There is a large amount of sickness at Brigham City. The epidemic in some of the cases are very peculiar and entirely unprecedented in the locality.

Gen. Dwyer's we have Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, the Deseret, a fashion journal, published by the Butterick Publishing Company, at 15 cents, and Harper's Magazine, All for February.

We have received from R. E. and M. E. Egan, the first number of Our Deseret Home, a twenty page monthly periodical, whose aim is to be the encouragement of home industries and the development of "physical, mental and moral culture."

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Seriously Ill.—We regret to learn that Mrs. Elizabeth Cannon, wife of Hon. George Q. Cannon, is severely ill, exhibiting symptoms of pneumonia.

"Divorcement."—This celebrated comedy, mentioned by us yesterday, will be performed to-night, at the Theatre, by the Lincolns and Company.

From Idaho.—Judge Morgan, Chief Justice of Idaho, and family are in the city. They are in comfortable quarters at the Spencer House.

Clearing the Way.—The numerous private structures in the vicinity of the Ogden depot are rapidly being torn down, to give place to the proposed new buildings, the erection of which is to begin early in the spring, by the combined railroad companies.

Once More Among Us.—To-day we received a call from Mr. J. S. Ramsey, who arrived last evening. He represents the firm of Bates, Reed & Cooley, importers and jobbers of silk and fancy dry goods, of Broadway, N. Y. He brings with him a superb line of samples, consisting of a very complete line of dry goods, fancy goods and notions; also a fine line of carpets. He will remain for a few days, and is stopping at the Continental.

United.—Yesterday Mr. J. D. Spencer, son of the late Elder Dan'l Spencer, and Miss Charissa Young, daughter of the late President Brigham Young, were united in marriage, President Joseph F. Smith performing the ceremony. A wedding reception was held last night at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lucy D. Young. The news unites with the numerous friends of the happy couple in sincere congratulations and best wishes for their undimmed future happiness.

Lye Poisoning.—A. C. forwards the following particulars of the Brigham City accidental lye poisoning incident that occurred on Monday:

"Yesterday, about 4 o'clock p.m., Elsie, aged 4 years, a little daughter of Bishop A. Nichols and Charlotte Nichols, came near losing her life by swallowing about a teaspoonful of lye out of a can, in which it was standing ready for use. Although convulsed and a high fever ensued, by the use of proper remedies, the condition of the little sufferer was much improved 24 hours after the occurrence, and it is hoped that nothing serious may result from the accident."

An Old Timer.—The "old time" party at the Social Hall last night was one of those entertainments which never fail to leave pleasant impressions on the minds of those who participate in them. The chief aim of everybody was to make everybody else feel at home and happy, the consequence being that the spirit of unadulterated friendship flowed freely. As a social occasion, the party was an unequalled success. These are the kind of gatherings that make people feel as if they belonged to a common brotherhood, to which still conventionalities and old distrust are foreign elements.

Patriarchal.—Edwin Smith of Richmond, Cache Co., under date of January 17, sends us an account of a family gathering that assembled to honor the 55th anniversary of the birthday of Brother A. C. Bower, mayor of that place, and a former typist of the News. The company consisted of his sons, daughters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grand-children and great grand-children and four joyous guests, altogether numbering seventy persons. Brother Bower has been a member of the Church 40 years, having gathered with the Saints to Nauvoo and from thence to Utah in 1847. He is the father of 29 children, 63 grand-children and seven great grand-children. There was a dinner, after which a few hours were spent in musical and other exercises. Brother Bower exhorted his family to be faithful in their adherence to the work of God.

Testimonial to Bishop A. McRae.

The following notes concerning the testimonial to Bishop A. McRae, were furnished by Brother John H. Kelson:

Yesterday, the 19th inst., being the 25th anniversary of the Bishopric of Brother Alex. McRae, the members of his Ward took this opportunity to manifest their respect for him, and their appreciation of his labors, and sterling integrity. The affair was arranged and carried out under the supervision of Counselors Jos. H. Fell and Robert Morris, assisted by a committee of members of the Ward. The spacious hall was handsomely decorated. The national emblem draped the walls and at the north and south eight or nine different nations were represented by their flags. Over the stand was the motto:

"OUR BISHOP—JANUARY 19th, 1857—1882."

with the pictures of Bishop McRae, Joseph and Hyrum Smith, Orson Pratt and others, with the banners of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Association, with a variety of other devices. Over the entrance was a large portrait of the late President Young.

The members of the Ward turned out en masse and, together with many of the Bishop's friends from other Wards, filled the house to its utmost capacity. Among the latter were Pres. John Taylor, and wife, Joseph Kesteven and Lorenzo Snow, Bishop E. Hunter, and his Counselors, L. W. Hardy and R. T. Burton; President Joseph E. Taylor and Hon. C. W. Penrose. At half past one o'clock everything was in readiness to receive the Bishop, who had been kept in total ignorance of what was in store for him. Several tables running the whole length of the hall had been spread with a sumptuous repast, and the guests already seated when the Bishop and his wife were ushered in upon the scene. The organ and choir struck up "Hail to our humble feast," and the Bishop, somewhat bewildered was escorted to the stand. The next two hours were devoted to the consumption of the viands—outstanding and delicious—and to social chat and kindly greetings, when the assemblage was called to order and prayer was offered.

