EASTERN DISPATCHES.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., 3.—Yesterday noon, at Lyons, a farmer's team ran away, throwing the man out and killing him. In the afternoon a relative of the deceased, Mr. Fox, drove an unruly team to the village for the purpose of procuring a coffin for the remains and, in crossing the Central railroad track, the locomotive collided with the wagon, and Fox and the horses were killed. The locomotive and two or three cars were thrown into a ditch but the rest of the train was injured.

ALBANY, 3.—After a long and moderate convention a full electoral ticket was elected, including Peter Giese, Jno. A. Goodlet, and Geo Sprague, at large. Resolutions were passed in support of O'Connor and Adams, and the Louisville platform was adopted. Twenty-seven delegates were elected. The motion for the nomination of a ticket for State officers was rejected, by 12 to 15. Adjourned sine die.

ATLANTA, Ga.—In 51 counties the majority is 37,117.

BOSTON.—Rev. Benjamin R. Hoyt, the most ordained Methodist minister in New England, died at his residence, in Salem, to day.

The board of examiners for the treasury department will soon hold competitive examinations for the purpose of filling upwards of forty vacancies in first-class clerkships.
About fifty candidates will be examined each day, making nearly two hundred in all.

ST. LOUIS.—Twelfth annual fair of the Agricultural and mechanical association. The day has been one of preparation rather than exhibition, and the attendance was not large.
None of the departments are yet complete. There is a large amount of stock of all kinds on the ground.

INDIANAPOLIS, 3.—The Republican demonstration here to-night is the largest of the campaign. Gen. Butler addressed an immense audience at the wires.

DAYTON, Ohio.—Senator Wilson addressed the largest political meeting ever assembled here, this evening. The Republican demonstration here is immense in point of numbers.

AUGUSTA, Ga.—Returns from sixty counties in portion of the State give a Democratic majority of 25,000.
Several counties are yet to hear from.
The Democrats claim they will increase the majority to 40,000.

WASHINGTON.—The American and British commissioners were in continuous session to-day, from 11 to 6, and transacted a large amount of business, after closing the proofs in a large number of cases, on the part of the claimants and extending time in several instances.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Three passengers on a mail train going west on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad, felt through a gate, three miles west of Greenback, this morning. One brakeman was killed, seven passengers seriously and twenty slightly injured. No names are received.

Washington, D. C.—Charles Adderly, Conservative member of Parliament, addressed a large meeting of his constituents, at Barrow, last night. In the course of his remarks he alluded to the work of the Geneva Tribunal and the relations between Great Britain and England and the United States. He said the prosperity of the world depended upon a cordial understanding between the two nations. England had made great sacrifices to terminate the state of semi-colonialism and preserve the unity of Canada.

PARIS.—It is rumored that President Thiers intends, next session of the Assembly, to urge the Conservative deputy to propose a proposition for the definitive establishment, by proclamation, of a permanent republic, based on strictly conservative principles. It is also said that Casimir Perier is now using his influence with the Right Centre of the Assembly to bring it to accept the President's views.

LONDON.—London has been found guilty of murder in the first degree.

EVANSVILLE.—Oliver E. Dalton, late of the second Colorado cavalry, was shot to death by a piece of meat, at St. Paul.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—An explosion in the Hoosac Tunnel this morning killed one workman and badly injured several others.

WILLIAMS, Iowa.—A girl of thirteen, daughter of H. Eichman, living five miles south of her, was bitten by a rattlesnake and died in great agony in less than two hours.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

MARYSVILLE, 3.—The match game of base ball, to-day, between the Nevada club, Virginia City, and the Alerts of Marysville, resulted in favor of the former; score, 58 to 20.

A stage line has been established between this city and Knight's Landing, consuming with trains of the California railroad, to and from San Francisco.

PORTLAND, 3.—Regular arrivals of wheat by the Oregon and California Pacific Railroad average twenty-five car loads a day.

Surveys on the Portland, Dallas and Salt Lake Railroads have been completed from Columbia to Pendleton, across

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 4, 1872.
