NON PARTISAN TICKET NAMED.

Citizens of Salt Lake in Mass Conventions Make Nominations.

MEETINGS WERE HARMONIOUS.

The Nominees Were Selected on a Basis of Personal Merit Rather Than Party Affiliation.

The following men were nominated last night at non-partisan mass conventions as candidates for the school board, to come up for election Dec. 7. against competitors to be chosen by the "American" party Wednesday evening at the Grand theater:

First Precinct-C. S. Martin. Second Precinct-A. G. Giauque. Third Precinct-O. W. Moyle,

Fourth Precinct-Mathoninah Thomas, H. C. Edwards.

Fifth Precinct—Dr. G. B. Pfoutz.

It will be gratifying news to the tax payers of Salt Lake City to know that payers of Salt Lake City to know that party advantage has been subordinated to personal worth in selecting candidates to serve on the school board during the next four years. The conventions last night were characterized by harmony, and the single purpose of selecting men of the highest possible personal qualifications, regardless of party or religious affiliations. Three of the six men portunated are now serving the six men nominated are now serving on the board of education. The other three are well known as good citizens and men especially qualified to take charge of the city's school interests.

Of the candidates selected, the three now serving on the board are: Mat Thomas, A. G. Giauque and O. W. Moyle. The election of the ticket means that the policy and complexion of the school board will not change from what it now is.

FIRST PRECINCY.

In the first precinct the candidates for nomination were C. S. Martin and William M. Thompson, Mr. Martin winning on a vote of 138 to 86.

Julian Riley called the meeting to order. After the reading of the call, C. S. Kinney was chosen as permanent chairman. In taking the chair he made a brief speech in which he referred to the pleasure it gave him to realize that both of the national parties had combined in the movement for the good of the schools, in which the issue was the the schools, in which the issue was the man and not party interest. Opposition by the American party and its slanderous, false accusations against the school board management of the past, he characterized as futile in the face of the movement against which it was of the movement against which it was striving for success.

When nominations were called for, Mr. Wm. Thompson was nominated by Clarence E. Christensen, and C. S. Martin by C. W. Symons. In speaking of his candidate, Mr. Christensen spoke earnestly of the necessity of beating the American party for the good of the city schools. He traced the growth of the school system under the present adthe school system under the present ad-ministration, and its predecessors, and expressed the hope that it would con-tinue so. "If Mr. Thompson is the choice of this convention," he said is closing, "the American party will not only be snowed under, but it will be buried so deep it will never be heard of again.

In speaking of Mr. Martin, Mr. Sy-In speaking of Mr. Martin, Mr. Symons, who nominated him, said that his candidate had always had his heart in the work of building up the schools, and would, if nominated, carry the district almost unanimously, serve the people faithfuily, and come as near to snowing under the American party as would any other candidate.

The voting was proceeded with and showed a victory for Mr. Martin. At once Mr. Thompson rose to his feet, and in a brief speech, pledged himself to support Mr. Martin, thanked the voters for their support to him, and moved that the election be made unanimous. The motion carried. Mr. Martin, it was proposed, should name his own campaign committee, but this he declined to do on the grounds that he had not personally sought the nomination, and did not desire to manage the campaign for himself. Joseph F. McKnight was finally selected with power to choose one alde in each of the II districts in the precinct. convention was a long one, and was well attended.

THE SECOND PRECINCT.

In the Second precinct, A. G. Glauque encountered no opposition to renomination. The business of making the nomination was finished within 15 minutes after the call to order, and then Mr. Glauque made a statement in re-gard to recent attacks on the school board and of his personal relationship

Fred Price acted as chairman, and Ben D. Luce as secretary. When nom-inations were called for, Mr. Giauque's name was presented by Jacob Greenwald. A rising vote was held and the candidate nominated by acclamation, there being no contrary vote. As a committee to choose campaign managers Ben D. Luce and Arnold Giauque were

Mr. Giauque was then called to the platform, where he made a statement to his constituents in regard to recent attacks made upon the school board by the Sait Lake Tribune. He said in part: The false statements that have been made public are from an ex-employe of the board of education," said the speaker, "and everyone here knows who the man is. I will say that persons who make such statements are cow-their fellowmen and their children.

"The article which said that the public schools of Sait Lake are growing worse, is false. Our schools are getting better every year, in my capac-I have noticed this. Unbiased strangers have said that the Sait schools are equal to any in the United States. It has pained me to hear that any member of the board of education has been charged with working to the detriment of our schools. "In regard to the charge that I had so harassed ex-Supt. of Schools Cooper that he was compelled to leave and went to Seattle where he received a higher salary, I will say that no one gave him more loyal support than I. My opposition was to his salary. Mr. Cooper was hired by the majority of the members of the board without the minority knowing anything about the matter. His salary was to be $3,000. I objected to this because his predecessor, Dr. Milispaugh, had only received $2,500. We were told that he was a fhan of great experience, and hence worth more money than Dr. Milispaugh. When an attempt was made to roise Mr. Cooper's pay to $3,600, I objected. This is the extent of the persecution he received at my hands."

