha May Behan, both of Ogden; Henry G. Lundquist and Olive Gardiner, both of Ogden; Ralph R. Woolley and Elizabeth Brett, both of Ogden; and Arthur W. Grow and Ella L. Thurston, both of Huntsville.

TO DISCUSS WOOL TARIFF.
Saturday afternoon at the Weber club the Ogden Wool Growers' association holds a meeting for the purpose of discussing the proposed wool storage at Chicago and the question of the tariff on wool. It is expected that there will be a full attendance.

CURT RENEWS LEASE.—John Cort, general manager of the Northwestern Theatrical association, renewed his lease on the Grand Opera House of this city, which has been under a lease to him during the past five years. In connection with the lease it is stipulated that the owners will expend money immediately in redecorating the house and doing other improving.

S. P. SURGEON.—Dr. F. K. Ainsworth, chief surgeon of the Southern Pacific system, yesterday afternoon issued an order appointing Dr. R. S. Joyce, as acting division surgeon of the Southern Pacific, vice Dr. G. W. Perkins, deceased. Dr. Joyce will now have full charge of the hospital work at this point for the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and the Oregon Short Line systems. Prior to his appointment, Dr. Joyce was the division surgeon for the Union Pacific.

Suit Against City.—Minnie O. Parker has brought suit in the district court against Ogden City to recover damages in the sum of $1,000, alleged to be due for injuries sustained by her by stepping through a broken culvert on Eighteenth street about two months ago.

Funeral of Velade.—The funeral of "Shorty" (W. D.) Velade, who committed suicide in this city ten days ago, was held from the Richey funeral chapel this afternoon. The interment was in the city cemetery. Relatives of the deceased were recently located and requested that the body be buried here.

Thanksgiving Exercises.—In all of the schools of the city today appropriate Thanksgiving services were held in Ogden. The schools close this evening until Monday. After the exercises at the high school the students held a rousing football meeting in which the yells were practised for the game tomorrow at Glenwood park between the high school and the Granite high school teams.

"Man Is As Old As His Stomach"

This Persian Epigram Is the Real Gauge of a Man's Life.

The Persians were a very sagacious people, noted among other things for their deep thinking on life and the things which surround it. The above epigram shows the wisdom of their thought.

When a man's stomach is able to furnish new material to the system as fast as the natural decay of man requires, then such a man lives his fullest and his best.

When through wrong living or disease a man's stomach begins to tax the other organs and takes from the blood strength which it cannot give back in nourishment taken from food, then begins the death of man and he ceases to live.

The stomach which is strong, splendidly strong, and can stand an untold amount of abuse and neglect, but when it does, man dies.

The stomach gives tons upon tons of good rich blood every year to the system and draws only 650 lbs. of nourishment for its own use. If, however, the food which it receives cannot be turned into blood, which is capable of use by the body, then the stomach receives no help from the other organs.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the most perfect digestive qualities known to science and at the same time the most powerful. They will mix with the poisonous juices of a sick stomach and digest food in spite of this handicap.

They will stop gas making and bad breath. They tone up the nerves of the whole digestive canal, including that of the stomach. A single strength strength enough to digest 2,000 times its weight in mixed food.

They have stood the test of time and have been more sought after than all their imitations combined.

They are used and endorsed by 40,000 physicians. Every druggist sells them. Price 50c. It costs nothing to demonstrate their value. Send your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address: The Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Wellsville—Adam Glenn, E. H. Jones, John J. Hendrick, P. Hancey, Alfred Crabtree, Lorenzo Hammond. College—Hyrum Olsen, John Schenk, Jr., Levi Dunn.

MORGAN.
SHOCKING FATALITY.

Laborer Blown to Pieces by Explosion of Giant Powder at Cement Plant.

Special Correspondence.
Morgan, Nov. 23.—Sunday, at 5 p. m. one of the foreign laborers at the Devil's Slide Cement plant, went into the powder magazine where about 40 or 50 pounds of giant powder was being warmed for blasting purposes, and in some unknown way exploded the powder. The body which was blown into the air was so badly torn to pieces that portions of it will never be found. Both feet, hands, and the upper portion of the body were torn from the body. The management at once telephoned Undertaker Welch at Morgan, who went to the scene and now has the body at his undertaking parlors for burial preparations. One other employee was slightly injured by the explosion, but his wounds were dressed by Dr. Dorland at the plant.

A coroner's jury was impaneled which, after learning that the man went into the magazine of his own accord, decided that his death was caused by his own carelessness. The stark left baby boy at the home of Jas. Bertosh at Littleton, Saturday.

Some snow and rain is falling in the valley with every appearance of a heavy snow storm.

MOUNT PLEASANT.
DEATH OF DR. WOODRING.

Esteemed Citizen Passes Away in Salt Lake Hospital—News Briefs.

Special Correspondence.
Mt. Pleasant, Nov. 21.—Samuel Dye, a prominent citizen of Wales, is reported ill with a severe attack of pneumonia. Our Olsen, of Ephraim, who has been working at the rock quarry near here, was brought home from work, suffering with hemorrhage of the lungs. He is in a serious condition. Last evening the Mutual Thanksgiving dance given in the opera house, was the occasion of a most enjoyable time to all participants.

Last week, Drs. Stewart and Winters operated on Mrs. Annie Justesen of Spring City for a diseased condition of the leg. The operation was successful, and Mrs. Justesen is doing well.

Born, to the wife of Waldemar Rasmussen, of Spring City, Nov. 18, a son, DR. WOODRING DEAD.

Dr. W. W. Woodring, who was taken to Salt Lake City to be treated in one of the hospitals, died Sunday. His remains will be brought to Mt. Pleasant today.

Dr. Woodring has been one of Mt. Pleasant's foremost citizens for many years, and will be much missed by the people of the community. The silver medal Demorest contest, held in the Presbyterian church Friday night, in which Ione McArthur, Ada Thompson, Vern Seely, Magnolia Larsen, Emma Christensen, and Mrs. Larsen took part, resulted in Ione McArthur receiving the medal.
