

HOW TO DISCOVER GRADES OF MILITARY RANK BY THE SHOULDER STRAPS.—The shoulder straps of a Major-General bear two silver embroidered stars, one on each end of the strap. A Brigadier-General has one silver star only. A Colonel has a silver embroidered eagle; a Lieutenant-Colonel has two silver embroidered leaves, one at each end of the strap; a Major, two gold embroidered leaves similarly placed; a Captain has two gold bars at each end of the strap; a First Lieutenant, one gold bar at each end; and a Second Lieutenant no bars at all.

The cloth of the strap, by its color, distinguishes the arm of the service. For General and Staff officers, it is dark blue; for artillery, scarlet; for infantry, sky-blue; for riflemen, green; and for cavalry, orange color.

Non-commissioned officers are indicated by "chevrons" or stripes on the coat sleeve in the form of a letter V. Corporals wear two stripes, Sergeants three, Orderly Sergeants have a lozenge or diamond shaped figure, with the angle of the chevrons; Sergeant Majors have the three stripes of a Sergeant coupled into a triangle, base uppermost.
