

In company with Elder Magleby and a native Elder I recently took a trip around the Esat Cape and Bay of Plenty, among the outsiders. Our experience was various both in our travels and in the reception we got. This is a very rough and broken part of this volcanic island, and judging from the numerous remains of earthworks or fortifications, the people must at one time have been the same. Indeed, they are said to be the most warlike tribe on the island. The mountains stand out rugged and broken, and the steep climbing would almost put Pike's Peak or Mt. Newo to shame. A short distance of nice sandy beach, then a high mountain to climb and back again to a few miles of beach, only to be confronted by another mountain whose rocky point is impassable by the beach. At one place we came to a slippery ledge of rocks with the tide coming in.

THE MAIL CARRIER
has just come along. A few moment's survey and he starts out sans trousers and boots, leading his horse, while we make ours follow, and climb over the rocks carrying saddle, etc. An elegant procession, but no one to laugh at it. In other places the narrow path leads round the steep mountain sides, the ocean waves beating up at the base; where a single misstep would be likely to cause an ocean bath, or at least a wet suit of clothes. When the rocks are too steep, steps are cut, and we realize what it is to ride up stairs horseback.

Our first night away from the Saints we have the privilege of seeking shelter in an abandoned hut, having been refused by the Maories. This is a part where they are very blithe, and near the place where Brothers Johnson and Magleby were tied up, and many persecutions heaped upon the Saints some two years ago. Many of the people desire to treat us better, but are kept from doing so by their chiefs and ministers. The following morning we have a fifteen miles ride up the bed of a river, crossing the river ninety-one times in a zigzag course. In the evening we are welcomed into a pah by about 7 Maories, and barked at by 12 dogs, and I think some of the latter inhabitants were away. We were here kindly treated but they did not desire to have us preach, though they seemed much interested in conversing upon subjects they thought they did not want to hear.

During the trip we had the pleasure of holding many meetings though we were refused on several occasions. The people are mostly followers of

A MAORI PROPHET,
Te Kooti, and seem content to remain so, as their religion, if so it may be called, does not hinder their following after the lusts of the flesh. At one pah, Te Kaha, where we spent a Sabbath, we had the privilege of speaking to about sixty persons who paid good attention and we have hopes for good fruits in the near future. It is the cleanest and neatest pah and people it has been my privilege to meet in Maoridom.

While returning, riding near the beach, a huge whale came up near the shore, remaining in view several moments. We also got a good view of White Island, a mountain standing out of the sea some twenty miles from shore, and from which an immense volume of smoke is constantly ascending. This island probably is the only thing of which the Maories have no theory as to its origin. They simply say it always was so.

We are glad to be with the Saints again and witness the good spirit prevailing amongst them.

An incident showing the respect of our Heavenly Father to His faithful servants, and the power of Satan over those who continually serve Him, has lately occurred in our midst. A Maori minister, Moses Ture, has persistently persecuted the Elders and Saints from the beginning. He has heard their doctrines preached and is thoroughly conversant with scripture. From his continued hardness of heart, and having been thoroughly warned of the evil of his way, one of the Elders was led to bear a final testimony, and shake off the dust from his feet as a witness, telling him that unless he repented suddenly, he should be delivered into the hands of Satan. From that time all has gone wrong with him. He has lost much of his property and influence, a short time ago his son shot his own wife and then suicided, and last week his house burned in the night, he with his wife and child barely escaping with their lives.

Yours respectfully,
E. T. S.

Park Notes.

M. H. Quirk's little boy got in the way of Sutcliff Brothers' delivery team Wednesday afternoon and was run over. He was more scared than hurt.

Last Tuesday morning Chas. Julian jumped the town, leaving a heavy debt unpaid at C. Hirschman's. An effort was made to capture and bring him back, but it proved futile as Julian's exact whereabouts was not known.

Archie Donelson was hurt Wednesday at the Ontario No. 3. He stepped on to a defective round in the ladder, and down he went. He escaped with an injured back, and it is thought some internal though not serious injuries.

On Wednesday Dr. Wilson was summoned to Midway to attend Mrs. B. M. Smith's injuries. The lady was riding up Provo Canon with her son, and at a dangerous place in the road the occupants feared the wagon would tip over. Mrs. Smith jumped from her high seat, the result being a very severe fracture to her limb.

Last Monday John Johnson fell down a manway, a distance of about fifteen feet, in the Ontario No. 3 workings. He received a compound comminuted fracture of the right leg below the knee. Under Drs. Gregor & Wilson's care Johnson is getting along as well as could be expected, although his injuries are quite serious. It is not now anticipated that amputation will be necessary.

