announced that the tabernacle choir would sing at the meetings, but a week previous to the conference, acceded to the request made by the president of the Young Men's Association that the choir be allowed to sing and so announced. He did not refuse to recognize the association choir, as stated in these three papers, and on every material point the statement printed was opposite to what actually occurred. The statement that it was the Stake president of Young Ladies' Association who decided that the association choir should sing the Bishop said was maliciously false, and he interpreted the intent by which it was sought to injure a ward official on such an absolutely unfounded basis.

LEHI.

Will Transport Lime Rock Over Lake—Testing Mother Beets.

Special Correspondence. Lehi, Utah Co., March 19.—Mr. Williams, who has been for the past fifteen years at Long Island Sound in the ship and jetty building business, is here with a view of putting a scow and tug boat on the Utah lake for the purpose of transporting the lime rock from the Utah Sugar Co.'s quarry at Pelican Point across the lake, at which point a small railroad may be built to carry the rock to the factory. Mr. Williams and others will commence sounding the lake, surveying a channel, etc., tomorrow to find out what a boat system will cost. A scow can be built, says Mr. Williams, with a capacity of carrying sixty tons of lime rock that can be operated on a boy's water only 25 feet deep and will cross Utah Lake in one hour. Mr. Williams has had a great deal of experience in this line of business having run a steamer as well as following the business of building boats and jetties for a great many years, and it is his opinion that the rock can be transported to the factory for 25c per ton.

ANOTHER DEDICATORY SERVICE.

The dedication of the residence of Elder R. R. Judd the other evening was a very pleasant affair. There were present: Patriarchs S. J. Woolley, John W. Clark and B. F. Barrus, the ward Bishop, and quite a few relatives and friends. At 7 p. m. the company sat down to a splendid repast, after which the dedicatory prayer was offered by Patriarch Barrus, which was followed by a number of testimonies, and singing the songs of Zion. The valuable instructions given by the Patriarchs was a rich spiritual feast to all present.

A blessing was given by Patriarch Woolley to Brother Judd's little daughter Lillian. This is the third dedicatory service that has been held here and has had a good effect in uniting the hearts of all in the bonds of friendship and brotherly love.

PANGUITCH.

Breaking of a Reservoir Dam Causes Serious Loss.

Special Correspondence. Pangutich, Garfield Co., March 17.—The retaining dam put in at the reservoir at Hatch gave way at 5 o'clock a. m. last Thursday, thereby losing the great quantity of water in one day that they were six weeks in storing. Runners were started down the river in the river for a long time waiting for high water. The dam belonging to the Pangutich roller mill was nearly all taken out, and will cost about $50 to replace it. The masonry at the dam was seriously injured, and will be here in a few days when the work will proceed, and the water held in the future will be in front of a permanent dam.

The Relief Society celebrated here today the 58th anniversary of its organization at the Church institution. Songs, speeches, recitations and feasting was the order of the day.

CIRCLEVILLE.

Want Shares in Pangutich Reservoir—Relief Society Anniversary.

Special Correspondence. Circleville, Plute Co., March 18.—On Friday night last a meeting of the shareholders of the Circleville Irrigation company was held for the purpose of sending a delegation to Pangutich to ascertain whether or not they would allow us to take shares with them and assist in the completion of the reservoir now in course of construction there. The occurrence that caused the people here to feel that the shares may be allowed to come in on the reservoir was the breaking of their dam the other day. Nearly all concur in the opinion that if the reservoir just south of Hatch can be a success, it will mean the financial salvation of the farmers in this region. The committee who will go to Pangutich today are Hon. John H. Fulmer, Heber Wiley and Wm. Lewis.

RELIEF SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY.
