SALT LAKE CITY,

October 17th, 1884. Editor Deseret News:

The time of arrival of the D. & R. G. mail has been changed from 5:20 to 5 p.m. Alta and Bingham Canon mail also arrives at 5 p.m.

Respectfully,

JOHN T. LYNCH, P. M.

Barn Burned .- About seven o'clock last night the barn of Mr. Golding Guiver, of the 21st Ward, took fire and was entirely consumed. The loss is about $500. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been incendiary. The firemen with apparatus were upon the scene as quickly as possible, but owing to the inflammable character of the structure were too late to do more than extinguish the embers.

Wedding .- Last evening at the reidence of Mr. O. D. Hovey, of the 19th Ward, a large assemblage of friends gathered at the wedding reception of Mr. R. G. Collett and Miss Libble Hovey, both of the 19th Ward, on which occasion a general enjoyable time was experienced by all present. While engaged in the merriments of the table the S. S. Union brass band favored the company with several tunes. We join in wishing the young couple a happy wedded life.

Temperance Lectures .- The second of the series by Mr. T. W. Glover was given in the Theatre last night, the attendance being about the same as on the previous evening. Mr. Glover's subject was "What says the Doctor?" in which he dealt in a humorous maner with the medical aspect of the subtect. To-night he will deal with the question of "Local Option," the meetings, however, in consequence of expense, will to-night, to-morrow and Monday be held in the M. E. Church, 3rd South Street.

Seriously Injured. - Night before last Mr. Joseph Graham and wife were riding toward their home in the First Ward, when the horse took fright and ran away. The vehicle struck the street car track in the Tenth Ward and upset, throwing both occupants violently out. Mrs. Graham was very seriously injured internally, so much so, that she was reported as very low to-day. She is being attended by Dr. R. B. Pratt. Mr. Graham was cut and bruised about the lower limbs, but is able to be about with the aid of a cane.

A Horseflesh Incident. - Miller Calwell, a horse dealer, was about the streets vesterday with a mare which he offered for sale. At different places he had the nnimal weighed and then got up a betting bee in relation to the point at which she tipped the beam. This proceeding examerated Sam Clark, another dealer in horseflesh, who accused Calwell of swindling. Clarke retallated with excited remarks, and was rewarded by a blow from Calwell. The latter was before the Police Justice this morning and fined $10 for this in-

Look Out .- A tail, slender young woman named Sarah Jane Turner with a number of aliases is, we are informed by many of her victims, imposing upon different people. On Thursday, she called at the house of a resident of this city and represented that her baby carriage had broken down, and she was unable to proceed to the house of her sick mother unless she could borrow another. The goodhearted lady to whom she told this tale let her have her baby carriage. As the borrower did not make her appearance she hunted for her in vain, but found the carriage in the Nineteenth Ward. When she returned home she discovered that the woman had been there again, in her absence and taken the old carriage she had left there away. She has told the "sick mother" story to many others, and has purloined a great many articles from different in-

The Boss Bear Slayer .- An esteemed correspondent wrote from Scoffeld, Utah, on the 14th inst .:

I believe that F. M. Hiatt, of this place, is entitled to the belt as the champion bear slayer. He was out in the mountains yesterday hunting deer, when he fell in with a family of four grizzly bears. The two cubs were in the act of partaking of their evening meal. Mr. Hiatt fired into the group meal. Mr. Hiatt fired into the group with deadly effect.

The large, ferocious female discovered him and rushed toward him. When she was within adout twenty yards from Mr. Hiatt a well directed shot reached her brain and did its work effectively. The other three each received a shot in the head and lay beside their partner in less time than it takes to tell it.

For calm, deliberate business, steady nerve and good marksmanship this discounts anything I have heard of for a long time. Had Mr. Hiatt given way to nervousness it would undoubtedly have been his "last shot."

RUDGER CLAWSON'S TRIAL. PRESIDENT GEORGE Q. CANNON AS A WITKESS-LILLY CLAWSON AND LYDIA

There was a good attendance of spectators at the District Court this morning, but it was materially less than the crowd of yesterday. A few minutes after the regulation hour of opening the "hear ye, hear ye," of the Court crier was heard, and the assembly having come to order, the trial of the Clawson case was resumed. The the Clawson case was resumed. The Beatie, who was simply required to state what time in December, 1882, the defendant left the employ of Z. C. M.I. He answered that he could tell as far as the pay roll indicated; this was December 31st. Mrs. Auer was asked for but not being present. PRESIDENT GEORGE Q. CANNON was called and being sworn, testified as follows:

Mr. Dickson-Mr. Cannon, you are one of the First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day A.—Yes, sir. Q.—How long have you held that of-fice?

A.—About four years.
Q.—How long have you been a member of the Church? A .- About 45 years Q .- How long have you been a resident of this city?

A.—Thirty-seven years.
Q.—Have you ever officiated, Mr.
Cannon, in the celebration of plural marriages in the Endowment House in this city? A.—I cannot say about plural mar-riages. I have officiated many times in marriages.

