

FIFTIETH YEAR

MR. CHAMBERLAIN
OPENED HIS MOUTHAfternoon Press Generally Thinks He Put His Foot In It.

EXTENSIVE TOWARD FRANCE

Press Says His Words are Threats—Not Much Importance Attached Thereto.London, Dec. 1.—With few exceptions afternoon newspapers dissent from Chamberlain's Anglo-Saxon-Teutonic alliance speech at Leicester.The Pall Mall Gazette lays stress on the "anti-German prejudice" in the speech and declares bluntly that Chamberlain had better have kept his tongue in his pocket.The Westminster Gazette takes the line, holding that Mr. Chamberlain did not represent the government, and pointing out how offensive his speech was towards France.The Globe maintains it is impossible to Germany to give a quid pro quo for responsibility which would accrue to Britain by such an alliance.The Evening Standard says: "Mr.
Chamberlain referred to no alliance by name."The St. James Gazette says: "Mr.
Chamberlain expresses English public opinion which has come to realize that Germany and the United States are not work, because with those powers have a community of interests and ambitions, whereas with Russia and France they have not."The Sun, the only other afternoon paper, takes a similar favorable view of the suggested alliance.Dec. 1.—Some of the newspapers attach considerable importance to the statement of Jos. Chamberlain at Leicester yesterday, and consider that the Emperor William's visit to England was partially political. The Daily Mail, however, characterizes the speech as a "disaster" and regards the suggestion of an alliance between Great Britain, the United States and Germany as "absolutely preposterous."The Daily Mail observes that Mr. Chamberlain alludes to the alliance as an unsuccessful fact, and as being his own "idea" on the opportunity to show threats to France, which leaves no room for doubt as to the famous proposition of a new triple alliance.The Journal recalls the recall of Admiral Fournier's squadron from the Mediterranean in view of "essentialities which arise from the present anti-British campaign in France."The Daily Mail is on board the advice that the British fleet should be sent to Constantinople, where the Sultan will formally receive him today. The rest of the fleet awaits Admiral Fournier at Messina.

THE PRESIDENT HOBART'S WILL.

Disposition of His Estate, Valued at About $2,500,000.Paterson, N. J., Dec. 1.—The will of late Vice President, Garret A. Hobart, was filed in the Passaic county probate court today. The value of the estate is not given, but is understood to be about $2,500,000. Of the estate Mrs. Jennie Hobart, the widow, receives $1,000,000 and one half of the remainder, after payment of bequests and the son, Garret Hobart, Jr., includes the other half when he attains majority.St. Joseph Hospital, the general hospital, the children's day nursery, St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum and Paterson Orphan Asylum, all of Paterson, receive $500,000 each.Hobart Tuttle, private secretary to the President, receives $20,000; A.
A. Wilcox, a close friend of Mr. Hobart, receives $10,000.David Hobart, a brother of the late President, receives $20,000, and the children of his two children are bequeathed $100,000 each.The executors of the will are the widow, Mrs. Jennie Hobart, A. A. Wilcox, E. T. Bell and Col. William Barbour.

Weavers on Strike.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—About 800 union weavers went on strike today, demanding a 10 per cent advance in wages. The strikers demand a working week of fifty-five hours and a general increase of about 25 per cent. Many of the manufacturers have refused to consider it. This city and Paterson, N. J., are the centers of the upholstery weaving industry of the country and there are about 1,200 weavers in Philadelphia. The National Century mills employing about 700 weavers, have signed the new scale.

Increase in Wages.

Fall River, Mass., Dec. 1.—All the textile manufacturers in this city responded today that they would grant a 10 per cent advance in wages beginning on Monday, Dec. 11. In all about 2,800 hands will be benefited by the raise.

President's Message Comes on Tuesday.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The cabinet discussed briefly today the President's message on which the finishing touches have been placed excepting that portion of the message relating to the Philippine question. The President may be able to announce the complete collapse of the insurrection in Luzon to Congress. The members of the cabinet are unanimously of the opinion that the rebellion is on its last legs, and that any day may see the end.

The Philippine Question is Solving.

itself, is the way one member put it today. The President has decided not to send the message to Congress until Tuesday, as the immediate adjournment of the Senate upon the announcement of the death of Vice President Hobart would preclude its being read on Monday.

Victoria's Premier Resigns.

Melbourne, Victoria, Dec. 1.—The Premier, Sir George Turner, has resigned. The governor, Lord Brassey, has summoned Mr. A. McLean to form a new ministry.BRITISH RELIEF OF KIMBERLEYRumors May be Premature, but Pressure is Lightened.