MOYLE RENOMINATED.

In the third precinct Oscar W. Moyle was nominated to succeed himself, re ceiving on the first ballot 76 of the 133 votes cast. The other two nominees, W. D. Neal and Dr. E. S. Wright received 35 and 22 votes respectively. After the results were announced, the "Best of the good ones."

and G. C. McAllister secretary.

The name of Mr. Moyle was presented by George R. Emery. In making the nominating speech Mr. Emery said that the schools should be kept out of politics, and free from ecclesiastical dictation, and that home talent should be recognized whenever practicable, other things being equal.

things being equal.

Mrs. Alice Merrill. Horne seconded the nomination, in a brief talk in which she referred to Mr. Moyle's record in the school board and his fight against the school board and his fight against book companies and trusts.

Judge Rooth nominated E. S. Wright, and Capt, L. P. Palmer, W. D. Neal, both gentlemen making short speeches regarding the personal ability of their respective candidates.

When balloting were called for Messis, Emery, Palmer, Booth, Howe, and Peterson were selected as tellers. After they had announced the result the convention adjourned.

vention adjourned.
In justic to Mr. Moyle perhaps it is but fair to state that at no time was this gentleman a candidate for renation. It was simply thrust upon him by his friends, who insisted that he continue as a member of the school board from the Third precinct. TWO NAMES IN THE FOURTH,

Two Names in the Fourth.

The Fourth precinct had two nominees to name. For the long term Mat Tho $\mathbb{x}$-as was chosen by a large majority, receiving 87 of the 120 votes cast. The remaining 38 went for Glen Miller. For the short term, Harry C. Edwards was nominated by acclimation.

The convention was called to order by James Devine, and David Affleck was needed as secretary.

was named as secretary.

When nominations were asked for, Glen Miller was placed before the convention by John E. Hansen, and Mat. was decided to vote by ballot. As tellers, R. R. Anderson, F. Olsen, E. L. Murdock, John E. Hansen and Scott Anderson were named. The count was announced as $7 for Thomas, and 38

For the short term Harry Joseph named Harry C. Edwards, who declined to be a candidate. After some discussion he was again nominated by John E. Hansen, and agreed to accept the nomination. He vas chosen by a unanimous vote. The convention closed after numerous brief speeches from the floor. THE FIFTH NAMES PROUTZ.

The Fifth precinct consumed but litle time in selecting a candidate. Dr. Pfoutz was the unanimous choice, and received the nomination by acclamation As a committee to manage the campaign E. D. R. Thompson, Secy. W. Arnup, Judge Henderson and W. A. Nelden were appointed. It was decided to have two polling places, one in the Thirteenth ward meetinghouse, and one Eleventh ward meetinghouse Before adjournment a vote of thanks was extended to W. A. Nelden, the retiring member of the board, for his faithful work.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Exercises at L. D. S. University is Memory of Late Rudger R. Clawson.

Yesterday at the Latter-day Saints' university memorial services were held in honor of Rudger R. Clawson, son of Apostle and Lydia Spencer Clawson, whose untimely death at the beginning of a promising career occurred Friday last. In the services the whole school participated. They were characterized by remarks from old friends and classmates, indicating the high esteem in which the young man was held, and were presided over by President J. H.

At the time of his death the young man was a student in the business de-partment of the university. He was but 20 years of age, and prior to the attack of typhoid he had been feeling ill from the results of overstudy.

funeral services Sunday last in the Eighteenth ward chapel were well attended by the friends and admirers of the young man. Bishop O. F. Whit-ney presided, and short speeches, appropriate to the occasion, were delivered by B. S. Hinckley, Angus M. Cannon, J. H. Paul of the Latter-day Saints' university, Seymour B. Young, John R. Winder and Bishop Whitney. The tribute of President Winder to the upright life led by the young man especially consoling to the bereaved family.

The musical numbers included "Refuge" and "Not Dead But Sleeping" by a quartet composed of George D. Pypes, H. G. Whitney, W. T. Patrick and J. D. Spencer; "O My Father," by Mr. Pyper, and two numbers by the church

At the grave the dedicatory prayer was offered by William Barton, Among the floral tributes were two beautiful offerings from the faculty and students of the Latter-day Saints' university.

Sixteen-Year-Old Charles Robbins Shot Himself Through the Body.

WAS CLEANING A REVOLVER.

Is a Solution to a Mysterious Affair Which Occurred in GardenCity This Morning.

