Another Extraordinary Delivery of Worms.

SALT LAKE CITY,
Oct. 24, 1877.

Dr. E. L. Plant:

Dear Sir—Gratitude and thanks are but poor words to use in conveying my feelings for the very astonishing cure you have performed on my daughter. She passed five worms from seven to eight inches long, and between two and three hundred smaller ones; they appeared to be alive. She was partially paralyzed, in fact, so much so that she had to be carried in and out of bed. She is nearly recovered from this.

Again thanking you, I am yours respectfully, JACOB PIERCE, Consumption can be cured.

Schreck's Pulmonic Syrup.

Schreck's Sea Weed Tonic.

Schreck's Mankra Pills.

Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Frequently medicines that will stop a cough will occasion the death of the patient; they lock up the liver, stop the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and in fact they clog the action of the very organs that caused the cough.

Later complaint and dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of consumption. Many persons complain of a dull pain in the side, constipation, coated tongue, pain in the shoulder blade, feelings of drowsiness and restlessness, the food lying heavily on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and belching up of wind.

These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver.

Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy doses, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly checked, will find the stomach and liver clogged, remaining torpid and inactive, and almost before they are aware the lungs are a mass of sore, and ulcerated, the result of which is death.

Schreck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain opium or anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schreck's Sea Weed Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gas-trical juices of the stomach, aids in digestion, and creates a ravenous appetite.

When the bowels are constive, skin sallow, or the symptoms other than of a bilious condition, Schreck's Mankra Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared only by

J. H. SCHRECK & SON,
N. E. corner Sixth & Arch Sts., Philadelphia.

And are for sale by all druggists and dealers.

above company will be held in the Fireman's Hall, to-morrow evening, Oct. 31. All the members are requested to be present.

G. W. TIMPSON, Secretary.

Drifts.—The blustery wind which commenced to blow in fitful gusts, last night, will be likely to fill up the cavities in the mountains with deep snow drifts and render traveling in some of the cañons nearly, if not quite, impracticable.

Medal Match.—The sixth medal match of the Amateur Rifle Club came off on Saturday afternoon, resulting in victory for the third him in the Presidency of that mission.

Elder S. H. Hill is (on account of poor health) released from traveling in the Swiss and German Mission, and will hereafter labor in the Newcastle and Durham Conference, England, under the direction of Pres. Royal B. Young.—Millennial Star, Oct. 8.

Horse Stealing.—Last evening a young man, who had brought a herd of cattle to the city, tied his horse to the hitching post opposite the Exchange Buildings corner, while he visited a restaurant. When he returned he discovered that some one had stolen the animal.
The thief had taken the saddle from the horse and placed it in a wagon that was standing near.

Terry et al.; continued.

Henry Hunt vs. L. B. Ketchum, trial by jury; verdict for the plaintiff; damages fixed at $93 and costs.

Missionary.—This afternoon we were pleased to receive a call from Elder Richard G. Lambert, who, as previously stated in the News, returned on Monday morning, from a mission to the Sandwich Islands.
He left here for that part of the world on November 1st, 1873, and consequently was absent but a few days short of four years. He married; just previous to leaving, and was accompanied by his wife to the islands, where they had two children, both sons, born to them.

Elder Lambert was engaged on the plantation about half the time of his absence, and the other portion in the ministry, preaching the gospel among the natives, of whom he baptized a large number. He reports the mission in fair condition, but the natives are a people, generally speaking, whom it is difficult to keep in the paths of virtue.
It is much easier to convert them to the right than to keep them going in that direction.

Brother Lambert is glad, after so protracted an absence among a strange people, to be once more in his "mountain home." His health was generally poor when on the islands, but improved considerably on the homeward voyage; the quick transition from a hot climate to the cool atmosphere here, causes him to be very sensitive to the cold.

When he left Honolulu the brethren and sisters from Utah were all enjoying good health.

