Referring to a dispatch December 5, 1874, which is one of the three telegrams not pas-sed upon by the court, and which reads as follows—"Have not heard that anybody has gone or is geing;' General Williams said Babcock order was made, and under it I was to be transferred from Philadelphia to St. Louis, and ordered to report here on Feb. 15th. I visited Washchair, on the Colorado bill. The only changes made by this bill in the enabling act of last March are a provision that all qualified voters under the laws of the territory shall be entitled to vote on ratification or rejection, and a provision appropriating $20,000 to pay the expenses of the constitutional convention. After a loug discussion the committee rose and the bill passed without yeas and nays.

The House then took up, as a special order, the bill to reorganize the judiciary. The report of the judiciary committee do not hesitate to say that any legislation which proposes to relieve the Supreme Court, by improving or destroying the right of appeal, as it existed prior to the act of the last Congress, will be unsatisfactory.