Q.—How long since you first offici-ated? A .- Ob, nearly 20 years. Q.—Do you know if any record of marriages celebrated in the Endowment House is kept.

A.—No.
Q.—You have never seen any record?
A.—Nover a record of any names. I have not officiated for many years.
Q.—When you were in the habit of officiating were records kept?
A.—I am inclined to think there were.
Q.—Have you seen them, Mr. Can-

A.—I have not.
Q.—At the time you officiated, the act under which the Church was incorporated required these marriages to be recorded? A .- I do not know. I do not rememor the tenor of the act.
Q.—How long since you officiated in

A.—It is a good many years. I have eccasionally officiated for friends. For instance, a man wanted to be married, and wished me to celebrate the ceremony, I have attended to it. Q.—How recently?
A.—The last was the case of Mr.Riter and Miss Jennings.

-How long ago?
-I cannot speak definitely. It is within two or three years.
Q.—Do you know whether any record was made of that marriage?

A.—I do not.
Q.—Is there any rule or record or book which persons about to enter marriage are required to sign before the ceremony is entered upon? A.-I have never known of naything of the kind.

Q.—Have you ever heard that there was any such?
A.—No, sir.
Q.—Have you ever inquired, Mr.
Cannon, whether a record of this marriage was kept?

A.—I have not.
Q.—Is there any means known to you by which those in authority in the Church can determine whether or not can suggest. I am not familiar with any means.

Q.—If you desired to ascertain that fact in any case, do you know of any means by which you could ascertain?

A.—I do not know except by taking the words of the parties themselves. Q .- Suppose that the alleged married parties were deceased and a question of the legitimacy of the children should arise, do you know of any means by which you can ascertain their legiti-

A.—I do not know of any means. In the case of Mr. Riter and Miss Jen-nings I think they asked me to write them a certificate Q.-Do you know whether it is cus tomary to give certificates.
A.—I think it is not usual.
Q.—Is there no means taken to preserve the names of those who have been married there temporarily or per-A.—When I performed the ceremony it has been the custom with me to write the names on a small slip of paper, so as to enable me in solemnizing the marriage to know the names Q .- From what source do you ge

A.—I have generally written the names as given by the parties.

Q.—What is the object of getting these names? -So as to be correct. Q.—You wished to have the names on your mind when you performed the ceremony. Are these names put on this slip of paper for any other pur A.—Not to my knowledge. Q.—What is done with that slip Generally passed to one side Q.—Not given to any other person? A.—I have not passed it. -Do you know, when you read from the papers, when you perform the ceremony, that there is anybody to take down the names as they are pronounced by the minister?

A-No one in my presence.
Q.-No one to your knowledge?
A.-No, sir.
Q.-Perhaps not in your presence out behind the veil? -Outside the scaling room person could not hear, and no one wrote ames in my presence Q.—Do you after the ceremony is performed destroy the slips of paper?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Do you report the names to any other person?

A.—I never did.
Q.—When parties are going into the Endowment House for any purpose—that is, to celebrate any rite of the Church, or to partake of any sacrament of the Church is the Church in the church in the church in the church is the church in the ch of the Church, is there any book, re-cord or paper in which they are requir-ed to sign their names?

A.—I do not know as to the practice now; I do not know whether there is anything of that kind. I suppose some record would be kept of endowments. O.—Why do you suppose so? A.—I should imagine there should be some record.

Q.—You think there ought to be.
Have you never taken pains to in-Q.—That is the case with all those in authority, as far as you know. A.—I should imagine so. (Laugh-

Q.—If I understand you correctly, in early days when you were in the mable of officiating, a record was kept?

A.—I think so. The record I refer to is for parties who come to receive their endowments; their names I presume would be taken.

Q.—I am not informed as to what you mean by receiving their endowments?

or ceremonies. Endowine connection with marriage.

authorized; but I do not think, unless it be in the case of Mr. Riter, of whom I have spoken, I have solemuized any marriages. Q.—Who else solemnized marriages during 1883?

A.—I think Mr. Taylor.

Q.—Anybody else to your knowledge?

A.—I suppose any of the Twelve have the right to solemnize marriages.

Q.—You say they have the right to solemnize plural marriages?

A.—I do not know of any distinction. Formerly the Apostles were the ones who attended to these marriages, but latterly a great many others have been authorized.

A.—Technically it ought to be.
Q.—Well, are the Bishops authorized to celebrate marriages in the Endowment House as well as elsewhere? Q.—Does it require a special author ity to celebrate marriages in the En-dowment House?

A .- I do not know that it does. If they officiate there, they probably at-tend to marriages as well as to other Q.—Do you know any of the Bistiop in the city that are authorized? A.-I do not know any person who worked in the Endowment House in 1883. I expect I could probably form an idea; but from any knowledge I do not know anybody laboring in the En-downent House.

