corroborated Smith's evidence that it was impossible for anyone to hear sounds of cries for help from the lower workroom when at the front windows, but that in the middle room slight sounds could be distinguished.

This testimony is in direct opposition to the Hulls, and it is believed will prove some weight with the jury.

Mrs. Mary Dalmous was recalled to the witness stand and identified a letter written by Walker to his wife. She was asked to read the letter, but Dist. Atty. Halverson objected to the letter being read, and arguments for and against its being read were made by Atty. Hutchinson and the district attorney, but as it was adjournment time, the court took it under advisement.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS HUNTER.

At the West Weber meetinghouse yesterday morning, impressive funeral services were held over the remains of Thomas Hunter, the 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hunter, who died. The attendance of sorrowing relatives and friends was large, and many beautiful flowers were laid on the bier, as silent tokens of love for the departed one.

Bishop Robert McFarland presided at the services. The ward choir sang.
