GENERAL DECLINE
IN MINING STOCKS

Market Very Much Depressed But Business a Little Better Than
The Day Previous

NEW YORK IS QUITE ACTIVE.

Columbus Con. in Demand at Good
Figures — Sales of Lower Manmoth and Daly Judge.

While the stagnation in the stock market still continues, today's business was an improvement over that of the day before, the brokers handling 18,300 shares, representing a value of $37,500. New York was again a favorite in the trading, but the bear element ruled and the stock dropped to 22 cents, although a little later it revived and found buyers at 23. Lower Mammoth also exhibited a slight weakness in sales at 34¢, while Uncle Sam shared in the general decline and dropped shares of 18,100, with closing offerings at 28. Far Columbus Consolidated buyers paid $1.00 to $1.09 and for Daly-Judge $1.20, at which figure 200 shares were dealt in before noon. Butler Liberal went at 6 and 6½. Star Consolidated at 16½ and 18½ at 12½.
