

EVENING NEWS. Monday, June 18, 1934.

Police Items.

The following list of offenders were convicted in the Police Court today, and fined the amounts stated: Henry Kelly and John Thompson, drunk, $7.50 each; Charles Jones and H. A. Bennett, drunk and profane, $10 each; Sam Johnson, E. Lewis, P. Munson, Jacob Olsen and H. Anderson, drunk, $5 each.

From Prison.

This morning Gustave Thomason and Wm. Chug, of Logan, were brought down from the penitentiary, where they have been serving six months on a sentence for unlawful cohabitation. They were taken before the commissioner, and it being shown that they had not sufficient means to pay the fines imposed, they were discharged.

Picture of the Opera Company.

We have received from H. Salnaber and C. Johnson, a very fine photograph of the Evan Stephens Opera Company, as grouped on the stage of the Salt Lake Theatre in the first act of the "Bohemian Girl." It makes a most attractive picture, and considering that it was taken in an artificial light, is remarkably clear, the likenesses of the bulk of those comprising the interesting group being recognizable without difficulty.

Run Over.

At about 10 a. m. yesterday, a man named Emanuel Woolley, of the Twenty-first Ward, had a team standing by the hydrant near the schoolhouse in that ward for the purpose of hauling water. From some cause the horses, a gentle team, started and Mr. Woolley fell to the ground. A wheel of the wagon passed over his shoulder, cutting a deep rash in it. His head was also injured. His horse was killed but not dangerous, as no bones were broken.

Sunday School Meeting.

Yesterday morning the Sabbath Schools of South Cottonwood and Union held a combined session in the South Cottonwood meeting house, and a very enjoyable time was had. The Bishop and his counselors from Union accompanied the school. Short addresses were delivered by Bishops Rawlins and Phillips, and a number of exercises were given by the pupils. The singing by the schools was nicely rendered. A return visit will shortly be made by the South Cottonwood school.

A Street Breeze.

Considerable excitement pervaded the atmosphere of lower Main Street this afternoon. The cause, as we have been informed, was the presence at a business house nearly opposite the Clift Hotel by a young Hebrew with a little bill he wanted to collect. The presentation of the account resulted in a dispute between the presenter and the proprietor, and the latter seized the former unceremoniously and landed him on the sidewalk. This forcible eviction was supplemented by several blows. A crowd gathered and there was the usual kind of accompaniment a street scrimmage. No arrests were made at the time.

Cadets at Garfield Tomorrow.

The All Hallows' College cadets drum corps and their friends go to Garfield Beach tomorrow (Tuesday the 19th) instead of Thursday the 21st, as stated by one of the promoters of the party. The boys will "fall in" at the college corner at 10:30 tomorrow morning, and headed by their own drum corps and the Garfield Beach band march via Third South, Main and First South streets to the U. & N. depot for the 11:40 a. m. train. At 3:30 p. m. is the exhibition drill on the grand pavilion at the close of which the company will pass in review before Maj. Gen. F. P. Ward Connor, for the evening will be the cadet ball.

A Stabbing Affray.

Yesterday forenoon a serious stabbing affray occurred at Eagle Rock between J. Ed. Smith, the well-known attorney, and Frank Smith, a ranchman and stockman, which resulted in the hand and side, but neither of the latter wounds are at all serious. The trouble originated over some live stock transaction, and before any one could intervene Martin sprang forward and began slugging right and left with his knife. Smith, although wounded in the very first of the encounter, promptly clinched with him and held him down and held him. The wound in Smith's neck is an ugly looking one, but it is not considered dangerous as he is now walking around town. No arrests have been made. — Pocatello Reporter, June 17.

Speedy Justice.

Captain Dave Namina, chief of the Pyramid Lake Utes, arrived here last evening. He says the Indian judges tried Willie Dunn for the murder of Charley Winnemucca at the Pyramid Lake reservation, found him guilty and sentenced him to be hanged tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. Captain Dave came here to notify the Indians of the result of the trial and give them opportunity to go to the reservation and learn all the particulars. He says there are five or six hundred Indians at the reservation, and rumors have been sent all over the state that the Indians were so they cannot say that they bagged the murderer secretly.

