Desperate Fighting Between the Versailles Forces and the Communists.

The Ku Klux and Deceitful Appropriation Bills Signed.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Congress, this morning, has passed about forty bills of a public and private character. The President signed a number of bills to-day, including the Ku Klux and defective appropriation bills.

WASHINGTON, 21.—Of the twenty members of the House of Delegates, the Republicans are eleven, the Democrats seven. General Chapman, Republican, is elected delegate to Congress by four thousand majority over

Mr. Smith.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, 20, 2 p.m.—There were twenty six bids for gold to-day, amounting to nearly nine millions, from 111.02 to 111.31. The awards would be made to-day.

NEW YORK, 21.—In the Erie receivership case yesterday, Judge Pierpont, by the authority of Judge Gould, made a decree to the effect that in consequence of the Erie road having failed to pay the five thousand dollars a month, the company was on the verge of bankruptcy when he, Gould, personally advanced several hundred thousand dollars, and took control of the road. He thinks it might have been a different result had the directors, and that subsequent stock was issued in place of the bonds and regularly sold in market.

MADRID, 20.—Castilla, to-day, declared the house of Savoy, and was used to order amid confusion.

PARIS, 5.—The Communists have been driven out of the city, and the late were reinforced at Neuilly bridge, but the army of the Versailles defend with great tenacity the barricade opposition. The Versailles keep up an incessant cannonading, but do not occupy the village of Anvers; they are inrenched at the railway station, and in the Colombes works. The Versailles fire greatly tries the nation who are retiring with heavy loss. A decisive engagement is pending. The Mallot gate and the ramparts adjoining are in ruins. The Arch of Triumph is suffering from the terrible bombardment.

The shells are reaching Rue Calais.

There is no more to be said. The government refuse to stop publication; the compositions on the other journals are rioting.

GREAT BRITAIN.

English Sanctions.

LONDON, 20.—In the House of Commons to-night, although the budget was to be submitted, the attendance of members was light. Viscount Knifield, under foreign secretary, in reply to an inquiry, stated that the government has not been apprized of a renewal of relations between Spain and Mexico.

Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, introduced the budget. He referred to the stupendous events which had transpired in Europe since the last financial statement was presented, events of a character and magnitude to set at naught all estimates of trade and reve-nuue. Nevertheless the resources of the kingdom had shown great elasticity.

The revenue was two and a half millions in excess of the estimates, and the expenditure fell half a million below them. While the cost of the army was half a million more than had been calculated, that of the civil service was nearly a million less. Lowe proceeded to give in detail the plans of the government for further economy, one of the most important being the placing of chancery funds in the hands of government for conversion into stock.

LONDON, 21.—The Daily News special reports the President's intention of the forts to the lawful government.

The five hundred millions are still unpaid. The barricade at the Rue de Mi-volit is formidable. The Duke of Borgogne has returned to London.

The ship Royal Arthur is a complete wreck. Some of the suppressed journals continue to appear in Paris.

The estimated expense of the army for the current year, including those incurred by the abolition of the purchase system, are $18,000,000; and the navy $2,750,000. The estimates for the civil services show an increase of $400,000 over those of last year, in consequence of the educational measures.

The revenue from customs for the current financial year is estimated at less than last. The total receipts from all sources, it is estimated, will not exceed, in round figures, $18,000,000 while the total expenditures may reach $22,000, 000.

The Chancellor said that the fact that England could not be invaded reduced her credit, and insured her commerce. He defended the recent reductions in taxation on the ground that they were made because war was not expected. He proposed to restore taxes on dividends belonging to foreigners abroad, and to abolish other exemptions from taxation, and to impose fur-
