> The NINTH VOLUME of the CONTRIBUTOR commences with the Novem er number, and will present to its readers a variety of ORIGINAL HOME LIT ERATURE unsurpassed by any previous volume. The leading historical series will be a carefully prepared History of the Nouvoo Legion, by Lieut. Richard W. Young, U. S. A. This military history of our people will include an account of the origin of the Legion, its services in Nauvoo, in the early days of Utah, during the Echo Canyon War, and the Indian troubles; its famous musers and drills, collisions with Federal authorities, disbandment and final recal of its charter by act of Congress. Numerous and costly engravings of its onspicaous officers will adorn the volume. In addition to which we have had a elegant portrait made of LIEUT.-GENL. JOSEPH SMITH, maunted on his svorite horse "Joe Duncan." This drawing by Mr. John Hafen, is twenty by wenty-five inches and will be beautifully engraved. It is designed to accomauy the volume as a memento of the Legion.

> The aim of the CONTRIBUTOR has always been to encourage and improvor Home Literature. The new volume will contain matter from the pens of nany old friends, including Presidents Wilford Woodruff, Joseph F. Smith, Moses Thatcher, F. M. Lyman, Geo. Reynolds, O. F. Whitney, B. H. Roberts. f. M. Tanner, J. E. Talmage, Emmeline B. Wells, A. J. Cracheron, M. M. Johnson (Ruby Lamont), and others, besides introducing the names of a large umber of new writers.

The usual Prizes and Souvenir Medal will be given for a Christmas Story and Poem, and also a Prize for the best Serial Story based upon incidents in he Book of Mormon.

The Association Intelligence Department, under the immediate direction of the General Officers of the Y. M. M. I. A. will receive particular attention, and he made as useful as possible to the Associations. Officers are requested o contribute to this department.

Every endeavor will be made to make the Ninth a superior volume, and w confidently hope for its favorable reception by the young men and women o Cion, in whose interests it is especially published and all of whom are invited o write for its columns.