UNION MAY COME SUNDAY.

Sorties from Mafeking and Kimberley —Situation in Cape Colony and Natal.London, Dec. 1.—While the rumors of the relief of Kimberley current on the stock exchange today may be premature in their literal sense, there seems no doubt that the pressure on the garrisons has been much lightened by Gen. Methuen's successes, and the actual relief of the place is likely to be a fact very soon.A clue to the urgent reasons which dictated Gen. Methuen's hurried march may be found in Governor Milner's hint to the relief committee at Capetown to prepare for the reception of 10,000 refugees, and indicated that the garrison must have had reason to fear the reduction of Kimberley by starvation and disease.The most recent news from Kimberley comes by way of Pretoria and almost seems to show that Kimberley and Mafeking are acting in concert with Gen. Methuen, for at the time the battle was raging at Gras Pan both Col.
Kekewich and Col. Baden-Powell made sorties and assailed the beleaguers.
The result of the Mafeking sortie is not known, but according to a dispatch from Pretoria Col. Kekewich inflicted considerable loss on the Boers, two shells killing nine and wounding seventeen in a group.It is reported that Gen. Methuen resumed his northwest course Wednesday, in order to form a junction with the Kimberley forces Saturday or Sunday. It is suggested in some quarters that the Boers have been withdrawn from the north of Cape Colony and may be hurrying to attack Gen. Methuen's rear, but as reinforcements have been pushed rapidly forward from Orange River and De Aar it is claimed that they ought to circumsvent such designs.A special dispatch from Pretoria dated Sunday, Nov. 26th, says there was another sortie from Mafeking Saturday, Nov. 25th.On the morning of that day the chartered police attacked Eloff's fort with great determination. The fight was progressing when the dispatch was sent.Several ambulances trains left Mafeking Nov. 25th for the Free State, where heavy fighting was expected during the coming week, when the Boers, it is added, would resist the advance of the British in the direction of Kimberley.From Lord Wolseley's announcement that it had been decided to call out one more division it appears clear that the war office does not look for a speedy collapse of Boer resistance. The brief telegram coming from Natal and the central theater of the war convey little information about the situation.Nauwpoort reports that half the Coleridge Dutch who responded to the Boer summons for military service have not returned to their homes so that the civil troubles hampering Gen. Gatacre may be lessened and the military operations will commence. So far as known the Ladysmith relief force is still at Pietermaritzburg, though the bridge was perhaps sufficiently stable to permit of its passage, Nov. 29th, in which case the opposing forces may already have come in contact near Colenso, where apparently the Boers are strongly entrenched on the north side of the river.A special dispatch received here today from Pietermaritzburg, Nov. 28th, says that while attempting to blow up a 500 foot bridge over the river at Colenso, the Boers were driven back by British artillery and mounted infantry.

U. S. Prisoner Escapes.

Columbus, O., Dec. 1.—Captain Ike T.
Jobe, late of the Sixth United States volunteer infantry, escaped from his county jail where he was confined, and made his escape some time during last night, probably having an outside assistance. His escape was not discovered until 7 o'clock this morning, when the jailer went to open the cells. Every effort is being made to effect his capture.Jobe was a trusty about the jail, and had special privileges. He was arrested in Washington, D. C., on the charge of using war department penalty envelopes for private letters and was to have had a hearing before the U. S. court this morning. What arrested he ## Broke the Deadlock.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 1.—June W.
Gayle, of Owen county, was nominated for Congress by the Seventh district Democratic convention on the sixty-seventh ballot. John H. Allen broke

Wanted the Deadlock.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 1.—June W.
Democratic convention on the sixty-
seventh ballot.

Business Part of Town Burned.

Cape Charles, Va., Dec. 1.—The entire business portion of Onancock, Virginia, was destroyed by fire today. The loss is estimated at $100,000 with $25,000 insurance.

Anxiety Over a Steamer.

Liverpool, Dec. 1.—Considerable anxiety is felt here in regard to the safety of the British steamer Mermaid, which left Quebec October 27 for Belfast.

Consul Macrum Wants Relief.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Mr. Macrum, the United States consul at Pretoria, is renewing his appeals to the state department to be allowed to leave his post. The department realizing the pressing necessity of having some energetic and willing representative of the United States in Pretoria to look after the important American interests in the Transvaal as well as to carry out our obligation to care for the welfare of the British citizens therein, is striving to find some consular officer near Pretoria who will undertake to relieve Mr. Macrum. Probably Mr. Hollis, United States consul at Lourenco Marques, will be asked to undertake this important charge.

