

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Masons in Session—The Utah Conference of Masons is in session in Masonic hall, where the various degrees are being worked.

Col. Holmes in Europe—Word from Col. Holmes states that on the 12th inst., he and his party left London for the continent. All were well.

John McVicker III—John McVicker, the well known attorney, is seriously ill at his home, 136 Brigham street. Owing to his advanced age, his friends are apprehensive.

To Hold Special Meeting—The Salt Lake Real Estate Association will hold a special meeting Saturday evening, to discuss grand jury and food trust matters.

Poss Five Million Mark—The Zion's Savings Bank & Trust company's deposits passed the $5,000,000 mark yesterday, the day closing with $5,025,000 as the aggregate of deposits.

Drug Store Closes—Smith's drug store has absorbed the Central Drug store at State and First South streets, and the stock of the latter is being removed to the premises of the Smith company.

Will Speak at Grand Junction—Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, who was cheated out of his lecture here by delayed trains, Wednesday night, has gone to Grand Junction, where he speaks tonight.

Depot Painted—The Short Line depot has been attractively repainted and remodeled so that it is now in better shape and better in appearance than it was when standing on its former site.

Company Changes Name—The Kedington-Bigler Stationery company has filed an amendment to its articles of incorporation with the secretary of state in which the company changes its name to the Wasatch Printing company.

Purchase Pen Material—Messrs. John Held and A. S. Zimmerman returned last night from New York, where they purchased raw material and machinery with which to inaugurate their fountain pen manufacturing industry. They expect to start up the first of the year.

Small Blaze at Depot—An over-heated stove pipe in the kitchen lunch room at the Rio Grande depot yesterday caused considerable excitement among passengers. The blaze got a slight start, but the fire fighters there No. 2 soon extinguished it, the damage amounting to about $10.

Dr. Brown Gores East—Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown left yesterday for the east after a pleasant stay in this city with friends. Dr. Brown's health has been entirely restored during his pastorate at San Diego, Cal., and he will continue his ministry in Congregational church near Chicago, where his parents reside.

Heavy Steel Rails—There are 112½ tons of manganese steel, weighing 110 pounds to the yard, in each of the and union layouts that have been prepared at the intersection of Main and First and Second South streets. This kind of steel is unusually hard, and will resist wear and tear much longer than the ordinary steel.

Newton Beers Recruit—Odd Fellows hall was well filled last evening, with members of the order and their friends on the occasion of the recital of "David and Jonathan" by Newton Beers Chorus. The story is one of brotherly love, and is particularly interesting to Odd Fellows, as it is interwoven with the fundamental principles of the order.

Succumb to Meutlings—Edward F. Dibble, an employee of the Western Pacific, died at 4:30 a.m. yesterday. His funeral will be held from the Masonic temple Sunday at 4 p.m. under the direction of the Mt. Moriah Lodge of which he was a member. Dibble was well known in local railroad circles. He was unmarried.

Returns from South—John Q. Critchlow has returned from a 10 days' trip through the south country, which included a 225 miles ride. He reports considerable lumber being shipped into the Dixie oil fields where saw mills are being set up, for the making of derricks. Everybody in that section has every faith in the prospect for oil, and the general business situation is very gratifying.

Paintings by Hafner—An exhibit of paintings made by John Hafner this summer at Silver Lake is being made at the home of Dr. and W. Gates in the Templeton building. The original painting of the exhibit is a large sized picture of the quaking asp, which grow along the Solitude trail and at other places in the Cottonwoods. It is one which Mr. Hafner hopes to show in Boston next spring.

Their Idea of Humor—A new wrinkle in hymenial festivities was inaugurated Wednesday evening, at the marriage of Rhoda Greenhalgh to Alfred L. Aubrey at the residence of the bride's parents, 570 East Sixth South street. Guests secured a pair of handcuffs and chained the "happy couple" together, and for over two hours they were the most unhappy couple in the house. They did not relish it nearly as much as their friends did.

Death of George E. Perry—George E. Perry, of 368 East Fifth South street, died Wednesday night, aged 50, of general debility. He came to this country from England in his youth and located in this city, where he had been in the fur business since. As his age advanced his business declined until it was about gone at the time of his death. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock, with interment in the city cemetery.

Must Have Been a Cat—There was a burglar alarm at the residence of James F. Dunn, 1163 Third Avenue last night, and the police were called in a great hurry. When the police arrived, however, they did not find Mr. Burglar. Two young women were alone in the house and heard a noise that caused them to think someone was trying to break into the house. They at once telephoned to the police and officers hurried to the scene, but found no clue to the burglar.

Some Service—Prof. Charles Kent and some of his pupils will give a song service Sunday evening at 6:30. Sept. 25, at the Twenty-eighth ward Chapel, Third North Sixth and Seventh West. Anthem, with choir, "Sleep Little Boy of Mine." Solo, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, "Abide with Me." Ashton, Gilbert Savage, "That Sweet Memory of Old." West, May Martin, "Lord is My Shepherd." Koschak, Prof. Kent's male chorus; "Gently Rest," Kuchen, John Alton; "The Good Shepherd." O. Berrie, Edna Morris.

