LOCAL NEWS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 21.

The Jordan.—Last evening the NEWS stated that the Jordan levee had broken in two places, letting the water flood the farm of Hon. George Q. Cannon. We are pleased to learn that the breaks have since been repaired. The water is slightly higher than yesterday.

Immigrants.—By telegram from Hon. James H. Hart, at New York, to President John Taylor, we learn that the Company of Saints per S. S. Arizona, in charge of Elder E. H. Nye, arrived at New York, yesterday, and left again last night for the West. All well.

Death of a Hawaiian.—Kahanau-manu, one of the Hawaiian colony of this city, a girl about 13 years of age, died this morning at the Deseret Hospital. We are requested to announce that the funeral will be held at the Hospital to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock sharp. Returned Sandwich Island missionaries and other sympathizing friends are respectfully invited to attend.

The Jordan Dam.—The present high water is bringing to the front the old question of damage to property owners on Utah Lake, by the dam near the head of the Jordan, by means of which water is furnished to the Salt Lake County canals. The Utah county people want some of the boards taken out of the dam, they claiming that some one has put in extra ones since the high water began, while the Salt Lake county property owners in that locality are afraid to remove the boards, as they have about all the water, if not a little more than they can manage, already.

A law suit is talked of in Utah County, but we trust not seriously, as it is much wiser and better to settle the matter by arbitration. Bishop Rawlins and Counselor Wheeler, of South Cottonwood; Bishop Gardner, of West Jordan, and Bishop Bennion, of North Jordan, are in the city, and a meeting is being held this afternoon to consider the best way of settling the difficulty without taking it into the courts.

Welcome Home.—We had the pleasure this morning of grasping the hand of our friend, brother and sometime co-laborer, Elder John Q. Cannon, who with his wife arrived home from Europe by to-day's 12.20 train via the Utah Central. A party of relatives and friends met them in Ogden and accompanied them to this city.

Elder Cannon has been absent on his mission for over two years and ten months. Leaving here on August 9, 1881, he proceeded to Liverpool, where he was assigned to the London Conference, and after laboring there a little over six months, was transferred to the Swiss and German Mission; being first a traveling Elder in and afterwards President of the North German Conference.

April 1, 1883, he was called to Bern to act as Secretary of the Mission, and on the departure of President Goss, August 17, 1883, succeeded him in its presidency. He was released and with his wife left Bern for home on the 15th of last May.

After visiting Paris and London, they sailed from Liverpool on the 7th inst., per S. S. Wyoming, the same vessel on which he crossed the Atlantic in 1881. Landing on the 17th inst. at New York, they left for the West two days later and reached Ogden at 10.40 a. m. to-day.

Their voyage was exceedingly pleasant, nothing occurring by sea or land to mar it in any way. Mrs. Cannon has been absent from home since October 16th, 1883, having gone directly to join her husband. Both return in excellent health. Brother Jno. Q.'s labors have been referred to at different times in our columns. He was an active and successful missionary, and by pen and tongue labored faithfully and energetically for the spread of the truth. He has performed a good work and fulfilled an honorable mission, and we heartily bid him and Sister Cannon welcome home.

THE FOURTH.

PREPARATIONS IN PROGRESS.

The various committees of citizens selected to arrange for the celebration of the anniversary of the Nation's Independence are diligently at work, and have sufficiently progressed to ensure success.

We understand that Hon. A. B. Carlton and Judge C. W. Bennett have consented to favor the citizens on that occasion, with their assistance with the Declaration of Independence and oration. Other gentlemen are also expected to be present and deliver short addresses.

The committee have determined upon having a pyrotechnic display, having made their order by telegraph, shipment to be by express.

It has not yet been determined at what place the exercises will be held. Liberty Park seems the most probable place, permission to use that resort having been requested of the Mayor and City Council, and also to have the display of fireworks within the city limits.

Arrangements are being made for a pageant of vehicles, and a representation of trade and business of the city and Territory, which it is expected will be a prominent feature of the occasion, as will also the young girls representing the institutions of Freedom.

The services of the fine military band from Fort Douglass have been secured, together with the Opera House band.

An adjourned meeting of the citizens will be held at the District Court room at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening. [Com.]

STOCK RAISING.

A TALK WITH HON. WILLIAM JENNINGS

The subject of stock raising being one of interest in this community, where numbers of prominent men are engaged in the enterprise, it might not be amiss to give a few facts in reference to the subject, as gleaned from a conversation by a News reporter with Hon. William Jennings. This gentleman, who has always been in the foremost rank of Utah's stock breeders and has the reputation of owning more fine stock than any one west of Chicago, has at his farm in Davis County, a county now taking the lead in stock-raising—about eighty head of thoroughbred Short Horn and Herefordshire bulls and heifers, with twenty half-blood heifers of the two stocks, and ten bulls.

