RAYMOND C. HILL CRUSHED TO DEATH

Ogden, Sept. 25.—Raymond C. Hill, a car inspector in the employ of the Southern Pacific company of this city, met with an accident yesterday, which cost him his life. The man was taken to the hospital and immediate medical attention was given him, but after lingering a few hours died of his injuries. According to the information gained in the local railroad offices, Hill went in between two freight cars to attach the air hose when a refrigerator car was "kicked" onto the side track and struck the car which Hill was standing between. The man was knocked to the ground and his left leg was crushed above the knee.

The deceased was 25 years of age. He was born in Salt Lake City, but lived in Ogden for many years, where he married Miss Hattie Horspool. Besides his widow, two children are left surviving. With his mother, who lives in this city at his home, corner of Twenty-sixth street and Wall avenue.

MONTELEO FIRE LOSSES.
Later advices from the fire at Monteleo, Nev., which destroyed the railroad eating house and hotel, state that all the guests as well as employees of the place lost everything that they owned, so fast and furious did the fire burn after it started.

Manager Al Harrison, Cashier Reid, Harry Enoch, G. S. Rembold, C. S. Spurlin, John R. Smith, and Mrs. Donohue and a number of the employees of the hotel arrived in Ogden last evening to purchase a new supply of wearing apparel, all of their raiment being destroyed in the fire. As there is only one restaurant in the town and that being run by a Chinese, the railroad outfit cars which were ordered to the town by Spurlin, Lewis of the dining car and hotel department of the Harriman system will be kept there to help feed the 300 railroad people until the hotel is rebuilt.

DEATH OF ALBERT ADAMS.
Albert Adams, foreman of the Wasatch Canning company, died yesterday morning at the family residence on Park avenue, as the result of an operation to remove a dead bone in his skull. The trouble originated when he was a small boy, having at the time an affliction in the ear which later affected the bone of the head.

The deceased was born in England about 22 years ago but has resided in Ogden for the past 20 years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams, who together with four brothers and six sisters survive him. The funeral will be announced later.

KENNEDY ESTATE.
A petition was filed in the district court yesterday afternoon by A. G. Horn asking for the appointment of Don Maguire as administrator of the estate of Richard Kennedy, deceased. The petitioner states that the deceased died in Racine, Wis., where the widow and seven heirs reside and who have asked the petitioner to act in the matter of the estate in Ogden, which is valued at $10,000.

WEDDING BELLS.
A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to H. West and Laura B. McClosky, both of Ogden.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY.
The public schools of Ogden will have a holiday next Wednesday to enable the children to attend the Big Four county fair on its opening day, being also children's day.

DISTRICT COURT.
The case of E. S. Rolapp, trustee, vs. the Ogden & Northwestern railroad, involving a certain right-of-way, is on trial before Judge Howell in the district court today.

TORE HIS SKIN OFF IN SHREDS

Itching was Intense—Humor Spread from Hands to Body—Work Interrupted and Sleep Often Impossible—Disease Resisted Treatment

BUT CUTICURA CURED HIM IN THREE WEEKS

"My trouble commenced about two years ago and consisted, at first, of an eruption of small pustules on my hands. The itching spread later to other parts of my body, and the itching at times was intense, so much so that I literally tore the skin off in shreds in seeking relief. The awful itching interfered with my work considerably, and also kept me awake at nights. I tried several doctors and used a number of different ointments and lotions but received practically no benefit. Finally I settled down to the use of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, with the result that in a few days all itching had ceased and in about three weeks' time all traces of my eruption had disappeared. I have had no trouble of this kind since. H. A. Kriksdorf, 857 W. 51st Place, Chicago, Ill., November 18 and 28, 1907."

SKIN HEALTH Effected by Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema, the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis, the loss of hair and crusting of scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in acne and ringworm, the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in itchy, or salt rheum—all demand a remedy of extraordinary virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent (liquid or pills) are such stands proven by unquestioned testimonials.

Cuticura Soap (25c) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (10c) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 50c per box of 60) to Purify the Blood, hold throughout the world. "Putter Drug & Chem. Corp., 180 Madison Ave., New York City."

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.
Smelter Magazines—Daniel Guggenheim, the smelter king, accompanied by S. W. Eccles, arrived from the west yesterday in a private car and after a short stay in Ogden continued on east.

Suit on Business Deal.—Joseph Michener has filed suit in the district court against H. H. Reese to recover $555 alleged to be due as the balance on a deal made by the two in horses.

Stole a Bike.—Lawrence Manning, who was arrested by Officer Critchlow on Wednesday after a chase of 14 miles, for stealing a bicycle, was sentenced to 60 days upon the rock pile by Judge Murphy yesterday.