GEN. LORD METHUEN.

GEN. W. F. GATACRE.

MAJ. GEN.
FRENCH.

THREE BRITISH GENERALS WHO ARE THREATENING THE FREE STATE BORDER.

Lieutenant General Lord Methuen, who recently fought the Boers at Belmont; Major General French, who commanded the British at the battle of Elandsfontein, and General Gatacre, one of Field Marshal Buller's division commanders, are all hard at work endeavoring to drive the Boers from Cape Colony.

SENATOR HANNA WILL QUIT

Wants to Retire from the Chairmanship of the National Republican Committee.Health Is the Cause—Party Leaders Want Him to Resign—His Success in Raising Funds.Cleveland, O., Dec. 1.—Concerning the reports which have been in circulation for several weeks past to the effect that Senator Hanna would not succeed himself as chairman of the national Republican committee, it can be stated on the authority of Mr. Hanna's most intimate friends that he has no desire to manage another campaign, and that unless very strong pressure is brought to bear upon him he will in all probability decline to do so. Notwithstanding the published statements, that many leading Republicans throughout the country are opposed to Mr. Hanna's reappointment as chairman of the national committee, it is known he is almost daily receiving from influential party leaders, representing practically all sections of the country, letters to the effect that he has their fullest consideration and support, and urging that he is the strongest available man for the place.Mr. Hanna's closest friends and the members of his own family believe, however, that the condition of his health is such that he should not under any circumstances assume the responsibility of managing another presidential campaign. It has been suggested that should Mr. Hanna decide not to accept a reappointment as chairman, that he be made a member of the executive committee, having personal charge of the campaign finance.This would, it is pointed out, relieve Mr. Hanna of the arduous duties devolving upon the chairman and at the same time give the national committee the benefit of his experience and marked success in raising funds.

Signing Treaty on Samoa.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The British and German ambassadors had several conferences with Secretary Hay today relative to the treaty for the partition of Samoa, and it is understood the minor questions of phraseology which remained open were so reconciled that the way is clear for signing the document, probably tomorrow.

British Ambassador Offended.

London, Dec. 1.—The Paris correspondent of the Evening News telegraphs to his paper today that there is reason to believe that Sir Edward J.
Monson, the British ambassador to France, will shortly apply for a prolonged leave of absence as a protest against the attacks made by the French press on Queen Victoria and the Prince of Wales.

WILL RESIDE IN SALT LAKE

Montana Couple Wed and Will Make Their Home Here.James Macfarlane, of Deer Lodge, Nevada, and Miss Ida E. Bishop of Butte Montana, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Congregational church last evening, the Rev. C. T.
Brown officiating. There were present at the nuptials B. M. Ellerbeck and Miss Amy Taylor of Salt Lake, and Mrs.
Flint, a friend of the bride from Butte.
After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Macfarlane were visited at the Knutsford by A. W. McCune and Mr. Ellerbeck, where mutual felicitations were exchanged.Mr. Macfarlane is a well known mining man, who was formerly located in Montana. A short time ago he came to Utah to assume the directorship of the developments on the mining properties of McCune and Lund in Stateline district. The bride is a woman of rare culture and accomplishments.The couple will make their home in Salt Lake, where they will be welcomed into society.FRIGHTFUL WORK

HAIL AND WIND TERRIFIC.

Bodies of Three Men Found—Thousands of Animals Drowned—Destruction by Hail and Wind.Rockport, Tex., Dec. 1.—Reports from points on the Gulf in this section show that the damage to property and loss of life by the recent severe storm were much greater than at first reported.
A number of small fishing craft are missing, together with their crews. The bodies of James Sanders and two other men not yet identified have been found in the mouth of St. Charles Bay.Several thousand head of sheep and hundreds of cattle were driven into the Gulf by the storm and drowned.
One ranchman, Geo. A. Brundett, lost over 3,000 head of sheep in this manner.
In Refugio and Aransas counties there was a terrific fall of hail. Chunks of ice, some of them being five inches in diameter, fell.More than 700 head of cattle were killed by falling hail in the vicinity of Lamar.The window blinds, sash and lights of every house in Lamar were riddled.
Holes were knocked through the roofs of many and weather boards were splintered. The wind uprooted large trees and blew several houses from their foundations. Large flocks of geese and ducks were killed.In fact every bird and small animal within the storm's path was killed.
One hundred and sixty dead pelicans were seen on the bay shore. The storm seems to have gathered its fury about fifteen miles south of Refugio, increasing on its course toward the Gulf, its path being six miles wide.

