zona Itoms - From a letter lated the 29th ult., from Eider E. W. East, Woodruff, Avizara, Brother James M. Barlow, of This city, we glean a few items of news seerning the condition of affairs in our neighboring Territory. The writer was temporarily stopping at Woodruff, with his family, but as yet had not determined on any lace for permanent settlement, though busily engaged in explor-ing and searching for a desirable location. In company with others > he had gone up the Colorado about 47 miles, to the foot of the White Mountains, nearly opposite the head of the river, and found some fine sections of country, with good soll, fine grames, and plenty of the best water, the Little Colorado at that point being entirely free from salt, soda, sulphur, iron or any other mineral. The climate was about like that of Salt Lake, its beng cold; was the only objection Brother East had to it. Round Valley was also a fine tract of land fast being cultivated, and very convenient to Camp Apachie, a military post.

Another small valley on the Concho was a very desirable place, but was already partly inhabited by Mexicans, or "Greasers," whose proximity was not considered so agreeable. This was the warmest valley the writer had seen except Forest Dale, which was entirely occupied by Latter-day Saints. Fine Irish potatoes, squashes, turalps, beets, etc., etc., had been raised in abundance, by the breth-E. Smith, of the Council of the Twelve Apostles, will preach in the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms success points seed, with a view to planting it also. He feels confident that Arizona will rapidly settle, and advises all who intend going to Ht. George with a team will ing there to go at once, and not put es and House Furniture. We knock do us a favor by calling at this of- it off untit all the best land is takes. Brother East and family are in good health, and at the date f his letter, he was on the eve of an exploring trip to the San Fran-
