occurred this morning near Tripp, Dakota, between Russian Mennonites and Americans. A public sale was held at the farm of a Russian named Sink, and an American farmer purchased a dozen chickets. When ready to start home, he found two calckens missing and complained to Sink, who told him to take something of equal value. He caught a goose and a party of eight Russians who claimed the goose as their property. A wrangle ensued that attracted others to the scene, and seon a general fight to the scene, and seen a general fight was in progress, in which some 20 men were engaged, with the Russians as a gressors. Two brothers named Johnson, who were passing, joined in the melce with knives. A Russian named Mayer was stabbed, and he in turn split Charles Johnson's head open with a neck voke inflicting.

The same weapon was brought to bear on George Johnson, and the same knife was brought into play on three Russians, who were wounded seriously but not fatally. The Russians with-drew from the fleid. The wounded Russians were taken care of by friends and nothing of them can be learned The affair has created an excitement in the neighborhood, where a majority

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—The Railway Age tomorrow will say: The railway mile age of the year just past was increased by not less than 7120 miles of main track. While this is much less than the phenomenal mileage for 1881, 1886 and 1887, the record exceeds that of every other year with the exception Kinsas still leads in extent of new mileage, as she has done for several years. California comes next. The most striking characteristic of the ST. Louis, Dec. 27—A special to the Republic from Durango, Colorado, sals: Information reached here at a late hour tonight of a tragedy at Rico on Christmas evening, in which F. E. Rust, editor of the Rico News, short and instantly killed Signor Olsen. It seems that Olsen insuled Rust's sister some time ago, and Rust demanded an apologo, which was refused. On Christmas Eve they met in the Brunswick saloon. Olsen went behind the par to get two revolvers.
