(Special Correspondence.) London, Nov. 25.-Miss Jennie Crocker and her great friend the Hon. Mrs. John Ward are enjoying themselves thoroughly after their long separation. The very first thing Mrs. Crocker did when she arrived at Mrs. Ward's was to make a rush up to the nursery to see Master Ward who took to her at once. An engaging smile spread over his chubby face, which grew still wider when he caught sight of the exquisite jeweled rattle which his "Auntle Jennie" had brought him. PRAYER AND POLITICS.

PRAYER AND POLITICS. David H. Lane, the Republican leader of Philadelphia, was telling stories at a Republican banquet. "And it's always a mistake," said Mr. Lane, "to mix politics and religion-politics and prayer. "There was a preacher out Cinnamin-son way who mixed politics and prayer to his cost. He prayed on the eve of a general election: "Grant, O Lord, that the great Re-form party may all hang together." "Amen!" cried a scoffer. "Men!" cried a scoffer. "Not, O Lord, resumed the preacher, in the sense in which that profane scoffer would have it understood; but let the party hang together in accord and concord." "Tit's all one to me,' the scoffer again interrupted, 'what cord it is, so long as it's a good strong one.'"