Counselor Jos. H. Fell, in behalf of the members of the Ward, in a few appropriate words, presented the Bishop with a beautiful watch chain and locked, upon which was engraved "presented to Alex. McRae, on the 25th anniversary of his bishopric."

Sister Mary F. Free, in behalf of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations, also presented the Bishop with a large, handsomely framed likeness of himself, accompanied by an appropriate speech. The Bishop responded in a brief and feeling manner. He expressed his thankfulness for this most unexpected, but pleasant expression of the good feelings of the people towards him. Sister M. Free, then read a poem, composed by herself, for the occasion.

President Taylor spoke a few moments. He referred to early times and to the past, in which the Bishop had taken an active part. Had found Bro. McRae always staunch and firm; had seen him in bonds with the Prophet Joseph, and in the midst of the circumstances the Bishop had shown unwavering integrity. He was followed in the same strain by Joseph Lorenzo and Lorenzo Snow, Bishop Hunter, and his Counselors, E. Taylor and W. A. McMaster. The two last named brethren were appointed Counselors to the Bishop twenty-five years ago, at the time of his installation.

The Latest Liquor Legislation.

An amendment to the Charter of Salt Lake City was passed a few days ago by the Legislature, but was not approved by the acting-Governor, because the powers conferred therein were, in his opinion, not stated in a manner to make them indisputably consistent with each other. A new bill was drafted, the principles of which were similar to those of the former bill, but expressed in different terms. This passed the Assembly today, and has been signed by the Executive as follows:

AN ACT Amending the Charter of Salt Lake City.

Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That the City Council of Salt Lake City is hereby empowered by ordinance and enforcement thereof, to license, tax and regulate the manufacturing, selling, giving away, or in any way disposing of, of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, and the persons who engage therein; to restrain, prohibit and punish the manufacturing, selling, giving away, or in any other manner disposing of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, under any license granted; to prohibit the selling, giving away, or in any manner disposing of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, upon Sundays, public holidays and election days; to adopt and employ proper and convenient means for carrying the same into effect; to have the power to require a payment in advance to the City Treasury for the purpose of revenue for each and every license granted for the manufacturing, selling or otherwise disposing of such liquors, the sum not exceeding at a rate of twelve hundred dollars per annum.

(Signed) JOSEPH F. SMITH, President of the Council.

Speaker pro tempore of the House.

Approved January 20th, 1882.

ARTHUR L. THOMAS, Acting Governor.

An Inconspicuous Fire.—Last night, the residence of Mr. C. W. Penrose, in the 9th Ward, came near being burned down. His daughter, Miss Kate, in passing through the corridor, heard something crackling in the parlor. On opening the door she discovered a Christmas tree, which had been left standing from the holidays, wrapped in flames. The window curtains and other contiguous articles had also caught fire. The young lady gave the alarm, when her brother, Ernest came to her assistance. Fortunately the two succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The window curtains, window casings, carpet, and a chair were partially burned, and but for the timely discovery of the fire by Miss Kate, the damage might have been very extensive. The cause of the fire was the desire of a younger member of the family to have an illumination all to himself. He lighted the fancy candles, set fire to the tree, became frightened at what he had done, left the room and shut the door.

Masonic Concert and Ball.

The Masonic concert and ball, at the Theatre last night, was a very brilliant affair. The musical programmes were artistically rendered, the performance of the Careless Orchestra being superb. The singing of Misses Olsen and Liddell and Messrs. Whitney, Barnes and Snellgrove was very fine, and Mr. M. Croxall's "Serenade" on the cornet, was a masterly performance. Miss Louise Lowe's "Piedra," accompanied on the piano by Prof. Krouse, was delicately rendered. Miss E. G. Wareling's recital on the piano showed good execution. Mrs. Geo. Careless sang "The Return" with splendid effect, her singing being the vocal gem of the evening. She responded to an encore. The "Irish Patrol" brought down the house, the audience insisting on a repetition. The musical part of the affair terminated with a couple of finely performed selections by Croxall's band.

After the concert the night was spent in indulgence in terpsichorean exercises.

We understand a very fair amount was realized for the benefit of the Masonic Library fund.

BENEFACTORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical, but proof of its merit by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.

A SENSIBLE MARY.

Not long since one of our principal physicians was called on to visit a patient who was suffering from a severe cold, and which had become seated on her lungs. He continued for some time prescribing expensive prescriptions for the lady, and she, poor thing, gobbling down the nauseous preparations, with no improvement. At last she was induced by her sister to try Hale's Honey of Horshond and Tar, and before she had used one bottle of this wonderful medicine, she could see a decided improvement, and three bottles cured her. Cost only 60 cents a bottle at all druggists. Depot, Crittenton's Patent Medicine Warehouse. The dollar size is the most economical for general use.
