

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

MORNING - NOVEMBER 6, 1894.

CHAUNCEY WEST SHOT.

The Virtue of a Murderous Train at Butte, Montana.

The sad news has reached Salt Lake that Chauncey W. West, a conductor on the Butte, Anaconda & Pacific railway, was fatally shot by a murderer named Tomp at Butte, Montana, yesterday morning.

West's dying statement to the prosecuting attorney was to the effect, as his train left Butte, as discovered a man stealing a tire. The train was stopped and the man ejected. A few miles farther along the road it was discovered that the man had been shot and was dead. West said he had no idea who had done it, as it was dark when he started his train.

West's wife and three daughters were taken to Butte by a passenger special train to remain with him during his last hours on earth. The widow was very severe over one of them as they have been educated especially for their relatives and friends in instrument all.

Mr. West was a Utah boy, the eldest of six late. Bishop Chauncey W. West, a graduate of the law school of the University of Michigan, was a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Forest Dale, who resides at No. 224 South Fifth Street. He was about 35 years of age and a very popular railroad man.

Why not combine business with pleasure? If you buy a home in Forest Dale, you can enjoy the ride and taste your residence that hundreds are anxious to take for pleasure alone.

What is more invigorating during these warm days than a ride on an open electric car? Try it early one morning or after your work in the evening, and then if you wish a home, buy in Forest Dale. By doing so you can enjoy the canyon beauty, and still be near your work. Can have water, belonging to yourself piped to your door, and still pay city rates. Can have the benefits of gold schools, and of pleasant associations, yet have none of the smoke and discomfort of residence in a city.

Indulgences to build, small payments and long time at low interest will be allowed desirable parties.

Do You Take A RIDE?

No more pleasant ride can be found anywhere than that to the suburbs Southeast of Salt Lake City. If you drive, ride horseback, or use a bicycle, the nicely packed roads afford continual pleasure. The popularity of the East Boulevard is attested by the hundreds of wheels and thousands of people that daily throng it.

Why not combine business with pleasure? If you buy a home in Forest Dale, you can enjoy the ride and taste your residence that hundreds are anxious to take for pleasure alone.

What is more invigorating during these warm days than a ride on an open electric car? Try it early one morning or after your work in the evening, and then if you wish a home, buy in Forest Dale. By doing so you can enjoy the canyon beauty, and still be near your work. Can have water, belonging to yourself piped to your door, and still pay city rates. Can have the benefits of gold schools, and of pleasant associations, yet have none of the smoke and discomfort of residence in a city.

Indulgences to build, small payments and long time at low interest will be allowed desirable parties.

Call at CASSIER'S office, 233 Constitution Building, and get plan and prices.

Residence Located.

Habitats entered and listed at least two residences yesterday afternoon while the regular occupants were at the Fair and in each instance they kept a good, garnished, The Fair was held on Saturday, Oct. 6, at No. 224 South Fifth Street, where J. A. Peck is now residing at No. 224 South Fifth Street. At the first place the body, secured consisted of a diamond ring, an ornate gold chain, and a lady's pocket book containing a small amount of cash. In the second instance a $200 gold watch, silver sleeve buttons and a breast pin were carried off.

THE POPULIST TICKET.

It is headed by H. L. Grant who was nominated for Delegate to Congress.

When the Territorial convention of the Populist party adjourned from the old People's theater on Commercial street last evening a permanent organization had been effected, resolutions accepted, candidates for University and accomplishments chosen, and a committee for delegate to Congress nominated. In fact the regular business transacted in such cases has received attention.

A letter of thanks was addressed to temporary chairman, and H. H. Davis, of Weber, was named as temporary secretary.

J. P. Jackson, of Millard, T. L. West, W. A. McKeown, and H. G. Sayler, of Logan, and W. S. Kaine, of Cache, C. A. Cornish, of Cache, and H. T. Brooks of Utah county were appointed by the chair a committee of credentials and order of business.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we endorse the principles and resolutions of the People's party adopted July 1, 1892.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the Populist party in its struggle for the purpose of protecting the interests and improving the condition of the masses against organized monopoly.

Resolved, We demand the enlargement of the eight-hour day in all public works in this Territory, whether contract or otherwise, and that all contracts be so limited, We demand that all salaries be fixed, and that all salaries