"He says Willie Dunn is about 37 years of age, and has a wife, and the killing of Charley Winnemucca was without previous cause." — Winnemucca Niter State June 14.

D. A. & M. Society.

On Saturday afternoon the directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society held another meeting. There were present Messrs. R. W. Haight, J. H. Moyle, J. D. Peters, A. L. Thomas and E. M. Weiler. The president asked for and was granted further time to appoint the standing committees.

R. Kletting, architect, stated that he would be ready shortly to advertise for bids for the construction of the fair building. He called attention to the fact that the grounds needed drainage, and the matter was referred to the president and executive committee of the society.

It was ordered that the several committees to be appointed be instructed to report on the list of articles to be exhibited, awards to be made to be determined by the committee of the whole.

Francis Armstrong and Arthur L. Thomas were appointed as a committee to solicit subscriptions for the erection of a permanent exposition building.

W. H. Rowe, N. A. Empey and H. M. Wells were appointed a committee to solicit special premiums for exhibits.

A proposition was received from the Burton-Gardner Company to place a picket fence around the west half of the fair grounds. The board of directors desire to receive propositions from others for fencing.

An offer of a special premium for the best display of barley was submitted by Jacob Moritz.

The board adjourned subject to the call of the president.

YESTERDAY'S FIRE.

$50,000 Goes Up in a Sabbath Morning Blaze.

About 10:30 a. m. yesterday the quiet of the Sabbath morning was rudely broken by the clanging of the fire bell. The cause of the alarm was the commencement of a serious conflagration almost directly in the rear of the old Salt Lake House, on East Temple Street. Some men who were back in an alley discovered a small blaze in the rear of the cafe restaurant, and endeavored to extinguish it, but it was too much for them, as it communicated almost immediately with the stable at the back of Howard & Davis' green grocery establishment, and that structure was quickly enveloped in flames. One man mounted a horse and started for Fireman's Hall, to give the alarm, while the others and such as could be gathered proceeded to save what they could of the contents of the building. Three horses and one buggy were taken from the stable, but the fire spread so rapidly that another buggy which was inside could not be got out.

The horse cart and firemen were on the ground in a very short time after the alarm was given. The steamer was delayed for a few minutes owing to the horses being out for exercise, but no time was lost in getting them in. Four streams of water from the hydrants were opened on the different parts of the burning mass, which had extended from Kahn Brothers' to Barratt Brothers' stores in less than a quarter of an hour. The flames shot up to a great height, the burning timbers, dry as they could be made by the summer heat, cracked, the thin walls, in which the adobes were between the ravages of time and weather, trembled and swayed, and the wind, which was blowing still, drove the flames speedily from one point to another—the whole presenting a scene that seemed to justify the generally expressed fear that there would be a terrible holocaust before the firemen would become masters of the situation.

To add to the difficulties of the position, the buildings upstairs were cut up into small rooms, the partitions between which were lath and plaster. From the arrangement of the hallways, etc., the draft was almost perfect, and the obstructions offered to the firemen exceedingly difficult to overcome. For half an hour or more the immense quantities of water thrown into the buildings seemed to have no effect whatever, while the danger to the firemen from falling roofs, doors and walls was very great. Chief Ottlinger, in addition to directing his men in the battle with the fire, had much to fear and attract his attention in this line, and it was only by the most careful and good fortune that none were injured.

A little after 11 o'clock the first wall came down with a crash, and shortly after the effect of the streams from the hydrants and steamer began to be perceptible, and by 12 o'clock, three and a half hours subsequent to the outbreak, the fire had done its work, and been extinguished. The scene presented gave a fair idea of the damage. While the fronts of the buildings showed but little of the effects, the whole of the back was a mass of ruins. The walls and roofs of most of the buildings had fallen in, and much property that had escaped fire and water was thus destroyed.

