BREVITIES.

Tennessee wants an Inebriate Asylum.

Used up—when it rains—an umbrella.

Disraeli is to be made a Knight of the Garter.

The best stimulant for the hare—the fleet hound.

The Newburg (N. Y.) girls are getting up a boat race.

Napoleon III. is said to be engaged upon his life of Charlemagne.

Bears, driven from the woods by the fire, appear in Canadian villages.

Liverpool is at last allowed to have street railways.

Thaddeus Stevens never tasted wine or liquor.

Crimson umbrellas are the fashion in Berlin.

The richer a man makes his food, the poorer he makes his appetite.

Camphor is concluded to be the best remedy for strychnine poison.

Philadelphia has taken out a patent for wooden shirt bosoms and collars.

The trials of life are the tests which ascertain how much gold is in us.

Sleeve buttons of wood with colored monograms are among the "latest things out."

The wages of the king of the Sandwich Islands is $45,000 a year and found.

The true definition ov a luxury iz something that another feller haint got the stamps to buy.

The St. Louis barbers have resolved to close their shops on Sunday hereafter.

Blessed iz he that alwuz carrys a big stone in hiz hand but never heaves it.

The tenants of New York City have formed a co-operative combination to resist the extortion of landlords.

Six houses in Lancaster city were entered during the funeral of Thaddeus Stevens, and robbed by burglars.

Dr. Vermilye, of New York is the wealthiest clergyman in the United States.

Sardines are so plentiful in Spain this year that they are used as a fertilizer of the soil.

A fossil elephant has been dug up at Easton, Md. Many portions are nearly perfect, including a tusk eight feet long.

The New York Herald says, by way of a joke on the leg drama, that a great many people have fallen down and worshipped the fatted calf.

Baron Napier, the hero of Magdala, shocks the more refined English sensibilities by eating raw beef hash. He insists that it is healthy.

A swarm of bees gathered on a lamp-post on Broad street, Boston, recently, and was captured by the merchant to whose door they came.

Feeing Baptist ministers for performing the sacrament of baptism is the newest thing in Philadelphia. A clergyman lately had a fifty-dollar greenback for a service of this kind.

An English reporter, describing the appearance of Mr. Jefferson Davis and family, who arrived in England at the commencement of the month, says that Mrs. Davis looked as if she had a "dash of mulatto blood" in her, and her children looked as if they had the same.

The number of threshing machines in the country is set down at 235,000, and it is estimated that they save five per cent. more of the grain than the flail. This would save to the country more than 19,000,000 bushels of grain, worth at least $30,000,000.

An American student at Heidelberg rather astonished the German youth there by accepting a challenge and choosing pistols. Their ridiculous sword fights were too small play for him. He shot his antagonist dead, and since then Americans are allowed to study in peace.

A young and prepossessing girl sleeps in an unclaimed coffin at the Chattanooga depot, and if taken from thence to the lock up, returns to the uninviting quarters the next night. She is now allowed to occupy her dismal bedroom, and is rarely disturbed by officers of the depot.

One of the largest and finest boot and shoe factories outside of New England is at Rochester. About five years ago the proprietor began business with a force of ten men; he now employs 300, and will soon increase this number to 400. The factory is of brick, 100 feet by 90 feet, and five stories high. It is furnished with the best machinery, which is driven by water power. The present product is 1,000 pairs of ladies' and gentlemen's boots per day.

The Natal (South Africa) Mercury gives a horrible account of the slave trade carried on by the Boers of the Transvaal Republic. The Boers make expeditions against the native tribes, kill the adults, and carry off the children into slavery. The Rev. Mr. Ludorf, an old Dutch minister, stated in a public meeting of the Boers that on one occasion, near Zoutspanberg, a number of native children, too young to be removed were covered with long grass and burned alive," and no one contradicted him. The London Spectator says: The British Government is determined to protect the Basutos against these raids, and the Boers have sent envoys to Europe to protest against its conduct, and procure aid for the Republic. They ought to obtain a hearty reception from the gentlemen who adhered to the South, and subscribed to the Eyre Defence Fund."