WANTED THE OTHER SIDE.

Amusing Incident on a Rapid Transit Street Car."Please put me off the other side of Third East," said a middle aged woman to a Rapid Transit conductor, as she boarded an east Fourth South street car, near the city and county building last night. The conductor said "All right ma'am." The patron took her seat, the bell went ding-a-ling, and the car sped on."First East," called out the conductor. "Second East," he cried. "Third East," he yelled out. The bell rang, and the car stopped. There were fully a dozen persons in the car, but not a soul moved."Third East," the conductor again called out, directing his gaze towards the lady who had requested to be put off at that street."Is this the other side?" sharply enquired the woman."No, we're on this side," came the reply, and everybody smiled.The lady passenger arose from her seat, came out on the platform, and seeing the car had stopped on the east side of the street, gracefully stepped off.
Ding-a-ling went the bell, and again the car sped on.The passengers enjoyed a hearty laugh at the joke, and as each one got off the car, he or she would turn to the conductor and enquire, "Is this the other side?"

DRIVE BACK INSURGENTS.

American Campaign Continues to be Vigorously Pushed.Gen. Otis Reports Conditions in Philippines, Showing the Success of Americans Everywhere.Washington, Dec. 1.—Gen. Otis's advices to the war department today show that the advance into the interior is being vigorously pushed, and the American troops continue to drive back and disperse the scattered bands encountered. He states that Captain Warwick, Eighteenth Infantry, was killed in an engagement at Passi, Iloilo province, on the 27th ult. Gen. Otis's dispatch is as follows:"Manila, Dec. 1.—Hughes reports from Central Panay that Iloilo province, one-third of the island, is cleared of insurgents. By forced marches with two battalions from Labuana, by way of Ca-lino, he engaged the enemy at Passi on 25th ultimo, and drove him with loss to the mountains. In detached bodies, capturing ten field pieces, two breachloaders, also nine rifles and several thousand rounds small ammunition. Hughes' casualties: Capt. Warwick, Eighteenth infantry, and Private Daniel W. Humphreys, company K, Eighteenth infantry, killed. He reports his troops in excellent health. Is now converting wheel into pack transportation for purpose of entering the mountains. It is expected he will pass on to Capiz, northern coast of the island."Dispatches from Lawan indicate that Bayambang was captured on the 28th ult. The trails over the mountains are impracticable for wheel transportation of any kind. Troops had to subsist on rice, and scant supply at times."MacArthur's troops have had several minor engagements, capturing men and rifles. Bell's captures in mountains include 14 modern guns, all in good condition; over 50 pieces of artillery have been captured by the troops in the last three weeks."Oregon brought in 196 Spanish prisoners from Vigan yesterday; 94 received by rail previous evening."Young with three troops cavalry and March's battalion of Thirty-third infantry should have reached Vigan yesterday."Conditions at Zamboanga satisfactory. Additional ordnance surrendered consisted of four field pieces, seventeen rifles, a quantity of ammunition. Natives in adjoining towns are visiting the troops, and native military bands are reorganizing the troops."The Thirty-first infantry leaves Manila this evening to garrison several stations on the Mindanao coast. No difficulties anticipated."

WHOLESALE GROCERY HOUSE

Wyoming Company Going to Open Up in Salt Lake.The Cosgriff-Enright company is the name of a Wyoming firm which intends opening up a large wholesale grocery house in this city. The articles of incorporation were filed this week in Cheyenne, and the parties to the agreement are Thomas Cosgriff, James Cosgriff, John Cosgriff, John E. Osborne, A.
F. Couesens, P. J. Enright and D. P.
Simpson. The capitalization has been fixed at $200,000. The Henderson building on the corner of Second South and Third West has been leased by the company.

IS A MORPHINE FIEND.