The fastest building to the south that was injured was that occupied by the clothing house of J. J. Nathan, and owned by Mr. Kahn. The northern limit was Kahn Brothers' store, the roof of which had been partially burned. In the space between the stores were Sells & Burton, R. C. Easton, J. W. Farrell & Co., Price & Needham, Howard & Davis, F. Auerbach, Kahn Brothers and Barratt Brothers. Besides these there were two barber shops, A. L. Williams' coat of office, several real estate offices, and perhaps a score of mining engineers, insurance men and others who had offices in the building.

At the present writing it is not possible to get the exact amount of damage, or the insurance carried, as the parties affected have not yet had time to figure all up, though they may do so by tonight. Barratt Brothers are about the heaviest losers, the damage to their stock being not less than $15,000, and perhaps more, some of the furniture was saved by being carried out into the street, but the most of it was injured in one way or another. Their insurance is about $7,000. Sells & Burton were damaged about $3,000. Fully insured. The loss Howard & Davis is about $3,000; their insurance is $4,000, so they are secured. J. W. Farrell & Co. insured to the extent of $1000, also secured. R. C. Easton's loss will be $2,500, one half insured. He started but recently, the blow is a heavy one on him, and will probably drive him out of the business. The Mirror saloon, A. L. Williams, Auerbach & Bro., Kahn Brothers and the others have a condition of loss in aggregate, a portion of which only is covered by insurance.

Altogether the damage will fall but little, if any, short of $50,000, with about half that amount of insurance.

Sunday School Interests.

Last evening a meeting was held in the Eighth Ward Assembly Rooms, in the special interests of the Sunday School. Elder John G. Smith was the first speaker. He spoke upon the necessity of making the right kind of impressions upon the minds of the children of the Saints while they are of tender age. Elder John G. Smith followed, with an address upon "How to conduct a Sunday School."

Miss Sarah McMurrin's class, composed of ten little girls, aged from six to eight years, gave in a very creditable manner, scriptural quotations in answer to questions put by their teacher.

Elder John McDonald, Jr., spoke upon the advantages he had derived from attending the Sabbath school.

Mrs. Sheets then sang a selection. Elder Wm. Cowan gave an address, in which he treated of the circumstances under which the children of the Saints are born, and of the reasons why they should attend the Sabbath school.

The meeting closed with singing by the choir and a benediction.

A Specimen.

A Brigham City correspondent, over the initial "M.," draws attention to the fact that George Grabl, of that place, is serving a term in the Penitentiary, under sentence for unlawful cohabitation. He is seventy-six years old and lame from rheumatism. The correspondent asserts that it is understood the case was at one time ignored by the grand jury, but owing to the efforts of a miserable sneak, was afterwards pushed to prosecution. The same writer intimates somewhat broadly that the person who is suspected of having been so eager to have the old gentleman sent to prison is sneaking around the inmates of Father Grabl's plural wife. If this be so he is a fit subject for the penitentiary himself and his passage thereto should be hastened by those on whom the duty in that respect devolves. Father Grabl bears an excellent character in the north.

Dr. Shipp Surrenders Himself.

This morning Dr. M. B. Shipp, who has been in England since 1885, but who recently returned, appeared at Marshal Dyer's office and stated that he understood there was an indictment pending against him for unlawful cohabitation, and he wished to surrender himself and the matter. His understanding proved correct and he was released on giving bonds for his appearance when wanted. The amount of the bond was placed at $1000. The sureties were Alexander McKee and M. S. Woolley. It appears that Dr. Shipp was a subject of the multiplication indictment process, his case having been acted upon according to the continuous system which was smashed by the Supreme Court of the United States. As a matter of course only one of the trio of charges sticks, and the amount of the bond was fixed in accordance with this fact.

