

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Correspondents writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—The performance last night was very fine throughout, and Mr. Lindsay's essay of the difficult role of "Louis XI" was an exceedingly creditable one. All the characters were well sustained, and the farce of "His Last Legs" kept the house in a roar of laughter. Mr. Lindsay played an admirable O'Callaghan. It was gratifying to see the spirit with which the performance went off.

On Thursday night, the lovers of the drama may expect a splendid night's entertainment at Mr. Hardie's Benefit. There will be the tragedy of "Jack Cade," in which Mr. Hardie will assume the title role. This tragedy is a strictly historical play, Jack Cade having been the leader in one of the boldest attempts recorded in English history to break the yoke of feudalism. During the course of the play some of the worst features of that system will be vividly portrayed.

Between the play and the farce, Mrs. Lynch and Mr. Hardie will sing the beautiful duet "There's a Sign in the Heart." The entertainment will conclude with that exorcisingly comical farce "The Lost Child," in which Mr. Margetta, as the "distracted parent," will take by storm the mirth-loving propensities of the audience.

The bill is a very excellent one, and should draw a full house, and we sincerely hope that the Benefit will be all that Mr. Hardie or his most sanguine friends can desire.

MAIL CONTRACT.—The contract with Wells, Fargo & Co., for carrying the mails between the eastern and western termini of the railroad and this city, terminates to day. We have not heard of the first step being taken by the new contractors towards the carrying out of the terms of their contract, and presume that to-morrow morning the mails will lie in undisturbed repose in the post office, for unless Postmaster Street should receive instructions from the Department, they do not fulfil their contract, who are as a huge impediment to the people who are by the pseudo-contractors who agreed to transport the mails, deceived the Department, misled the people on the line of road between the termini, and are causing a suspension of mail transportation. They deserve to be heavily punished by Government, should this surmise prove correct.

MORE SHOOTING.—Louis Robinson, writing from his ferry, at Green river, to the Frontier Index, says that on the 21st Joe Caldwell and a party of eight, from Emigrant Gulch, on the Yellowstone, were separating, some going to South Pass city, some to Bridger, and some to Green river city, when they quarreled in driving their things, and blows and pistol shots followed, resulting in the instant death of Joe Caldwell and the wounding of Charlie Hopkins. It was interesting to prevent the difficulty when he was shot. He was formerly from Indiana.

JACK CADE, a powerful drama, for Mr. Hardie's Benefit.

MORE GOODS.—Gillespie's and Adams' trains of about thirty-five prairie schooners, loaded with 120,000 pounds of freight for Jennings & Co., arrived this morning and immediately commenced unloading.

FROM NEPHIL.—By letter from Samuel Hichforth, Esq., we learn that on Saturday their School was well attended and an excellent spirit prevailed. A strong desire is manifested to act in unison for the accomplishment of good. On Sunday the meeting was well attended and much valuable instruction was given. In the afternoon sixty-three persons who had been baptized during the mission were confirmed.

"THERE'S A SIGN IN THE HEART" will be sung at Mr. Hardie's Benefit.

CHILLS AND FEVER.—By a communication from Virgin City, we learn that chills and fever exist in that county at the present time.

WASHAKIE.—This fine old chief and his band of Shoshones have gone from the neighborhood of Fort Bridger to their usual grounds for the winter, in the Wind River Valley.

RAILROAD ITEMS.—The Frontier Index of the 15th, says all the grading east of Green River is completed, and the hands have gone over to the heavy work in the bluffs on the west side of the river. The piers for the bridge are rising above the water of the river, the bridge timbers are being framed, and there is nothing to hinder the track being laid to Bear River this Fall, whether Bryan be the terminus for passenger and freight traffic or not. Dan Cessment was at Green River city, and said the track would be there in fifteen days.

Mrs. A. LYNCH, the favorite vocalist, sings at Mr. Hardie's Benefit, in a duet with Mr. Hardie.

INDIANS ON THE PLAINS.—The Indians are still troublesome on the Plains, and various recent outrages, said to have been committed by them, are reported. The Colorado Tribune of the 23d has the following items: A band of Indians on West Plum Creek stampeded some horses; they set fire to the buildings and crops at a ranch; and entered and robbed a house but did not burn it. They followed a family about two miles but were kept away with a loaded gun. The next morning they drove off two hundred head of cattle. They were pursued, but were in too great force for the pursuing party. They are said to be armed with new guns.

The same paper of the 23d tells of a fight in the neighborhood of Big Sandy on the Smoky Hill trail, between the Indians and a force under the command of Captain Graham of Fort Hays. Fifteen Indians were reported killed.

The St. Joseph Union says, "at the request of General Sheridan, Governor Crawford, of Kansas, has issued a call for five companies of militia, for service against the Indians. The Governor says an Indian war is inevitable."

The Cheyenne papers have accounts of Indians in that neighborhood. It is believed in various places that white men are committing depredations as Indians, which has a tendency to increase the rumors of outrages by the aborigines.

Mr. MARGETTA in his great character of the "distracted parent" at Mr. Hardie's Benefit.

Big Loads.—Archey Livingston brought yesterday from Cottonwood Canyon, three loads of lumber for President Wells' lumber yard. One of the loads contained three thousand feet, and another one contained three thousand five hundred feet. These are the largest loads of lumber we have seen in the mountains, where everything is done on an expansive principle.

THE BROOKLYN JOURNAL.—We have received No. 1, Vol. 1, of this journal, published by Frederick F. Hahnway, No. 10, Court Street, corner Hahnway, Brooklyn, N. Y. It contains an original ballad set to very pretty music, a number of entertaining stories, poetry, "recipes for the house," the lowdown on the sick room," etc. It will be issued monthly for a dollar per annum.

HOMICIDE.—From a gentleman in from Bear River we learn of some "killings" in that quarter lately. A man named Tom Joy or Joyce, a gambler, insulted and threatened a man who was engaged in cutting ice contiguous, pulling a pistol on the latter, who shot him in the body, killing him instantly. Two men went into a difficulty in the tunnel about three miles east of Bear River, when one cut the other's bowels open, and the injured man died from the effects of the wound. The homicide was tied up and a guard of three men set over him. In the morning the man was "shot" all to pieces, and the guard was missing.
