CONGRESSIONAL

SENATE.

from the U. S. Navy, &c.
Morton offered a resolution, which was adopted asking the President for information as to the number, character, cost and present condition of the iron-clads belonging to the U. S. Navy.
The bill to abolish the franking privilege was taken up, the question being on the motion of Drake to allow of the free transmission of newspaper exchanges. Morrill delivered an argument on the necessity of various modifications of the bill in the event of its passage. The bill was laid aside, and the Mississippi bill taken up.
Bayard replied to Morton and denied the assumption that the constitutional definition of a republican form of government progressed with the times. He claimed that the Constitution was the supreme law. Morton briefly replied to the argument of the Senator from Delaware.
Davis read a lengthy written argument relative to the powers of the Federal and State governments.

HOUSE.

Some land offices to be closed—American imprisoned in England—Prohibition on American built ships.
Julian, from the committee on public lands, offered a resolution to close the land offices of any State where the unsold public lands do not exceed ten thousand acres.
A question arose on the order of business, finally a resolution, reported from the committee on foreign relations, calling on the President for information in reference to the imprisonment of Americans in England for political offences, got the preference. About a dozen members obtained permission to have their speeches printed in the Globe.
The House took up the contested election case for the district of New York, Green against Van Wyck. The subject was discussed till half past four and then over till to-morrow. After the introduction of a few bills, the House adjourned.
Maynard offered a resolution, directing the special committee on American navigation to the expediency of granting a bounty on all iron built seagoing vessels constructed in this country during the next three years from American material, equal to the duties which would have to be imposed on such materials if imported; adopted.
A number of petitions were granted.

WASHINGTON.

Montana Indians dying off—Committee at work.
WASHINGTON.—Gen. Sully reports to the Indian bureau that seven hundred and forty Gros-ventres, Indians, of the Fort Browning reservation, Montana, have died of small pox since last September; and only twelve hundred of the tribe are left alive.
The National Hotel was considerably damaged by an incendiary fire this morning.
Among the nominations sent to the Senate to-day, is that Charles H. Hemstead for U. S. Attorney for Utah.
Private letters from Georgia confirm the report of the continued ill-health of Alexander H. Stevens.
The committee on ways and means heard to-day the delegates from the Sugar Refiners of New York, who claim that they represent the interest of importers as well as their own and that they want a more numerous classification of sugar than that in the bill reported; but the probability is that they will not get it. The bill may be amended so as to leave in the Custom House samples of imported sugars for subsequent examination.
The ways and means committee have decided, by a vote of five to four, to make the Internal Revenue a separate department.
Judge Usher, of the Kansas Pacific Railroad, has made an argument before the House Pacific Railroad committee urging the extension of the road to the Pacific and the granting of land as a subsidy.
The House Judiciary committee are maturing the general naturalization bill.

GEORGIA.

Election of Senators.

ATLANTA, GA.—The Legislature to-day, elected Major Whitley, now Solicitor General of the Interior Court of the U. S., Senator for the term ending '71. H. H. Farrow, now Attorney General, for the term ending '73; and Foster Blodgett, for the term commencing '71. The Democrats have generally abstained from voting, preferring to rely on the admission of Hill and Miller.

NEW YORK.

Judgment under the Recent Legal Tender Decision.—A Banquet in honor of Lord Byron—Murders in Havana and France—Went's take Advantage—Shooting and Chopping.
NEW YORK.—The Faculty of the College of New York, last week dismissed eighty-six students for being deficient at their examination.
The west side of the elevated railway will be opened on the 1st of March.
Judge Pratt, of the Superior Court, Brooklyn, yesterday practically applied the recent decision of the Supreme Court in regard to the payment of contracts made before the passage of the legal tender act. A suit was brought to foreclose a mortgage for three thousand dollars, dated July '57. Judge Pratt gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff, that the principal and interest were payable in gold or its equivalent, acting under the Supreme Court decision just referred to.

