LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 49 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day.—Clear.

Missionaries.—Elders James E. Malin, Robert Ellwood, Lewis Booth and Russell Rodgers reached Omaha last Thursday, all well. The first two named, purpose leaving that point for Chicago the following day. The others intend stopping over in Nebraska a few days before proceeding south.

The Last Portrait.—Brother N. Lamen is the authorized agent for the sale of Mr. Savage's very fine photographic portrait of the late President Brigham Young. It was the last taken of him, is clear and life-like, and is an appropriate memento of the departed great man. It is sold in a neat oval frame, at $1.50.

In Pennsylvania.—By letter from Elder Thomas Jones, we learn that he arrived at Hyde Park, Penn., on the 7th inst., and was busily engaged in the work of the ministry. He had asked permission to preach in a chapel in that town, but his request was refused. He says the branch of the church in that place is in good condition, and he is kept constantly busy in answering inquiries about Utah and the gospel. Elder Jones would be pleased to receive from people in Utah the addresses of friends in Pennsylvania. Direct to him in care of E. Howell, Box 618, Hyde Park, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania.

Returned Missionary.—This morning we received a call from Elder John D. L. Pierce, of St. George, who returned last evening from a mission to Mississippi. He labored in Hattam, Prentiss and Lee Counties of that State. He left here on the 6th of June last, and has been quite successful in his labors. One person, James Duke, accompanied him here from Mississippi. A company of Saints from there will be here in about three weeks, Elder Pierce having come on ahead to make arrangements about teams and wagons to enable them to proceed to the southern part of the Territory, where they intend to locate. The party will number about fifteen persons.

Elder Pierce enjoyed his labors greatly, and returns in good health and spirits.

Sandwich Islands.—We have seen a letter from Elder Henry P. Richards, now on the Sandwich Islands, to Brother R. G. Lambert, of this city.

A conference was held at Lale, on the 6th of October, at which the Elders received appointments to their fields of labor, as follows:

Elders Woodbury and Apua to travel and labor upon the Islands of Oahu and Kauai; Elders Gates and Kimball upon the Islands of Hawaii; Elders Richards and Kalawa upon the Islands of Maui, Molokai and Lanai. Elders Molen and Keeler will assist President Pack on the plantation.

Elder Richards succeeded in obtaining from the Minister of the Interior, a license, as a religious minister, to solemnize marriages. He also received a promise that other Elders would obtain similar documents. This is the first instance of an Elder of the Church obtaining this authority on the Sandwich Islands.

On the 31st of Oct., Elder Richards had a very pleasant interview, at Honolulu, with their Majesties Kalkana and Kapioian, by whom he was received and treated with the utmost courtesy, at Iolani Palace. He presented a copy of the Book of Mormon to the Queen, which she graciously received.

Harper's for December.—Harper's Magazine for December fully maintains the leading position which this periodical holds, both as to literary and artistic excellence. Readers will find of all turn to Longfellow's poem, "Keramos," beautifully illustrated by Abbey and Fredericks.

The number opens with Milton's "Hymn on the Nativity," with seven effective illustrations by Fredericks.

Miss Spofford contributes a paper, beautifully illustrated, on "Ethiopian and later English Furniture."

Mr. William H. Rideling contributes a paper on the "Metropolitan Newspaper," which is embellished by seven illustrations, including portraits of prominent New York editors.

"Many leaves and few grapes" is an Italian Christmas story, by Virginia W. Johnson, with two striking illustrations by Abbey.

Miss Thackeray begins a new story, "Da Capo," and Edward Everett Hale's story, "Back to Back," is concluded. There are also six short stories: "The Man in the Cage," by Rebecca Harding Davis; "The Daily Advertiser," by H. E. Souder; "My Uncle's Heirloom," by Charles DeKay; "Master Robby's Romance," by Henrietta H. Holdich; "Was it Love or Blindness?" by the author of "The Children of the Coach."

M. D. Conway contributes an entertaining description of his visit to Jamarah's the London man who supplies the zoological gardens of Europe with animals.

The Priesthood.

Last evening at seven o'clock, President A. M. Cannon and Counselors, met with the Elders, Priests, Teachers and Deacons of the Eleventh and Twelfth Wards, when the following quorums were organized:

An Elders' Quorum, composed of the Elders in the two wards named above, with John Coulam President and Horace Cummings and Edw. J. Liddle Counselors.

Two Deacons' Quorums in each ward, with the following brethren as the presidency:

James M. Hoggan, President of the first Quorum of Deacons in the Eleventh Ward; James Oswald and Joseph Henry Coult, Counselors.

Phillip W. Tuckett, President of the second Quorum of Deacons in the Eleventh Ward; W. S. M. Bean and W. O. Young, Counselors.

S. W. Jenkinson, President of the first Quorum of Deacons in the Twelfth Ward; Thomas A. Willan and George D. Pyper, Counselors.

Jesse W. Hardy, President of the second Quorum of Deacons in the Twelfth Ward; John W. Clawson and John Burns, Counselors.

The above brethren were unanimously sustained in the positions named, and were all set apart excepting one who was absent.

The Presidency of the Stake will meet with the Elders and Lesser Priesthood of the Thirteenth and Eighteenth Wards, this evening, at seven o'clock, for the purpose of organizing the above Quorums in those wards.

Commendable.—A year ago, by advice of the late President B. Young, a number of the ladies of Utah engaged in the commendable work of accumulating and storing breadstuffs, as provision against a probable day of scarcity and need. The energy displayed by the ladies in this direction is indicated by the result attained. We stated yesterday the amount of breadstuffs that had been gathered and stored, being, if the flour, cash and merchandise on hand are included, equal to between eleven and twelve thousand bushels of wheat. This statement is aside from quantities that are stored in places from which reports had not been received by the central committee on the grain subject.