(Special to the "News,") Provo, Nov. 22.-Charles Bobbins fatally shot himself here this morning. As he has been unconscious since the affair he is unable to give any account of how it happened. It is believed, however that the shooting was accidental. At an early hour this morning the family were startled by the report of a shot coming from young Robbin's room, and on investigation found that room, and on investigation found that the boy had shot himself while sitting on his bed. His revolver, which they think he had been cleaning, was lying beside him. Drs. Robinson and Slater, who were hastily summoned, found that the bullet had entered the left side just below the heart, and had lodged somewhere near the left lung. The patient was removed to the Provo General hospital, where he is being cared for, and every effort made to save his life. He is but 16 years old and is the son of William Robbins, who resides in the Third ward. The father was absent at Bingham at the time of the

ANOTHER EMPLOYE FALLS BY WAYSIDE

C. W. Nowell, collector for the Studebaker Wagon company of Salt Lake for the past 18 months was last night arrested in Ogden by Capt. Brown, at the request of Chief Lynch of Sait Lake. The man is wanted on the charge of embezzlement. It is alleged that he has misappropriated funds of the company, and among other things has made out checks payable to himself from the company. Two of these, one for $25 and one for $10 are in possession of the police, and will be used as evidence against him.

The Studebaker people here say that Nowell is an embezzier, as charged, and that his peculations have been going on for some sime? but fast what amount has been taken cannot at present stated, as the company has not yet got hold of his receipts. These will tell the tale. The matter of the checks i mething the management of the company can throw no light on, and which the police will have to develop. Nowe'l is a married man, and lived in Denve court. His wife stated recently that she was going away, and it is not known at this date of writing whether she has left town or not.

M'CLELLAN MAKES A HIT.

Musical Courier Critic Tells How He Played the World's Fair Organ.

(Special to the "News,") Press Building, St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 21 .- John J. McClellan, organist of the "Mormon" Tabernacle at Sait Lake, gave his first recital on the mammoth Festival hall organ this morning at the world's fair and achieved distinct suc-cess. An enthusiastic audience of critical people was thoroughly entertained by one of the most brilliant recitals given during the entire season and gave the artist a welcome that must have been most gratifying to this representative of the Utah musical world. Mr. McClellan's program was well selected both as to the satisfaction of his audience and the display of his varied and unusual talent. A delightful contrast was furnished in the pastorale of Lemare and the chromatic fantasie

Mr. McClellan showed rare taste in his registration and much real talent in his broad style and able musicianhip, which is thoroughly established. His recital of Tuesday will include a

TODAY'S RECITAL.

Under date of this afternoon General Director Whitaker of the Utah world's fair commission telegraphed the "News" as follows: "McClellan's recital today was a great success. Among the musical people present were noted organists, all of whom show ed congratulations upon the Utah artist. Official Organist Galloway was highly delighted, and the Musical Courier crit-said to me at the end of the recital; 'McClellan plays more like Lemare than any other American organist. He has wonderful ability."

"Shepherd's prelude was grandly given, and won much applause and commendation."

CHASED HIS WIFE WITH LARGE KNIFE

Cruelty and desertion are the grounds upon which Margaret Graham asks a divorce from James R. Graham, whom she married at Spokane, Wash., in April, 1903, a little over a year ago. The complaint, which was filed today, alleges that on yesterday defendant without any cause struck and beat her and chased her about the house with a large knife, threatening to kill her. He also told her that he would not support her, and drove her from the house, and has since deserted and abandoned her, The defendant is employed by the Salt Lake Engineering company, and it is alleged that the company now owes him $25 for services. It is asked that a restraining order be issued to prevent him from drawing that money and that on the final hearing of the case she be allowed $35 per month alimony for the support of herself and infant child, and $50 attorneys fees.

CHINAMEN'S POLL TAXES.

So Long Arrested as a Vagrant Because He Would Not Pay.

Ah Waugh, alias So Long, a Chinaman of rather shady reputation, was arrested this morning by Officer Ben Seigfus, on the charge of vagrancy.

It is not alleged that the Mongollan has been "walking the streets at late and unusual hours of the night" nor that he is "an associate of known thieves." So Long was arrested for vagrancy because he refused to pay his poll tax. After being "booked," he promised to pay up if the city would give him two days' time. He was accordingly released on his own recognizance for a couple of days.

The city officials are determined to make a war upon local Chinamen, and compel them to pay their taxes, and it is said that many arrests for vagrancy will follow if they refuse to "dig up."

SAFE CRACKER BEFORE JURY.

It is not very probable that the trial of Jim Riley, the safe cracker, will be concluded today as the state was not through with its case at 2:30 o'clock and the defendant's evidence will have to be submitted after the state rests. Riley is one of the men who made an unsucceasful attempt to crack the safe of the Continental Oil company some time ago and was caught in the act by Thomas Birch, the nightwatchman at the Rio Grande depot. Several shots were exchanged between the burglars and the nightwatchman but they suc-ceeded in making their escape.

Riley was captured the next morning by Sergt. John Hempel and Patrolman Emil Johnson and some very damaging evidence was secured against him. A piace of the lining of his trousers was found by the safe and also the wrapper off of the soap he used on his drills.