SUSAN E. SMITH Testified. I live in the city on West Temple Street, opposite Temple Block; have seen defendant and know Lydia have seen defendant and know Lydia Spencer; have seen him at my house since last May; Lydia occupied rooms there from June last till 8, or 10 days ago; don't know where she is, she did not give up her rooms when she left; she had two rooms, a kitchen and bedroom; I saw defendant in the bedroom, which was also the sitting room; it was about midday; I think, did not see him come in or leave; don't remember seeing his picture there, never had any conversation with him.

FREDERICK CLAWSON Am brother to the defendant; have known Lydia Spencer for about 5 years; have visited defendant at his house in the 18th Ward; met his wife there (Florence); have seen defendant and Lydia together on the streets and once or twice at the Theatre; it may have been this year; never spoke to defend-ant about his relationship with Lydia, nor heard anyone else in his presence speak of it; my mother's name is Margaret G.; don't know where she is; she left home yesterday; am not a member of the 18th Ward M. I. Association, nor a resident of that Ward; have visited the Association but never saw Lydia there.

MARY J. S. AUER

was recalled. She merely stated that she could not tell the names of the tenants of her house on Third South Street where Lydis once lived; they were Germans; know nothing further of my daughter since yesterday.

JAMES E. CANE, recalled for the defense, was asked to repeat the conversation he claimed to have had with the defendant in which the latter is alleged to have admitted He repeated his former state was present at the time, and answered that he could not say whether there was then asked if anyone was present when his second conversation with the defendant (about the first one) took place, and said he thought Orson Rogers was, and perhaps others. He volunteered having said to the defendand at this time, when the doubt was referred to. "I don't care aldamn, if I am asked I'll have to tell the truth."
Mr. Bennett.—"Is it not true that when the defendant said there was a 'doubt'' as to what was said by him in your first conversation, that you replied: "Well, by Jove, I don't know what you did say?"

Witness-"It is not true." said: I am a member of the "Mor-mon" Church, I am a Bishop in the Church, in the 18th Ward. I have been Bishop of that Ward since 1878. I do Bishop of that Ward since 1878. I do not know definitely whether the defendant was a resident of that Ward in 1882 and 1883. I had been absent for twenty-one months in England. Robert Patrick, my first counselor, acted as Bishop during my absence. I returned in July, 1883. I have been a member of the 18th Ward Mutual Improvement Association. I attended, pernans two or three meetings during pernaps two or three meetings during the months of February, March and April of this year. I know Lydia Spencer by sight. I do not know that she was a member of that association. I never met her there. I have known the defendant from childhood, almost. Been on friendly terms with him always. Have met him frequently of late years. I have never had any con-versations with him as to his marital relations that I know of. Never re-member to have alluded to it in his presence. Never heard it alluded to by any one else in his presence. R. BERT PATRICK was the next witness. I live in the city: was the next witness. I live in the city; have resided in the 18th ward 20 years; am an Elder in the Church; acted as Bishop during Bishop Whitney's ab-sence in England, this was nearly two years; know the defendant by sight; could not say he resided in the ward could not say he resided in the ward then; he never spoke to me about a marriage with Lydia Spencer, nor applied to me tor a permit to get married; was a member of the 18th ward Mutual Improvement Association in January, February and March last; do not know Lydia Spencer, and never saw her there that I know of; saw defendant there once, I think.

JULIETTE CROXALL that is, to celebrate any rite of the Church, or to partake of any sacrament of the Church, is there any book, record or paper in which they are required to sign their names?

A.—I never knew of any.

Q.—Is there any case in which the names are required to be written on a roll.

> HORACE G. WHITNEY. I know the defendant; have resided I know the defendant; have resided in the city all my life; am intimate with the Clawson family; don't know any lady named Lily Clawson; was a member of the Eighteenth Ward M. I. Association last winter; it met once a week in the evening; know Lydia Spencer by sight; am not positive, but think I have seen her once at the Association; same as to the detive, but think I have seen her once at the Association: same as to the defendant; heard the name Lilly Clawson called from the roll; inferred it was Lydia Spencer that was meant because it had been rumored she was defendant's second wife; this was only rumor, however; never heard her respond to the name called; but understoog she had joined the society; never heard Lydia Spencer spoken of as Lilly Clawson, or Lydia Clawson, or Lib Clawson, or Lydia Clawson, or Lib Clawson, or Mrs. Clawson.
> The defense objected to this evidence from where the witness said he inferred the name Lilly Clawson meant Lydia Spencer, including all that he inferred and that was rumored and everything based upon the inference. A discussion of some length ensued spid the evidence was ruled out. The witness want on: I did not know that the name Lilly University care chills and lever.

A Venatious Proceeding.—Following is the body of an indictment found against Officer Thomas F. Thomas, for alleged assault upon the person of that record?

A.—I do not.

A.—Perhaps I did. I wish you to understand that I have not officiated in the Endowment House for a great many years. It is, I suppose, fully different years since.