He commenced breeding the Short Horns in 1870, and bred up most of his Salina herd, which is now about 2,000 strong. Finding the Hereford a harder breed of cattle than the others, two years ago he turned his attention to that stock, and has proven, as he expected to do, that they make a better cross with Short Horn thoroughbreds. The Herefords came to the herd a year ago last spring, sent out better a year later on the same range than the Short Horns; the former being a more lively and prolific beast than the latter.

It is Mr. Jennings' intention to turn his entire stock of Herefords to the herd, as they are better beef cattle than the others, but are indifferent milkers, while the Short Horns will be reserved for milking and butter purposes. He has several cows at his farm now, each of them giving 25 quarts of milk per day. A half-blood calf, of the two breeds mentioned, when killed last Christmas at two months old, weighed 192 pounds. The yearling half-blood heifers, now on the Davis County farm, look very fine indeed.

He has two Hereford bull calves there, one 14 months old and one two months, both from thoroughbred imported stock. He has just disposed of his five-year-old Hereford bull, "Crystal," to Mr. F. Meyers, for $250, and says the animal is worth $1,000 of any man's money. This fine beast was bred in Shropshire, England, and imported by Mr. Miller, of Beecher, Ill., from whom Mr. Jennings purchased him some two years ago.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 25.

Call and Get It.—There is a letter at this office for Rhoda Naylor (or Naylor). Her maiden name was Rhoda Orchard, formerly of Wiltshire, England.

The Test Cases.—This morning the cases against the Utah Commissioners, to test the validity of their rulings under the Edmunds Act, were up before the Supreme Court of the Territory, when the decision of the District Court, in favor of the Commissioners, was affirmed. They will now go up to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Home Manufactured Cart.—This morning we examined a specimen road cart, turned out by the People's Implement Company, South Temple Street. It combines the qualities of lightness, strength and comeliness, is so nicely balanced and constructed as to be easy to ride in. Besides it is cheaper than any of the imported carts, the cost being about the price of a good saddle. It should supersede the imported vehicles in that line.

Another Break.—Sometime yesterday afternoon the Jordan river made another break through its west bank, about a quarter of a mile above the white bridge, and overflowed quite a piece of land, forming a lake on the lucern field of Theodore McKean, Esq. About twenty-five men were at work repairing the place about sundown, and continued their labors and vigils through the night.

An Alleged Fraud.—A gentleman from Park City informs us that a book agent who was out in that place lately swindled the people out of about $225, in board, clothing, etc. His books are represented as comparatively worthless, being only of the value of about 20 per cent of the price he places upon them. He is tall, stout, has fair hair and complexion. He speaks with much deliberation and emphasis. As he travels under a number of aliases his real name is not known. He is said to assume a new name in each place he visits. Look out for him and give him the kind of a reception he deserves. One or more of his aliases are known. He professes to be a college graduate, but his dense ignorance exhibits the falsity of this claim.

Admitted to the Bar.—This morning C. C. Richards, Esq., of Ogden, was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of this Territory, after a very thorough and satisfactory examination as to his abilities and qualifications. This gives the gentleman the right to practice in any of the courts of Utah. We congratulate him and the people of Ogden on his advancement. He is a studious and careful young man who is adapted by nature and application to the profession which he has adopted. He has had long experience in County and Probate Court proceedings at Ogden, and under the instruction of his brother, F. S. Richards, Esq., has had fine opportunities for acquiring sound legal knowledge. He will be of great benefit to the people of Weber County, and we have no doubt will rise to eminence in the practice of the law. We wish him all the success that he can reasonably desire.

Friendly Farewell.—A well merited tribute of respect was recently paid to Sister Emily S. Richards, wife of City Attorney F. S. Richards, Esq., by the members of the Y. L. M. I. A. of Ogden City. The lady in question held the office of president of the Second Ward Association there, had honorably filled other positions in the community, and by her uniform courtesy, efficiency and goodness of heart won the love and respect of all who knew her.

The occasion referred to was a social gathering previous to Mrs. Richards' removal with her husband to this city. A testimonial of respect and esteem was read, resolutions were passed and brief speeches made by Sisters Emily S. Richards, E. R. Snow Smith, Jane S. Richards, Elder F. S. Richards, Apostle F. D. Richards, Elders L. F. Monch, Joseph Hall, Bishop Thomas Wallace, and other brethren and sisters present, after which a rich repast was served and in the delights of social converse the rest of the evening wore pleasantly away.

