

and his ball is opened. Then it is ascertained for whom that ball was cast and a decision made accordingly. That is the purpose of the system of numbering. Were it not for this safeguard there might be placed in the presidential chair of this nation a man who is not right to be there. The purpose of the law is good and complete with the constitution as far as absolute security is concerned. The object of this act is to prevent the possibility of a man being elected to the office of president who is not right to be there. ON A VISIT TO UTAH.

Governor Drake of Iowa Seeing the Sights of Salt Lake.

ARRIVED HERE AT NOON TODAY

His Mission a Non-Political One—Grows
Himself to an Interview
With a News Man.

Governor Drake of Iowa, one of the most able and accomplished state executives of the country arrived in Salt Lake at 12:30 this afternoon. A couple of hours later he was met on the street by a News representative and readily yielded to an interview. During the conversation the Governor proved himself to be a versatile and interesting character. He is an old-timer, stockily built, gray haired and well preserved. This is not his first visit to Utah as he will be seen from the following proceedings. The public at large are also deeply interested and will eagerly look for the court's decision.

Mr. Drake, closed his argument this afternoon, and Arthur Brown, Esq., followed in behalf of the petitioner, but it was too late for the News to report. The case will occupy all of tomorrow.

DEBT-GRABBER

Ten Last Year Heavy Annuity—Thompson's Expense Case.

The jury in the suit of Margaret Thompson against Lymia and Mr. Darnall brought in a verdict for the defendant this morning. The suit was brought by Mrs. Thompson to recover $5,000 which she claimed to have given her husband to invest in mining property, but which he alleged to have lost over a large game conducted by the defendant. The suit has occupied Judge Hume's time for over two days past.

COUGHLIN'S DEED

His Last Spark of Hope Vanished—Tuesday is the Day.

The board of pardons has refused to give Coughlin's case a hearing and he will die on Tuesday next. Judge Hatch having adhered to the original decision—December 15th. The attorneys for Coughlin, Johnson & Hayes at Ogden, have left no stone unturned in behalf of their client and have worked faithfully to secure a change of sentence to life imprisonment. Now, however, they realize there is no hope and nothing more can be done.

"Beantles" of Football.

Frank Poole, one of the High School football team, while practicing the other day fell and struck one of his knees in such a manner as to injure it permanently. The knee cap was knocked off and Frank will unfortunately have to go for the remainder of his life. George Robinson, one of the High School team, who got his nose smashed in the game with the Crescent last Saturday, is now wearing a pair of tues inside and a high placed pair outside, one of his eyes of his nose appendage. He has determined to quit playing now, because he thinks such marks of distinction don't improve his looks.

THE BUFFALO ON EXHIBITION.

The large buffalo killed on Antelope Island by the hunting party on Monday last, is attracting a great deal of attention. It was today removed from the wagon on which it was hauled from Farmington and placed on a table in front of Lauman's market on Temple street. The huge carcass is the center of attraction on the street. It was taken down from the wagon last evening, arriving here about 5 o'clock.

THE GOODS IDENTIFIED.

The entire lot of stolen horses and saddles found by Officer Shannon yesterday on lower Main street, has been identified. Besides Mr. Darnall's property, claims have been made by Bailey and Sons, F. B. Thomas and others. Among the lot is a cavalry saddle, stolen from the premises of one of the militia boys.

IRON THIEVES IN COURT.

David Hiltman, Charles Small and Jesse Bonner, the three men arrested several days ago for stealing iron from the Rio Grande Western railway, were today before Justice Wenger to trial. Hiltman and Small pleaded not guilty and had separate jury trials, the latter of which was in progress at press time, and the former resulting in the defendant's being found not guilty. Bonner will be made out at the termination of Small's hearing.

AMUSEMENTS.

One of the notable events of the present theatrical season will be the return to the Theater December 14th and 15th, of Denman Thompson's play, The Old Homestead. In this contribution to the stage, Mr. Thompson has proven himself to be in the front rank of modern authors. His play, brightened by his work, the thought, and may be, the lives of many of his auditors. The story of the play is not to be told; suffice it is familiar to every one. The cast is in excellent keeping with the play, and the play is a masterpiece of modern drama, and the play is a masterpiece of modern drama.