When Taken to the Police Station It Transpired that He Had Stabbed a Man This Morning.About 11:30 this morning a telephone message was received at police headquarters from the Dooly building, conveying the startling information that a crazy man was in the letter carriers' room on the fourth floor raising a riot of generous proportions.Bicycle Officer Davis made some remark about the patrol wagon, seized his hat and gloves simultaneously and rushed for the rear door, closely followed by Officer Sperry. It was but the work of an instant to leap into the wagon and dash to the street. The trip to the postoffice was made in a 2:10 gait.A large crowd had assembled when the officers arrived and motioned excitedly toward the elevator.When Officers Sperry and Simpson reached the fourth floor, several maniacal yells greeted them. The cause of the rumpus was a half-idiotic diminutive German named Charles Schewed. He had gone into the aforesaid room presumably to "see what he could see," and some thoughtful person locked him in. Finding himself in a telltale situation, Schewed proceeded to search all the windows, and glass ware there were in the room, and then turned his attention to the furniture uttering frightful yells the while.
When the officers broke into the room he was frescoing the walls with a large supply of ink that happened to be in the room. At the police station he was looked on the charge of destroying property.Schewed is evidently unbalanced mentally. At an early hour this morning he went to the mission house on Commercial street to get a bath. While in the bath room a couple of men knocked at the door and asked to be admitted, that they, too, might enjoy the blessed privilege of a bath. Schewed declined to open the door and the men promptly kicked it in. Schewed became so enraged at one of the men, he slashed him across the hand with a clasp knife inflicting an ugly wound.
Schewed is one of the worst of morphine fiends in Salt Lake, and the fact that he was full of the drug may account for his strange actions today.

IN AN UGLY MOOD.

A Furniture Destroying and Dish Breaking Carpenter.U. W. Irwin, a carpenter who resides on the corner of Eighth West and Eighth South streets, manifested his thankfulness yesterday in a very violent manner. He took the table, which was laden with Thanksgiving vands, and turned it upside down, breaking nearly all the dishes; one by one he seized upon every portable article of furniture in the house and reduced them to kindling wood, and after acquit-ting himself thus manfully, he then cheerfully threatened to throw his child into the river and choke the life out of his wife.At about 7 o'clock a telephone message from the Rapid Transit power house to police headquarters, conveyed the startling intelligence that a man down that way had resolved himself into a Filipino army and was making war on his household. Patrolman Davis rushed to the scene, in a patrol wagon, but ere he arrived, Irwin had left the house and could not be spotted.Mrs. Irwin told the officer that she had gone to great pains in preparing as good a dinner as was in her power, and when her husband came and sat down to the table he seemed to be in a merry mood, but before he had proceeded long in his demolition of the turkey, his wrath began to rise, or rather, he began to rise in his wrath, and took to initiative in the scene of many dignity by threatening to throw his babe into the river, and after destroying everything, even the sewing machine and a bicycle, he snatched upon his wife and literally tore her clothes from her body.

LECTURE BY MRS. STETSON.

Author of "Woman and Economics" to Speak Here Tomorrow.Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Stetson, one of the most eminent literary women in America, will deliver a lecture tomorrow night in the Ladies Literary club house, beginning at 8 o'clock.There is probably no woman in America today who commands more attention from the best minds of Europe and America than Mrs. Stetson. Her book, "Woman and Economics" is recognized as one of the brightest, most original and readable on women ever written. It is selling all over the United States and England, and is being translated into French, German, Dutch and Swedish.In addition to this work, Mrs. Stetson has written a volume of verse, "In This Our World," which has been very much sought after, and her other work, "The Yellow Wall Paper," is regarded as an American classic. While Mrs. Stetson is brilliant as a writer, she is yet stronger as a public speaker. She comes from that kind of stock, being the great granddaughter of Lyman Beecher, and therefore a grand niece to Henry Ward Beecher and Harriet Beecher Stowe.Mrs. Stetson speaks as she thinks, clearly, distinctly and in a perfectly straightforward and simple manner, but with something in her utterance so magnetic that she wins attention from all her hearers.

JONES TO BE TRIED AGAIN.

On motion of County Attorney Pat-man Judge Norrell today ordered the trial of Art Jones, charged with breaking into the store of Joseph S. Williams, corner Third and K streets, set down for Thursday, December 14th. Jones was tried on the 23rd ult., the jury disagreeing.THE AFFIDAVIT MAKER DEPARTSChas. Mostyn Owen, the Energetic Complainant, Leaves for East.

WILL HELP THE CRUSADERS

At Least that is What He Fondly Hopes to Do—Will Be Absent Several Weeks.Charles Mostyn Owen, who has sought and achieved notoriety here in the role of affidavit maker for the anti-"Mormon" ring, quietly left the State a few days ago, and is probably at Washington by this time, or will be very soon.Charles Mostyn's efforts here of late have been about as notable as the fate of Charismatic hero, minus the latter's gallantry, and now he is going to Washington to tell the Congressmen all about it. Those statesmen are not all posted as to the mares' nest that Charles Mostyn has discovered here, and it is to put them in possession of the information that the crusader goes east.He left on Sunday evening last, accompanied by Mrs. Owen. At his home on Third East street, it was learned that he would be absent for several weeks.It is to be expected that when Mr.
Owen reaches Washington, he will, in his report of his doings here, not fail