Supreme Court.—Proceedings in the Supreme Court of Utah Territory, Wednesday, June 25, 1884.

Charles C. Richards admitted to the bar of this court.

James Ewing respondent, vs. Edgar Merkle, appellant, from First District; judgment of District Court affirmed, respondent to recover costs.

In the case of James M. Barlow appellant vs. Alex. Ramsey et al., respondents, and in the cases of Mary Ann E. Pratt, Jesse J. Murphy, Mildred M. Randall and Ellen C. Clawson against the said respondent, all from the Third District; the judgment of the District Court was affirmed, respondents to recover costs. Appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court allowed with bonds of $250 in each case.

People, etc. respondents vs. Rudolph Smith; from Third District; judgment of District Court affirmed.

People, etc. respondents vs. David Fennell imp., etc., appellant, from Second District; appeal dismissed.

Thomas Fenton respondent vs. Salt Lake County imp., etc. appellants; Third District; judgment of District Court reversed and cause remanded with instructions to sustain demurrer to complaint; appellant to recover costs. Appeal to U. S. Supreme Court allowed, with bond fixed at $250.

Jo in Felt, respondent, vs. Wm. R. Judd, appellant, from First District; order of District Court refusing to change place of trial affirmed, and judgment of District Court reversed and cause remanded with instructions to sustain demurrer to complaint; appellant to recover costs.

Samuel Levy respondent vs. Salt Lake City appellant, Third District; order of District Court granting new trial affirmed, respondent to recover costs.

Andrew Klopenstine appellant vs. Isaac Woolf, respondent, Third District; judgment of District Court affirmed, respondent to recover costs.

Margaret Sanders appellant vs. Isaac Woolf respondent, Third District; same order.

Wm. H. H. Bowers respondent vs. London Bank of Utah (L.) appellant, Third District; order of District Court appealed from affirmed, respondent to recover costs.

Account of E. T. Sprague, Clerk of this Court, from April 2nd, 1884, to present date inclusive, $85, approved.

Court adjourned till November 10, 1884, at 2 p. m.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 26.

The "News" in Provo.—Felt Brothers, of Provo, write to us as follows:

Editor Deseret News:

Your new mode of sending the NEWS will be a grand success as soon as it becomes generally understood. Please make an announcement through your paper that Provo gets the daily NEWS at 6.30 p. m., same evening as published; to be had at Felt Brothers. Also call the attention of subscribers to the fact that it will be sent to Felt Bros.' News Depot for their convenience.

Wonderful Workmen.—Archimedes Secundus and Sons—which being interpreted signifies H. G. Carroll and Sons—formerly of Liverpool, have a circular in distribution in which orders are solicited for all kinds of carpenters and builders work, machinery, turning in wood, iron, ivory or bone, plumbing, gas and water fitting, coopering, designing of various kinds and almost everything mechanics can do under the sun. They mean what they say and are skillful workmen. Their workshop in this city is at 387 H. Street between 7th and 8th streets, 20th Ward. Give them a trial.

The Celebration.—The committee of arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration held a meeting last night at the Utah Commission rooms, and determined to hold the exercises, such as speaking, reading the Declaration of Independence, etc., in front of the Liberal Institute.

The pyrotechnic display will be given from the Eighth Ward Square, to commence as soon as it is dark enough to be properly witnessed.

The little girls who are to represent the various States and Territories are having all the preparations made that is possible, and that will be an important feature.

At 8 o'clock the committee adjourned to the U. S. District Courtroom and received the reports of the various committees.

A resolution was adopted requesting that the trades and business of the city be represented in the procession. Invitations will be sent to all the civic societies in the city. A number of the societies have signified their intention of turning out in uniform, and one of the lodges will turn out in uniform and mounted.

Funeral of a Hawaiian.—The obsequies of the Hawaiian girl, Kahanau-manu, who died in the Deseret Hospital on Tuesday morning, took place there at about 10 a. m. yesterday. The services, which were in the native language of the deceased, were conducted by Elder Joseph H. Dean, under the oversight of Bishop H. B. Clawson, President of the Hospital. There were present, besides the brethren mentioned and the members of the Hawaiian Colony of this city, sixteen in number, President Joseph F. Smith, Sisters Cannon, Nebeker, Clawson and others.