Edwin Adams.—Many of our citizens will retain a pleasing memory of the late Edwin Adams, who died yesterday. He was an actor of most exquisite finish. His playing, in company with John Mc-Callough, in the Salt Lake Theatre, several years ago, drew large houses and delighted the lovers of the histrionic art. The two actors seemed to be upon the most intimate terms. On the occasional referred to they indulged in a little jocular by-play with each other, while acting in the "Caricature Brothers." The audience observed but good humoredly passed over the frolicsome tendency of the two artists.

The last engagement of Mr.
Adams with the management of the Salt Lake Theatre was also a very successful one, financially as well as artistically. Each performance was witnessed by a large house.

In his decease the histrionic stage has lost one of its most genial and brilliant luminaries. Combined with a high order of ability and culture, he was credited, by those who knew him best, with possessing a kindly disposition.

Mexico.—To-day we were pleased to meet with Elder Meliton Gonzales Trejo, who recently got back from Mexico, where he has been laboring in the ministry for nearly a year, in connection with Elders Heleman Pratt, J. Z. Stewart and other missionaries. Their visit to that part created intense excitement, especially in the State of Sonora, where the feeling ran exceedingly high, both for and against the Elders. Some families even being divided on the subject. Many reclared the message of the missionaries to be true, but they had not the courage to obey the gospel, on account of the fierce opposition they would have to meet. There were a few, however, who had sufficient fortitude and were baptized.

In some places stones have been hurled at the Elders, but the latter always escaped without injury. There were several cases of instan-taneous healing of the sick by the power of God, which tended to heighten the excitement.

Elder Trejo thinks that much of the gospel seed sown in the mission by the Elders will yet take root and produce good fruit. One Mexican, an intelligent and tolerably educated man, who was baptized, was ordained an Elder, and has been laboring in the ministry faithfully.

Elder Trejo expects to return to Mexico or Arizona in a short time.
He feels well and says he has thus far been much blessed on his mission.

Accident on the U. O. R. R.—
This morning, while the U. O. R. passenger train was coming from Ogden, it encountered a terrific wind storm, which turned the whole train, consisting of two passenger coaches and baggage car, nearly upside down, about half a mile south of Farmington. Several passengers were severely "bruised and cut, but apparently not otherwise injured. The stoves were thrown over and the fire scattered over the car floors, but was fortunately extinguished before any damage was done. The engine remained at the scene of the accident about thirty minutes, then came to the city with the mail matter and all of the injured passengers, except one lady. The injured passengers were immediately taken up town for medical assistance.

Superintendent John Sharp and Road Master Leavitt, with two engines, immediately started back with the necessary apparatus and men for righting the train, and it is expected that the track would be clear and everything all right for the afternoon train.

The passenger most severely hurt of the three who were brought to the city on the engine is Brigham S. Young, son of Hon. Brigham Young. It is difficult to tell the extent of his injuries, although no bones are broken. He has sustained a severe nervous shock, from which he is likely to suffer for the most. Mr. McElroy, another of the three, is at the Valley House. His injuries are much less severe. Besides being cut and bruised about the head, he received a bruise in the hip joint. Dr. J. S. Richards is attending upon both. The third, whose name we failed to learn, was but slightly injured.

Dr. H. J. Richards went to Farmington with Superintendent Sharp, to render medical aid to the lady who is hurt. Her name is Jacobs and she resides at Springville. Her injuries are not serious. All the passengers were brought in this afternoon.

The news of the accident caused a good deal of excitement in the city, especially among persons having relatives and friends on the train.
It is very remarkable for an accident of that character to occur and the casualties be so limited. In fact it is very rare for a railroad train to be lifted bodily from the track and overturned by the wind at all.
Farmington, however, is specially noted for its great wind storms, the people there having to build their dwellings with a view to resisting the fierce blasts of boreas. It is, or at least has been, a common occurrence there for the roofs of houses to be lifted from their fastenings and carried a considerable distance away.

An exqu沿海, leading a dog by a string, lounged up to the ticket office window of a railway station last week, and inquired: "Must I aw-take a ticket for a puppy?" He was naturally both surprised and annoyed when the ticket seller replied, in a slightly bewildered tone, after a moment's reflection:
"No, you can travel as an ordinary passenger."