FAIR AND CONFERENCE TRAFFIC

The first State fair held in two years, and the semi-annual conference, occurring together the first week in October, assure the influx of an immense throng of people from all parts of the west. The railroads give special rates to cover both events, reaching into all the adjoining states and territories.

Advance inquiries to the railroads and the fair people indicate record-breaking attendance. Thousands of people are coming prepared to do their fall and winter shopping, and the ENTERPRISING MERCHANTS of our city should at once lay before their country patrons what they have to offer in the way of bargains.

To reach the people IN THEIR HOMES, there is only one medium, and that is the SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS issued every Monday and Thursday. Special rates are accorded regular advertisers in the daily.

During Fair and Conference week, all country subscribers of the "News" are invited to call and receive a FREE COPY of the daily, during their stay in the city, rendering that paper an invaluable advertising medium while the Fair and Conference last.

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Macdougal, Ivor Brind; duet, "Christmas Lullaby," Myth Brown and John Alton; "Nearer to Thee," Parks, Prof. Kent's male chorus. The public is cordially invited.

Wolcott Family Reunion—The Warren (Ohio) Daily Tribune of Sept. 1, devote the greater part of its space in giving account of a Wolcott family reunion held at that place on the date mentioned. There were present at the gathering 250 representatives, all descendants of Henry Wolcott, who came from England to America early in the sixteenth century. Members of few families in the United States have played more prominent parts in the country's history than have the Wolcotts. Edward P. Wolcott of Cleveland is president of the association. The principal address of the session was delivered by Circuit Judge Alfred Wolcott, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. John P. Meakin of this city is a member of the Wolcott family.

Horrid Men Excluded from Y. W. C. A. Social Last Night.

Inquiries are pouring in upon the Brigham Young University from all sides as to whether it is true that Provo cannot accommodate more students with board and lodgings, thus showing how rapidly this absurdity has been created.

It is true enough that we were taken by surprise. Nine hundred students came where we had expected only the usual opening of five or six hundred. But our unpreparedness lasted only one day. The people of Provo rose at once to the occasion in the spirit of opening their homes to the students.

The Committee of the Faculty, which has this matter in hand, announces that it has on its lists board and lodgings for five hundred more students; also that places could be found for one thousand more if the need came.

Another false report is to the effect that board and lodgings in Provo are $5.00 per month. There has of course been an advance in this direction, as was only to be expected, considering the advance in fuel and food stuffs. The rates to students range, however, from $3.00 per week in the remote parts of the city, to $3.50 and $4.00 nearer the school and in better quarters. Nearly one-half of our students board and lodge themselves, cutting down expenses very materially. The committee announces that there are still many houses to rent for this purpose.

Department of Agriculture to be Asked to Aid in Water Question.

The United States department of agriculture is to be asked to assist in conserving the annual snows in aid of Salt Lake's water supply. This much was decided upon at a meeting of the council committee last night, with the plan of Chas. E. Kellogg, who was received with favor by the committee. The plan of Mr. Kellogg is to have the government plant trees on the watershed in Parley's canyon, where now only the bare hills present themselves. The planting of these trees will provide a place for the lodgment of the snows, and when they have attained some age, they will also check the melting of the snows, thus aiding in the storage of water by preventing its too rapid melting and wasteful snow slides.

ATTACK OF DIARRHOEA CURED BY ONE DOSE OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

It was a week ago that a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I recently secured and took, completely relieved me of my trouble.

PLUCKY ALIEN GIRL.

How Little Daughter of Syrian Cares For the Family.

A pretty little Assyrian girl appeared in the juvenile court yesterday afternoon to tell the court why her brothers had been violating the license ordinance. In telling of this, the girl revealed a life-story of unusual interest. The girl said that she had left Jerusalem a year ago entirely alone. She was passed through the immigration office by a kindly disposed passenger who represented her to be his servant. After arriving in the bustling streets of New York, absolutely alone and with no one to direct her where to go, unable to speak English and having only enough money to get her supper with, she wandered about the streets aimlessly, finally seeing an Assyrian who helped her get a job in a shirt factory. She worked there long enough to save a little money. Then she came to the west, soon after coming to this city she learned that her father had died, leaving two orphans, orphans in their native land with no one to care for them. She sent her savings to them and they came to her.

To our stockholders. The first car is in and others coming every day. Buy our stock and never worry about the winter. It was while they were doing this that the girls revealed a life-story of unusual interest.

The girl told Judge Gowen her story and also said that she did not know that a license was required for the privilege. She was instructed in the law on this point and permitted to go without punishment. Meanwhile the juvenile court officers will keep an eye on the little family, of three and two, until the time comes for them and that their course in this strange land is made easier for them. The girl has taken washing from families to aid her in making a living since she came to this city.

To help her support herself and them, Christina Howe, for that is her name, bought little notions for them and started them about the city peddling their wares. It was while they were doing this that the girls revealed a life-story of unusual interest.
