To Attend Bankers' Convention-A C. Sullivan, assistant cashier of the Salt Lake Security & Trust company, left Saturday for Denver to attend the bankers' convention.

Back from Europe—Walter Lund, son of President C. N. Lund of North Sanpete stake, returned Saturday from a pleasant trip to Copenhagen, where he visited with relatives and friends. Mr. Lund left Utah Aug. 6 last for Europe

Arrival of First Son—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Huhl of 48 Quince street, are rejoicing over the arrival at their home of a baby boy, who made his ap-pearance at $:30 hast evening. This is the first boy in the family, three girls having previously blessed the house-hold.

Will Attend Father's Funcral-Mas-ter John Cluss Pawlos left Saturday night in company with his grand-father, W. W. Cluss, for Billings, Mont, where he will attend the funcral of his father, John Pawlos, who was killed in the railroad wreck near that city recently. city recently.

Home for Eureka Elks-The Eureka Files are about to erect a three-story brick and stone building, 60x100 feet, to cost $25,000. The first floor will be used for business purposes, the second ns a hotel and the third by the Elks for lodge purposes. Watkins & Birch of this city are the architects.

Stocking State Streams-State Fish stocking state streams—state rish and Game Commissioner H. B. Cromar has shipped 15,000 trout fry to Ogden to be placed in the Ogden river, 10,000 to Toocle and 10,000 to Davis county to stock local streams. The fry were all native trout, which are now large enough to send out from the Murray batchew. hatchery.

Two More Delegates Named-Gov Two More Delegates Named—Gov. Cutler has announced the appointment of James H. Moyle and J. J. Devereaux of Salt Lake as delegates to the Na-tional Irrigation congress at Albu-querque, N. M. These gentlemen are named in place of two already appoint-ed who have found it impossible to at-tend the sessions of the congress

New Fire Horses—Firemen at head-quarters and at station No. 4 will be kept busy for a couple of weeks train-ing the four new horses recently pur-chased for the department by Chief Giore and Capt. Ayland. The animals are fine ones and should prove valuable for the fire fighting service. One team will be at No. 4 and the other at head-quarters. Chief Giore is now looking for another team.

for another team. Big Realty Deal—A deal was closed Saturday evening, by which the Sears investiment company of this city be-came possessed of 40 acres of land at Fifteenth South and Seventh East streets, for $30,000. It is the intention of the company to invest $75,000 there in the establishment of a summer re--sort, to which point the street railway will be extended one and a half miles south of Wandamere. There are five lakes on the property, and the location generally is attractive. Eleven Companies March Away—

John Potter, who resided with his wife and two children at 218 west Twelfth South street, was almost instantly killed Saturday evening by beng run over by a car on the Murray line. The accident happened at Eleventh South, and was caused by the fact that the rear trucks of the car failed to follow the front wheels when a to follow the front wheels when a switch was reached. Mr. Potter was returning home from a shopping tour up town, and was standing on the front platform, with several bundles in his arms. The sud-den and peculiar lurch of the car threw him from his place and he fell squarely across the track and directly in front of the reachedivant wheels Some of the of the recalcitrant wheels. Some of the passengers say the unfortunate man was heard to make an outcry, while others say that he must have died inothers say that he must have died in-stantly. It required a wrecking crew to lift the great load resting upon the body. The remains were taken to Evans' undertaking establishment. The car was in charge of Conductor W. H. Summerhays and Motorman W. L. Brown. Neither appeared to be in the least responsible for the accident.

Potter was a laboring man, and his youngest child is but a week old. GAMBLING

Mulligan, a for-mer resident of Salt Lake and a Pull-man conductor, is lying in jail at that place charged with battery. It seems that after choking his wife Sunday until she was unconscious he attempt-ed to adduct his 10-year-old boy. Be-fore he could make away with the lad, however, he was captured by two men and roughly handled. Mulligan made all possible overtures to his son who, however, declared that he wished to semain with his mother. Mulligan was unable to furnish ball. Returns from Idaho Town—Mrs. E.

Returns from Idaho Town—Mrs. E. E. Shepard, president of the Utah W. C. T. U., returned last evening from an Idaho lecture tour in the interest of temperance. During the month of her absence, she spoke daily, sometimes in tents, where there was no hall available. Mrs. Shepard met with marked success at Gooding, a town named aft-er the governor. The people there as-sured her that no saloon would ever be permitted to open up in the town. At Bolse, Mrs. Shepard addressed the county institute of school feachers and before returning to Salt Lake, spoke in Ogden on "The Saloon's Debt to Ruined Homes."

Lake street, and is composed of father, mother and two daughters. Satur-day evening about 8 o'clock while the members were chatting together, there came a gentle tap at a window. Thinking that it was a neighbor, Mrs. Merrill went to the door and upon opening it saw a basket lying at her feet. Peering under the covering she espied a babe, fast asleep and grasping a bottle. Mr. Merrill and the girls quickly called to share in the

Upon neighbors learning of the incident, one? Mrs. Joseph Walk, said that she had observed a carriage drive to the corner of Eight East and Belmont avenue where it stopped and a woman alighted. She carried a basket and proceeded westward to the Merrill home, on the corner of Belmont and Lake streets. She laid the basket at the door, stepped to a nearby window and tapped upon it, and then receded into the shadow of a tree, where she remained until the precious charge had been carried into the lfouse.