A Byron banquet is to be given in this city on the 25th of April, the anniversary of Byron's final departure from England, by a large number of prominent bankers and lawyers, who propose thus to testify their disapprobation of the slander heaped upon Byron's memory by Mrs. Stowe.

Havana dispatches state that twenty-five Cubans and Americans have been murdered in the streets of that city since the funeral of Casten.

The appointment of General Jordan as commander-in-chief of the Cuban armies is fully confirmed.

Late Parisian journals show that the notoriety achieved by Traupman has produced an epidemic of crime in France, which followed the execution of the Pantin hero. A terrible tragedy has occurred in the Rue du Faubourg, France, a footman, residing with M. Lambert, formerly French consul general in India, having quarreled with his mistress, severed her head nearly from her body with a knife; the murder was committed in the presence of her husband, who is paralyzed and unable to move from his seat. Francis gave as the motive for committing the crime that his mistress had charged him with stealing a bottle of wine and getting drunk. After his arrest he took the affair very coolly and asked for water to wash the blood from his hands. Three other French murders are reported.

New York 15.—It is said that bankers, brokers, insurance companies and business men in all parts of the North have sent word to Southern lawyers and business men that they shall not take advantage of the recent decision of the Supreme Court relative to contracts and mortgages.

John McLean and E. Sharkey had a fight in a club-room in Stanton street to-night; McLean ended the affair by shooting Sharkey in the head and dangerously wounding him. McLean was arrested.

FOURKEEPSIE, 16.—A horrible affair occurred at Ohioville, Ulster county, yesterday. A deaf and dumb negro, employed by Daniel Haabrook, a wealthy farmer, attacked the latter with an ax, and after repeated onslaughts mangled his head in a terrible manner, leaving Haabrook in a dying condition; the negro was arrested.

MISSOURI.

Respect to the Dead.

St. Louis, 15.—The Merchants Exchange was draped in mourning to-day, in respect to the memory of John J. Roe; the Exchange will be closed to-morrow. The directors and a large number of the members will attend the funeral. The city council and the board of trade passed a resolution, recommending the mayor to suspend business in the city office from 12 to 3 o'clock.

FOREIGN NEWS.

SWITZERLAND.

Peremptory Demand from Russia.
ZURICH.—Russia has made a peremptory demand of the Swiss government for the surrender of certain persons who took refuge in this country some time ago. As there is no treaty between Russia and Switzerland for extradition, the government will deliberate upon the matter.

PORTUGAL.

Engagement with Brazilians and Paraguayans.
LISBON.—Rio Janeiro journals contain accounts of an engagement at Rio Verde. The Brazilians under Col. Farooz assaulted and carried the Paraguayan intrenchment without loss. Lopez was near the scene of action. Some of his officers have gone over to the Brazilians.

AUSTRIA.

Protest against the Syllabus.

VIENNA.—A free press conference report states that the protest of Austria and other Catholic powers against the papal syllabus has been transmitted to Rome.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Irish Land Bill in the Commons.

LONDON.—In the Commons the galleries were crowded. Notices were given of bills to relieve bishops from attendance at Parliament and to review the rates of paper and letter postage.

Gladstone asked leave to bring in a bill for land reform in Ireland. He said that when the Irish Church bill was passed other measures to meet the demands of Ireland were promised. He would now fulfill that promise. He reviewed the land question in Ireland at length, comparing the Irish land tenure with that of England and Scotland and recounted the grievances of the Irish tenantry and referred to the failure, during half a century, of legislation to afford them relief. He then enumerated the features of the bill. It provides for the security of tenure, facility of transfer and purchase of land, for loans to tenants desiring to buy, and for landlords to enable them to retain their land. The new law is to be administered by the court of arbitration at Ulster; charters are to be recognized, and improvements giving increased value to the land are to be paid for. The non-payment of rent is to be a bar to all claims of tenants. Notices to quit are to give the tenants a year's time from the end of the current year, and county fees are to be divided between landlord and tenant. The bill will be read a second time on the seventh of March.
