LOCAL NEWS.

Set for the 27th.—Yesterday afternoon two officers visited the First Ward and subpoenaed a number of persons, including the school teacher and several children, to appear in court on the 27th inst., for which date the trial of Elder A. M. Musser is fixed.
 Lindsey's Gardens.—These pleasure gardens, which have been closed for a number of years, are being thoroughly cleaned and refitted, and will be opened on the first of May, by Mr. Frank Scott, who has leased the premises for a number of years, and proposes to make a first-class resort for parties of pleasure seekers.
 Damage Awarded.—At last evening's session of the District Court, the jury in the case of W. D. Clays vs. D. & R. G. W., a suit for $50,000, rendered the following verdict: "We, the jury, impounded in the above action, and for the plaintiff, and assess his damages in the sum of $16,000." They were then discharged from further service.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—Work on the Provo Theatre is progressing and it is the design to have it completed by the first of July.
 A man named Frank Dunn was shot and killed at Aspen, Colorado, last Wednesday. The particulars of the shooting are not known, but the victim was a respectable character, and it doubtless occurred in a saloon brawl.
 —Last Wednesday evening, a cave occurred in one of the slopes of the Star West mine, near Butte, by which a man named Samuel Vigus, was injured. While he was working, a rock weighing about 400 pounds fell from the hanging wall, and, rolling over, caught his legs, and though not breaking into pieces, severely sprained both ankles. Mr. Vigus seems to have had a fortunate escape from death, for the huge rock fell without warning just as he stepped from beneath it. Had it occurred a second sooner he must have been killed outright.
 A man named Prosper Langrois, while working on a mining claim at Quartsburg, Idaho, owned by James McKay, was shot and fatally wounded one day last week by a man named Richard Peeke. It seems that Peeke claimed the ground on which Langrois was working, and without a word of warning, he came up to the latter one afternoon and shot him with a Sharp's rifle, while he was stooping over to fix a hose. The bullet passed through the man's right hip, inflicting a very painful wound, from which he died in about six hours. Peeke gave himself up to the officers, waived examination, and is now in prison awaiting the action of the grand jury.

I see by the Herald that the movers in the Manti newspaper scheme were going to move a press and other material belonging to "Joe Field," from Richmond, Ky. I wish to say that such is not the case, as their material has been purchased, and not a type or any portion of the material ever belonged to said "Joe Field." "The Wages of Sin."—Concerning this beautiful melodrama, which will be presented at the Theatre, three nights next week, the New York Times says:
 "We were agreeably surprised on Monday evening by the presentation of Frank Harvey's drama, 'The Wages of Sin,' at the Fourteenth Street Theatre. It is an intensely exciting, well constructed and admirably written play; and while it may contain a little too much moralizing on the whole, it is pleasing and instructive, and appeals vigorously to the heart of the ordinary man or woman. 'The Wages of Sin' will continue until further notice, and it is safe to say will have, as it deserves, a long run."
 M. N. Railway.—The Mexican National Railway, on business connected with which Col. Dodge has been in the City of Mexico, will extend its line about forty miles this season. This road, with its branches, has now over 1,000 miles of track built, and when completed, will reach from Laredo, Texas, to the City of Mexico. It is a narrow gauge, has a shorter route, and runs through a richer section of country than the Mexican Central, which at present connects with the Mexican capital.
 District Court Proceedings.—Yesterday afternoon, too late for last evening's issue, the following business was transacted before Judge Kane:
 In the case of London Bank vs. W. H. Bowers et al., a decree of foreclosure was entered.
 The case of Luther H. Burnham vs. W. H. Bowers et al., was consolidated with the above.
 The defendants in the case of the People et al., vs. Lee Dong and Ah Ting, indicted for grand larceny, were arraigned, and through an interpreter, pleaded not guilty. Their bail was fixed at $500 each.
 A recess was taken until 7:30, at which hour the grand jury brought in five indictments found under the laws of the United States. Having no further business, they were discharged.
 The jury impaneled in the case of W. D. Clays, by his guardian, vs. D. & R. G. W. Railway Company, brought in a verdict of $16,000 in favor of the plaintiff. Forty days were allowed in which to file a bill of exceptions. The judge expressed his thanks to the jury and they were discharged. This completed the business for the February term, and the Court adjourned sine die.
 Verdict of Suicide.—We announced in last evening's issue that the body of a man who had come to his death in some mysterious manner had been found near Weber Station, on the U. P. R. R. It now appears from the following, just received, that the remains were found at a point considerably higher up the river than at first reported, and that there is no doubt as to the cause of his death.
 TERRITORY OF UTAH,

 Morgan County.
 An inquisition holden in the office of George P. H. H. in Crockett Precinct, Morgan County, on the 4th day of April, A. D. 1885, before me, the Justice of the Peace for Crockett Precinct, in said county.
 After viewing the body of a person found on Look Creek, name unknown, only by letters lying by him, which give the name of C. E. Shelley, there being doubt by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, the said body, upon their oaths, do hereby certify that the body of a man, supposed to be between 30 and 40 years of age, supposed to have lain there about six months, as the flesh upon his body was mostly decomposed. The body was found about one and a quarter miles from the settlement, half a mile south of Weber Station, on the U. P. R. R. Found upon his person, cash $1.37 and one open-face watch, value $1. The pistol by which he shot himself was found lying upon his breast; also a bunch of keys and several loose letters.
 In testimony whereof the said jurors have hereunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.