This excellent result has been reached without interference with the other public duties of the ladies as officers and members of the various Relief Societies.

The ladies purpose prosecuting their labors in collecting and storing grain, and their successes during the first year of their operations in this line justifies the expectation that the accumulation will be proportionately greater during the next. Success to their labors.

Lecture.—On Thursday evening, at the 7th Ward new Meeting-house, Elder Richard G. Lambert will deliver a lecture on "The Sandwich Islands," from which part of the world he recently returned having been there on a mission for several years. The Seventh Ward string band will supply instrumental music on the occasion, and it is expected that some Kanaka residents of this city will be present, and sing in their native tongue. The price of admission will be 25 cents, the proceeds to be applied to the Meeting-house fund.

The Sun Worshippers.—"The Sun Worshippers of Asia" is a neat little volume published by A. Roman & Co., San Francisco. The author is Charles D. Poston, and the materials for the work were collected during an official visit to India, China, Japan and contiguous countries. It is a concise and instructive epitome of the faith, customs and ceremonies of the Parsees, and is exceedingly interesting. It can be obtained of the publishers for 75 cents.

District Court.—Tuesday, November 20th. Snell Brothers vs. Samuel Slife; on motion of plaintiff's attorneys, ordered that the said cause and the papers be transmitted to the judges court, and that the latter proceed with the trial; the papers having been improperly certified by said judge.

William Ford vs. R. T. Burton; the case tried before the court; findings in favor of the defendant, with costs.

Utah Northern.—The Ogden Junction states that the track of the Utah Northern Railroad extension was completed a distance of ten miles beyond Franklin last Thursday. Two hundred teams and three hundred men are at work on the line, and it is intended to complete the track to a point where the most difficult of the work commences, before progress is stopped by bad weather.

Departed.—This morning Dr. H. Swaine died in this city, of typhoid pneumonia. On Thursday the remains will be shipped to Toledo, Ohio, to the relatives of the deceased. The doctor was a prominent mining man in this Territory.

First.—Mr. John Liddell has received the first supply for the season of fine "Hannan haddies."

COMMUNICATIO.
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 16, 1877.

To the Superintendents and Teachers of Sabbath Schools:

Some time ago the officers of the Sunday School Union were frequently appealed to by those interested in Sabbath Schools, to introduce for their children to sing, something more compatible with the principles of our faith, than could be found in the published song books imported from the East.

In accordance with these wishes, a polite and pressing invitation was extended to our friends versed in poetry and music to furnish contributions. Many have responded from different parts of the Territory and some of their productions have been published on cards, each card containing two songs, at the low price of $1.50 per hundred cards.

Six cards have been printed, and are on hand for sale. Many schools have enjoyed the benefit of their use ever since their first introduction.

They are published in this form to encourage content singing, instead of singing in a book form. The Union simply proposes to cater for the wants of the schools throughout the Territory, and depend entirely upon the kind and prompt co-operation of the Superintendents and Teachers of every Sabbath School of Latter-day Saints.

A simple method of raising means for their purchase, and controlling them in the schools is the following: For each teacher to supply his or her own class with them, and take charge of them. This plan will prevent the trouble before singing, and the cost to every teacher will not exceed ten cents for each class of cards, because one card is sufficient for two scholars, and in a class of ten children five will be enough, and one for the teacher, making the outlay only ten cents. We cordially invite the County Superintendents, also to use their influence in diffusing a musical element in our Sabbath Schools, that all the children may be taught to take part in the exercises. Good singing is a very attractive feature, and also a very enjoyable part of worship by both old and young.

A good Sunday School well and ably conducted in any city or settlement, is an institution that the President of every Stake and every Bishop have cause to be proud of, and thankful for, and an occasional visit by each to their respective schools, with a smiling countenance and a few words of cheer and encouragement to both children, teachers and superintendent, have a magical and soul inspiring effect.

We wish every Stake in Zion well represented on these cards, by the power of their music, and therefore cordially invite contributions to be forwarded. Let every teacher, superintendent, local and county, Bishop and Stake President, all feel interested in having these musical cards introduced in every school, by sending their orders, accompanied with the cash, to

GEORGE GODDARD, Ass't Gen'l Supt. D. S. S. Union.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Artillery Match.
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 16, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

Dear Brother,—Noticing in your issue of this evening, a shooting match likely to occur between Salt Lake City and Denver clubs, communicating by telegraph, I thought it would be interesting to recount to you for the benefit of the public, a novel shooting match that occurred between two brigades of Royal Artillery in 1859, stationed respectively at Malta and Gibraltar, 1,100 miles. The strength of each brigade, 500 non-commissioned officers and gunners; the shooting to take place with sixty-eight pounders on traversing platforms. The object to be fired was a barrel, anchored in the bay, of which there were three at about three miles range, corresponding with the quarter circle that the guns had to traverse each time. These guns are manned by nine gunners, for each battery of which there are eight in a brigade picked out, their best gunners for quickness in loading, traversing and pointing. Then the best detachment from each were matched against each other, and the smartest were matched against the smartest brigade.

Quick time with these guns generally averages three rounds in two minutes. At the match the Gibraltar detachment knocked to pieces two barrels in ten rounds, and in time one minute twenty-five seconds for three rounds. The Malta detachment broke one barrel, time one minute and thirty-five seconds for three rounds. Such time was unprecedented for accurate firing, in the annals of artillery practice.

Yours fraternally,
CLAYTON W. CARTER, Late battery sergeant, major Royal Battery, Gibraltar, now photographer, Salt Lake City.
