The Bible says: to prevent the finding of the objecbring them out, where they can be picked off by the troops. No quarter whileshown to them, and it is very evident that they must suffer in the final settlement of their leads of butchery.

To-day, among the dispatches, we publish from the West is the following-

Thery has been nothing done slace th battle of the 2sth. Everything is quiet, and no further party of disting the Mcdocs is setting upon. The opinion prevailed that it was perfect folly to attempt to try and whip the Modocs in the manner thus fur pursued. No scouting has been done, and eight bodies are known to still lie upon the field of bat-

This last is a decided change of tale, and is a pretty fair acknow-ledgment that for the present the Modocs are the victors and the the troops are puzzled what to do. There are two distinctive modes of operation which different people might advise under the circum-

Judging the Mormon People.

Is it quite fair to judge the Mor-mon people by the single trait of polygamy? If it is, then the City of New York lies open to condem-nation any day, on the score of its grog-shops, gambling hells, and other institutions of deeperinfamy. What are the facts? Brigham Young gives them in the summary of his life, as telegraphed to the Herald this morning. A desert has been made a home for one hundred thousand temperate, frugal, hard-working people. Two hundred cities have been founded, with

SAN DEFGO.—Tucson dates to the 2sth ary that two Mexicans came into camp McDowell and reported that one of their number had been killed by the Apaches. Troops were sent out and found the nur-dered man. There was no trail of Indians, and it is suspected that the man was murdered by his compan-lons. Trom Mexico we learn that Lo-rada is strongly entrenched in the mountains at the back of Jepu, with a force of from 4,000 to 6,000 mea. Federal toops are in the
