DESERTED BY FICKLE LOVER.

Idaho Girl Came to Ogden to Marry Gay Lothario Who Forsakes Her.

REMAINS OF RUSSELL CLAYTON

Coming Home for Burial—A. O. U. W. Sued for Insurance—Ed. Holmes Held for Assault.

Ogden, Utah, July 12.—A young lady who claims Mountainhome to be her place of residence, is lamenting the loss of a lover, money and a return ticket to Shoshone, Idaho. The story told by the girl is that about a year ago she met a young man named Mike Higgins, a bartender, of winsome ways and style. Their friendship soon increased to love and the girl promised to marry him. Last week he wrote her to come to Ogden and they would wed. The young lady arrived in Ogden Sunday morning and was met at the depot by Higgins, who took her to breakfast and then to the Healy hotel and the young woman repaired to her room to prepare for the wedding. When she went down Higgins had gone, and she was left alone. She went to the Healy hotel and found a note pinned to her door, telling her to go to the depot and get a ticket to Shoshone. She did so, but found no one there. She then went to the depot and found a note pinned to her door, telling her to go to the depot and get a ticket to Shoshone. She did so, but found no one there. She then went to the depot and found a note pinned to her door, telling her to go to the depot and get a ticket to Shoshone. She did so, but found no one there.

BROUGHT HOME FOR BURIAL. Body of Russell Clayton Will Arrive Thursday from California.

Frank Clayton will arrive in Ogden Thursday morning from California with the remains of his brother Russell Clayton. A telegram received last evening by Mrs. Thomas Feeny stated these facts, but did not state what the cause of death was. A week ago Mr. Frank Clayton of Ogden received a telegram from California informing him that a young man supposed to be his brother was dead at Martinez, Mr. Clayton immediately left Ogden for California, there being a doubt as to whether it was Russell or not, but the message last evening confirmed the report. The body will be taken to the home of Mrs. Feeny, 2560 Orchard avenue, where the funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 o'clock. Interment will take place in the Ogden City cemetery.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT. Mrs. Matilda Johnson Sues A. O. U. W. for Insurance.

The case of Matilda Johnson against the A. O. U. W. lodge to recover $2,000 on a life insurance policy held by her husband who died about a year ago, is on trial. The plaintiff contends that Mr. Johnson took out the policy for good faith and paid up his dues until he was taken sick about four months before he died, and it was agreed with the lodge that it would carry him until he recovered, but as he died the premiums were not paid, hence the lodge refused to pay the insurance money. The defendant moved the court for peremptory instructions to the jury.

ELECTORS FAVOR BONDS

For Waterworks Extension and Lighting Plant—Parade for the Twenty-Fourth.

Provo, Utah, July 12.—The bond election held yesterday to determine whether the city should issue municipal bonds for $20,000 to be used for the completion of the waterworks system and the purchase of the Provo Electric company's distributing plant and the erection of an electric power plant to supply the electricity for lighting the city, resulted in a vote favoring the bond issue of $20,000 to $21,000. The vote by voting districts is as follows:

No. 1—29 for, 21 against; No. 2—45 for, 31 against; No. 3—35 for, 19 against; No. 4—31 for, 26 against; No. 5—42 for, 28 against; No. 6—55 for, 28 against; No. 7—41 for, 21 against; No. 8—30 for, 24 against. Total for, 331; against, 211; majority for, 120.

The election was the outgrowth of a meeting called by Mayor Roylance some six weeks ago in which the question of bonding for the completion of the waterworks system and the purchase of the Provo Electric company's distributing plant was discussed, and the discussion was practically unanimous for an election to give the people an opportunity to decide the question.

The last two weeks, the question has been quite generally discussed, Mayor Roylance and those favoring the bonding laying special stress upon the opportunity now presented to the city to purchase the distributing system of

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much as it is to love the beautiful and pure. The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger. This great and wonderful remedy is always applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the trying crisis without suffering.