During the stay of Elder Shipp in England he had unusual opportunities of reaching the public in the form of lectures he was invited to deliver by temperance people. In these he was permitted to branch off into descriptions of this country and its people, together with their religious peculiarities. He is in excellent health.

Probate Court.

Proceeding in the Salt Lake County Probate Court on Saturday: In the matter of the estate and guardianship of Sarah E. Williamson, incompetent person, and Sarah A. Carmichael, an infant, order made appointing J. R. Walker and Boyd Clark guardians of said persons, upon filing bonds in the sum of $10,000 each. Estate and guardianship of Luke Goughly, a minor; order made appointing him and place for settlement of guardians accounts; order made of sale of real estate. Estate and guardianship of Mabel Barker, et al., minors; order made appointing Samuel Benson, Joseph Barker and Wm. Falster appraisers. Estate of Edward Parry, deceased; order made appointing the situation to hear petition of Owen Parry, Jr., for letters of administration. Estate of A. T. Parry, deceased; order made appointing time and place to hear petition for order of sale of real estate. Estate of Thomas Booth, deceased; bond of Hannah Booth, administratrix, in the sum of $400 filed and approved.

Estate of John Lawson, deceased; order made setting apart homestead for use of the family pending administration, and making the family an allowance of $25 per month until 1st, 1888. The marriage certificate of John Marshall and Agatha Jacobs; Theodore Syprus and Mary C. Graves, were filed with the clerk.

Child Drowned.

On Wednesday, June 13, 1888, about 4:30 p. m., Mrs. Karen Winge, missed her little boy, who had been playing in the door yard. At 5 she went to see what had become of him, when her son, Anton, called to her and said the baby was in the water ditch. She ran about ten rods below the house and found that Anton had taken him from the water, quite dead. The child was a fine boy, aged one year and eight months, and large for his age. Mrs. Winge has the sympathy of the community. She is a widow, and the father is in the penitentiary. The coroner held an inquest on Thursday morning, resulting in the following verdict:

TERRITORY OF UTAH, COUNTY OF CACHE, FREEMONT OF HYEMUM. An inquest held at the residence of Karen Winge, in Hyemum, on the 14th day of June A. D. 1888, before Charles C. Shaw, coroner, upon the body of Norman Winge, there lying dead, the names of whose parents are hereunto subscribed. The said Norman Winge came to his death by being accidentally drowned.

Ogden Items.

Yesterday morning, John Dabb, of Harrisville, brought in a load of hay which he took to Mr. Jos. Tyrell's residence, on the corner of Seventh and Smith streets. While going along the brow of the hill was rather low on one side, and the load tipped over, throwing Mr. Dabb under the hay. His face was cut and scratched and his hand severely sprained. It was thought at first that his arm was broken but fortunately this proved not the case. He was assisted home by some friends who were in the city.

Thursday afternoon, about four o'clock, Mr. Ernest Cowles, a sixteen-year-old son of W. H. Cowles, was coming home from Ogden City, when within one mile from home in Harrisville, Wells County, a pet dog ran out to the road and by its barks frightened the horse so that he became uncontrollable. After going furiously for a half-mile the head-stall strap fell down. The horse stepped on it and stumbled, causing the rider to go to the ground. One foot remained in the stirrup of the saddle. He was dragged a few rods before he was again stepped on the halter strap, this time releasing Mr. Cowles' from his perilous situation. He received some bruises about the head and arm, which he will not recover from, but it will prevent him from laboring for some time to come.

Yesterday, while some workmen were engaged in the shoe establishment of Thomas Ashby in moving an iron leather roller, Mr. James Coleman had his right foot badly smashed. The machine which was being handled weighs about 500 pounds. The full weight came down upon his foot and injured it very severely. He was taken home, and every attention given him. The accident will prevent him from working for some time. He is an old workman at the establishment, and Mr. Ashby will miss the valuable services, especially at this time, as several improvements are being made in his extensive shops. — Ogden Standard, June 7.
