The business meeting was held in the auditorium of the Packard public lib-rary, and a large attendance yas pres-ent. Two large movements were started, one to inaugurate an Alumni day at the high school, and another to secure an athletic coach on a salary sufficient to justify his giving his en-tire time to the institution. The officers selected for 1908 are: Harry J. Pitts, '99, president; Lester Moreton '07 vice rresident; Lester days ago. PARTIES PLEASE CALL. The management of the Rowe & Kelley company request that all per-sons having cashed checks at their store Monday will kindly call, so that the firm can check up on the number endorsed and those not endorsed. About $250 of endorsed checks were stolen, and in the neighborhood of $100 worth which were not endorsed, and parties who brought in checks on Monday can assist a great deal in straightening the matter out by call-ing and giving the information desired.

DRUNKEN MINER ARRESTED

Man Was Badly Intoxicated and Wrangling With Little Son.

A. Olson, a miner, badly intoxicated and wrangling with his 7-year-old son, was arrested at State and Second South street last evening by Officer Pitts and lodged in jail. The youngster was taken to his home, 146 west Second South street.

Second South street. Olson and his wife are separated and it has been the habit of the man to call to see the boy quite often. Yes-terday he took the child out for a walk and became drunk. He wanted to go to Fort Douglas, but the lad in-sisted on going home. The condition of the man angered several persons, who notified Officer Pitts. Olson will have to answer to the charge of drunk. have to answer to the charge of drunk.

IDENTIFIES HOLDUPS.

C. A. Gustafson, a miner, called at police headquarters yesterday afternoon and identified Edward Carroll and W. G. Apperley, two of the four men arrested for robbing two railroad men in the clift House, as the men who held him up and robbed him of $75 Friday night. Carroll and Apperley will be charged with highway robbery in ad-dition to the charge of burglary.

claim that cattle will not eat where sheep have been grazing does not hold good, as he found out by experi-ence on the Uintah reservation "that cattle would drift over to where sheep were freeding, after feed on their own section became scarse. Moreover, at the Provo conference, cattlemen were willing to have their stock" graze with the sheep, and the sheepmen did not object if the cattle were not al-lowed to bunch together in large herds.

RETURNS FROM MEXICO.

C. H. Miller Says There Arc 16,000 Americans in Aztec Capital.

C. H. Miller has just returned from a month's trip through Old Mexico, Mr. Miller was formerly a freight conductor on the Mexican Central, running between Aguas Callentes and Tampleo, and speaks the language of the country, so he was entirely at home among the natives and with the vernacular. He says the bathing was so fine in the Guil of Mexico at Tampico that he remained of Mexico at Tampico that he remained in the water for two hours, and then didn't want to come out. Mr. Miller went as far south as Vera Cruz, and spent some time in the City of Mexico and prominent northern points. He found 16,000 Americans in the Mexican capital, with more coming, and two American daily papers. Americans are flocking into the country in large num-bers, taking up land in all directions, or interesting themselves in mines, Mr. Miller says land he could have bought 10 years ago, for $1.25 per acre, he now would have to pay $10 and $15 for uncleared. He found that many so-call-ed unhealthful tracts were in that con-dition because of decaying vegetation;

ed unhealthful tracts were in that con-dition because of decaying vegetation; but says that when the lands are clear-ed, and the soil turned over, these un-healthful conditions disappear. Ameri-cans are extensively engaged in rais-ing sugar cane, rubber, and fruits of all kinds, to say nothing of immense sums invested in mining industries. Mis. Miller accompanied her husband on bis Mexican ulterimase his Mexican pligrimage,