After singing, prayer was offered by one of the brethren of the colony, and another hymn followed in the same tongue. The speakers were three Kanaka Elders and Elder Dean, Bishop Clawson and President Smith, and the benediction was pronounced by one of the Hawaiian Elders. All present followed the remains to the cemetery. The services were interesting and impressive. The grandfather of the dead girl took the sad event sorely to heart. The disease was a gradual wasting away.

Holiday Excursion.—Those who design going on the 4th of July excursion to Ogden will be pleased to learn that preparations are under way in our sister city to celebrate the nation's natal day in a manner commensurate with the enterprise of the town and the importance of the occasion itself. We clip the following from the Herald of that city:

Before the rare race attractions at the grounds of the Ogden Driving Park Association, on the afternoon of Independence Day, the Nation's Birthday will be duly and dignifiedly commemorated at Lester Park Square, in the forenoon, under the auspices and at the instigation of the Ogden City

Fire Department who are unanimous in their determination of having a good time on that glorious occasion, and give everybody a chance to enjoy himself in grateful remembrance of the country's fathers.

The following gentlemen of the Fire Department have been appointed a committee on arrangements: W. G. Child (chairman), Orson Riser, Heber Warner, F. F. Cobabe, R. H. Chambers, R. Paine, C. D. Hays, T. S. Browning, and Jas. Wotherspoon. They will prepare a fine patriotic program, of oration, speeches, poems, songs, music, games, sports, and other diversified features, to be published in a day or two.

The train for Ogden leaves this city on the morning of the 4th at 7.30 o'clock. The Sixth Ward silver band accompanies the excursion.

The Carriage Drive.—As the driving season advances it becomes a question of interest to those who indulge in such delights, as to what steps will be or are being taken to prepare the carriage drives for public use. Some two years ago a drive was laid out, known as the Salt Lake Carriage Drive, extending from the Continental Hotel south to Penitentiary Lane, thence east to General Wells' farm, and thence up Fifth East as far north as First South Street.

Last year this was kept in good repair, mainly through the efforts of the Driving Park Association, who bought tools and had the drive regularly sprinkled. This season, the same tools are available, but several hundred dollars will have to be expended in establishing "loading places" for sprinklers and in other details before the Drive can be put in a proper condition. Otherwise it will be comparatively useless.

There is now in the treasury of the Association $150, and the rest must come by subscription from parties interested. The question is, shall the Drive be sprinkled and kept in order this season or not? Those sufficiently interested to answer in the affirmative and give substantial aid to the enterprise, should hand in their names to W. S. McCormick, of this city, or to Alma Pratt of Farmer's Ward. It is suggested that the City put in a "loading place" near Liberty Park, which would aid materially in this matter.

Deseret Mills.—A short time since the NEWS announced the purchase of the Deseret Woolen Mills by Hon. Wm. Jennings & Sons. These mills were built by the late President Brigham Young, and in the settlement of his estate became the property of his son, M. M. Young, Esq., since deceased. The purchase was made of Mrs. Agnes M. Young, widow of the latter. Just prior to the transfer of the property a suit was instituted in the District Court by L. A. Cummings and other heirs of the late James W. Cummings, against the executors of the B. Y. estate for the possession of the mill property. From a conversation with Mr. Jennings it is evident that he regards the outcome of the litigation as anything but prejudicial to his interests, or those of the parties defendant.

It is the expressed intention of Messrs. Jennings and Sons to make a history for these mills in addition to their past good record, as they consider there is ample opportunity for growth and expansion, in room, power and capacity. They will start up on the 1st of July, under the superintendence of Mr. James Dunn, late of Provo, the well known former superintendent of the Woolen Mills in that place. Mr. Jennings says there will not be much improvement in the Mills this year, but new facilities in machinery, etc., will be added and the capacity increased as fast as it is ascertained what and how much is wanted to make the Mills what their present owners desire them to be.

"In a very weak condition, sinking from Nervous Prostration."

A patient in Mississippi gives this account of a "marvellous change" wrought in her condition:

"Last December I received your Compound Oxygen. I was in a very weak condition, sinking from nervous prostration. I commenced its use immediately, leaving off everything else. And what a marvellous change it wrought in a few weeks! So rapidly did I improve that neighbors and friends who had been familiar with my complaints for several years are still full of wonder at my recovery."

Our "Treatise on Compound Oxygen," containing a history of the discovery and mode of action of this remarkable curative agent, and a large record of surprising cures in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., and a wide range of chronic diseases, will be sent free. Address Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 and 1111 Girard St., Philad'a.

All orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Mathews, 606 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Phila.

DIPHTHERIA is reported to have died out.
