GOVERNOR MURRAY MOUNTS

HIS HOBBY AGAIN. ed to fill the position. Governor Mur-ray offered dilatory objections in order to delay the appointment, all of which were met by overrolling around the Bible sense. decisions of the Board. The Governor then called the chairman aside and innated that he wanted to make the appointment by virtue of his office as Governor of the Territory.

The obstacles placed in the way of 'Dr. - Pike's election were thus disclosed and the in the gubernatoral cocos - nut was drawn into full view. The Governor's effect that the office being a territorial office was subject to the appointment of the Governor, and not within the province of the Board of Directors The election, however, proceeded, and Dr. Walter R. Pike was duly elected Medical Superintendent by unani mous vote, Governor Murray, at his own in the Bible by which we learn divine request, being ex cused from voting. Governor Murray's position on this question is, to say the least, a singular one. It will be remembered that at ness" and other good purposes, "the the last session of the Legislature he letter killeth, and it is "the spirit that would not sign a bill with an appropriation for the University of Descret because he did not have the appointage as no person is truly a Christian who as no person is truly a Christian who because he did not have the appoint-ment of its officers, claiming that they were territorial officers and therefore must be nominated by the Governor the Rible and obtain and appointed with the consent of the lative Council.
