

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—"Frou Frou" was splendidly played on Saturday evening. Miss Hinchey and Mr. Thompson appearing to great advantage. It is an excellent piece with an instructive moral. The "Rival Dutchmen" was also well rendered. There was a good house.

ARREST.—A man named Charles Roberts was arrested, on Saturday last, on a charge of having, a few weeks ago, obtained money under false pretenses, under the name of a "Wine Works Wonders." Mr. Roberts came to the city by the mail. He is a native of the Territory, and is a well known person. He is now in the hands of the law.

NEWS FROM ST. GEORGE.—The following was received this morning, per Deseret Telegraph Line: St. George, Jan. 15. Received your Sunday morning meeting, and was glad to hear of the success of the same. We are all well here.

CONVENT.—The gentlemen who left here on Saturday last, for the purpose of giving evidence in the trial of the mail robbers who were captured in this Territory, returned on Saturday last. We are informed by them that the prisoners were convicted and will receive their sentence tomorrow.

DISORDER.—On the sidewalk, in front of Dr. M. L. Singer's Machine establishment, a woman on which are exhibited some elegant, varnished, and unvarnished, specimens of decorative paperhangings. We ascertained that the walls of the machine shop had lately been ornamented in splendid style. They are laid off in patterns, and are of various colors. The work is done by Brother W. H. Fowler, who is an adept at his business.

MUSIC IN THE SETTLEMENTS.—C. H. Burke, Esq., Manager of the Cushman concert, writing from Provo, on the 13th instant, says they have had a most pleasant and successful trip—the people and troupe having been mutually pleased. On their return they had a very successful concert at Pleasant Grove, American Fork and Willow Creek, next Friday, Saturday and Monday evenings respectively.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills. For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally and judiciously used, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient, purgative Pill.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Lascitancy, Langor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Headache, &c., they should be judiciously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Biliousness, Constipation, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstruction which cause it.