A case of some prominence was before Commissioner Whedon Thursday, in which Wm. H. Kimball was the defendant and Will O. Young complainant. Young, it appears, went down to Kimball's ranch to exchange a horse for some other property he claimed, but Kimball objected strongly. Hot words ensued and Kimball made a break at Young with a case knife, and had it not been for George Cliff somebody would have been seriously hurt. Young swore out a complaint against Kimball on the 11th inst. and he was arrested last Monday by Sheriff Weber. On Thursday he was arraigned before Commissioner Whedon on a charge of assault with intent to do bodily harm and after the preliminary examination the Commissioner bound Kimball over in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury.—Park City Record.

Southern Notes.

Hon. P. T. Farnsworth shipped twenty-two carloads of cattle east this week.

There seems to be existing in Beaver at present a genuine epidemic of typhoid fever.

Prof. Alma Greenwood, of Fillmore, has retired from the principalship of the Millard Stake Academy and been succeeded by Prof. J. E. Hickman.

More machinery passed through Millford this week for the Comet Smelter, Frisco. From the way things are moving it appears that business is meant.

Last week the Hickman Bros. brought into Millford 70 head of horses belonging to A. G. Campbell, who is moving them to his ranch in Nevada. Mr. Campbell has also shipped to this point 120 head of horned stock, principally Polled Angus, destined for his ranch.

A rumor has become pretty generally prevalent about town respecting a certain alleged case of diphtheria. It was stated that a family had come over from Sevier County to this city with a child down with the dread disease. We have been informed by Dr. Fennimore that he made a thorough examination of the case, and that he finds not even a sign of diphtheria, and that diphtheria does not exist in the town.—Beaver Usonian, Oct. 19.

One Thousand Dollars Reward

From a gentleman who arrived from Billings on the 10th instant it was learned that Lewis Sweet, who had been assessor of Yellowstone County for the past two years, had committed suicide. At the coroner's inquest the startling revelation was made that the case bore plain evidence of a murder. The suicide report was at first given out, owing to the fact that when Mr. Sweet was retiring to bed on the night of the 9th instant he placed his foot on the head of his bed. After he had been in the room a short time a loud report was heard. But investigation afterwards showed that both barrels were still loaded, and now the affair has assumed a very mysterious shape. The story of the crime is that on the day mentioned the deceased had received a letter which greatly annoyed him, and which he burned after reading it. It is now said that while he was going to bed some one fired a shot at him from the window. The citizens of Billings are greatly agitated over the mysterious affair, and have petitioned the governor to offer a reward for the capture of the assassin. The petition was numerously signed by the representative citizens of the town, and Governor Leslie has offered $1,000 reward for the apprehension of the murderer.—Butte Inter-Mountain, Oct. 18.

These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. C. Smith & Co., Druggists.

DOCTORS' BILLS.
Nearly all diseases originate from infection of the liver, and this is especially the case with chills and fever, intermittent fevers and malarial diseases. To save doctors' bills and ward of disease take Simmons' Liver Regulator, a medicine that increases in popularity every year, and has become the most popular and best endorsed medicine in the market for the cure of liver or bowel diseases.—Telegraph, Dubuque, Iowa.

In 1850 "Brown's Bronchial Troches" were introduced, and their success as a cure for Colds, Coughs, Asthma and Bronchitis has been unparalleled.

The "Exposition Universelle de l'art Culinaire" awarded the highest honors to Angostura Bitters as the most efficacious stimulant to excite the appetite and to keep the digestive organs in good order. Ask for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons, and beware of imitations.

A SURE CURE FOR THE PILES.
—You need not suffer from this most distressing disease again in all your life. Email's Balm acts as a poultice and lubricator, absorbs the tumors and allays the intense itching at once. No cantharide, no acid, no pain. A. McGibbons Esq., 39 Poplar street, Allegheny, Pa., writes: "I had itching and bleeding piles so bad I could not sit, stand or walk without intense suffering. I doctored with many physicians, and tried all the (so called) cures that I ever heard of, in vain (paying out hundreds of dollars), until I used Email's Magic Balm, or Ointment. After the first application I enjoyed the best night's sleep I had for ten years, and two boxes have cured me completely." — Wherever introduced Dr. Email's Balm takes the lead, and has the largest sale of any Pile remedy in the world. Sold by druggists everywhere or sent by mail. 50 cent boxes. Address Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution, Salt Lake City. d&w (2)

DEAFNESS also cures, and a new and successful Cure at your own home, by one who was deaf twenty-eight years. Treated by meet of the noted specialists without benefit. Cured himself in three months, and since then hundreds of others. Full particulars sent on application.