Held For Larceny.—Sam Goden-telopsis, a Greek, was arrested yesterday by Officer Shimukder and is being held upon the charge of grand larceny. It is charged that the Greek stole a pay check from a fellow countryman in the railroad yards yesterday. An investigation of the case is being made.

EUREKA.
LITTLE CHIEF LOSSES.
New Club House For Elks—Alcohol Explosion.

Special Correspondence.
Eureka, Sept. 25.—An insurance adjuster was here Monday to report upon the fire which destroyed the Little Chief shorthouse and machinery last week. The loss will reach $10,000, with but $5,000 insurance. But 7,000 shares of Little Chief are held within this state, and the balance is held by J. R. Van Eyra and his associates in Michigan. It is understood all of the shareholders, including those in the east, are anxious to put the mine in condition for development work again, so no time will be lost in installing new machinery of more modern design. The company shorthouse is understood, erect a fireproof shorthouse.

A wood alcohol explosion came near proving disastrous to the residence of A. J. McPhee Monday evening. Mrs. McPhee was quite severely burned in extinguishing the flames, and it was necessary to call in a physician to attend her. The alarm of fire was turned in and the volunteer fire department made a quick response, but fortunately the blaze was put out by the members of the family, before the arrival of the fire ladders.

ELKS LODGE.
The local lodge of Elks is preparing to erect a three-story building in this city, on the east of the postoffice. Bids for the structure will be opened next Friday evening and the contracts will be let at an early date.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.
Daniel Atherly, an old-time resident of the district, died Sunday at the age of 80 years at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. A. Carter, at the Utah mine. The deceased was well known in the camps about, and was traveling for a number of years, together with many grandchildren and friends to mourn his departure. He was born in England in 1828. He came to Utah in 1853. The remains were shipped to Goshen for burial Tuesday morning.

SUDDEN DEATH.
Eureka, Sept. 25.—Mrs. Thomas S. Roylance, of Provo, formerly Miss Goldie Gillespie of Eureka, died suddenly here last night at 6 o'clock, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fred Allgood, whom she had been visiting. Her husband, who is traveling for a wholesale house in the southern part of the state, was notified at Richfield of his wife's death. He will be here tonight, when arrangements will be made for the funeral, which will probably be held at Provo.

Mrs. Roylance was 22 years of age and married at her home in Provo. She was born at Goshen, but spent most of her life at Eureka until a few years ago when she went to Provo to attend school. She was highly esteemed by a wide circle of acquaintances, who will regret to hear of her sudden and unexpected demise.

PARK CITY.
DEATH'S HARVEST.

Thomas Manix and J. A. Goodell, Close Life's Labors.
Special Correspondence.
Park City, Sept. 25.—Funeral was held yesterday in the Catholic church over the remains of Thomas Manix, who died here last night. He was a horse and fracturing his skull. Deceased was one of Utah's volunteers, enlisted in Troop A, Eleventh cavalry, Aug. 2, 1899, and honorably discharged June 30, 1901, at which time he returned to this city, and had been working in the local G. A. R. men led the long procession of carriages to his last resting place. The funeral was held today in the L. D. S. church over the remains of J. A. Goodell, who was one of the passengers in the Park City mining camp, coming here 25 years ago. With the passing away of Mr. Goodell the camp loses a well respected citizen. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters, and his mother, who is 88 years old, and living in California. Deceased was 64 years old at his death.

HASKELL AND BRYAN
Editor Russell of Ardmore, Okla., Democrat Says Candidate Refused to Read Charges.

Kansas City, Sept. 24.—L. T. Russell, editor of the Ardmore (Oklahoma) Morning Democrat, who is in Kansas City, gave the Associated Press tonight an open letter to William J. Bryan in which he calls attention to the fact that the charges made by William R. Hearst against Gov. Haskell relating to the governor's connection with the Standard Oil company had previously been given to Mr. Bryan, who refused to read them. Mr. Russell also gives the charges in detail. It is doubtless humiliating to him that the dominating power now in full control of his party has effectively thwarted all of his sporadic and intermittent efforts.

"The Republican party in this campaign will be judged not by what Mr. Roosevelt has said, or Mr. Taft says now, but by the record made by it in defying the will of the people and shoving to death all of the reforms proposed for their relief."

"It is true that Mr. Roosevelt has declared for an income tax, but his party in convention assembled repudiated the proposition. He likewise recommended a partial remedy for swollen fortunes—an inheritance tax—but that proposition was treated by his national convention with contempt. He thundered at Congress for a modification of the present injunction law, but his party refused to take a step in that direction. The Republican platform itself, in its promises of reform is but a confession of the inability of that party to bring about reform."

MAIL POUCH STOLEN.
Reno, Nev., Sept. 24.—It is reported that a pouch of registered mail was stolen at Hazen, Nev., last Tuesday night from train No. 2, by an unknown man, who disappeared with it in the darkness, making good his escape. It is thought the sack contained considerable money.
