Home Again.

We were pleased this afternoon to meet Elder Elias S. Wright, of the Fourteenth Ward of this city, who returned home last evening from a mission to the Southern States. He has been in that field twenty-six months, laboring most of the time in Tennessee, both as traveling Elder and president of the conference. He has had some experience with mobs, and was one of those so cruelly beaten on the morning of August 3, in Tennessee. During the latter part of his mission Elder Wright's health has not been good, he having been afflicted with chills. At the present time he is much reduced in flesh, but being again in his mountain home he will quickly recuperate. He has enjoyed richly of the blessings of the Lord while engaged in proclaiming the truth.

A LOAD OF FISH

Scattered O'er the Landscape by a Utah Central Train.

Nothing is so bad but that it might be worse. The two fishermen who were deeply, not to say thrillingly, interested in the scene about to be described, may well take comfort from the old adage. A passenger who reached this city last evening on the north-bound Utah Central train, states that just beyond Draper a serious casualty occurred, but which might easily have been much more grave. From the description of the place where the accident happened, as given by our informant, we take it to be the Point of the Mountain.

A wagon loaded with fresh fish, probably just caught in Utah Lake, was crossing the track when the train came along. A collision could not be avoided, and the wagon was instantly reduced to kindling wood, while fresh fish lined the rails for a considerable distance. Two men were in the wagon, but from the manner in which some of the train crew criticized their hardihood in disputing the right of way with a locomotive, our informant inferred that the fishermen were not seriously hurt. Whether they escaped by jumping from the wagon in the nick of time, or in a more miraculous manner, is not stated. The train was stopped which gave opportunity for an interview between the train men and the fishermen.

As soon as the engine had disposed of the wagon, the horses took to flight, from which circumstance it may be inferred that neither of them was either killed or crippled. The results of the disaster, seem, therefore, to be the loss of a wagon, and a load of fresh fish, and probably some damage to the harness. The horses will no doubt be recovered.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY NOV. 14.

Hymeneal.

This morning Heber S. Goddard, Esq., returned from Maui, where, on Wednesday, November 7, 1888, he was wedded to Miss Hattie Kearnes, of Gunnison. We extend our congratulations and wish them never ending joy.

Election Judge Prosecuted.

FRANKLIN, Idaho, Nov. 14th. (Special to the DESERET NEWS.)—Caldwell, a judge of election at Oxford, was arrested last Monday by U. S. Deputy Marshal Hopson, for obstructing voters. He had a hearing at Blackfoot yesterday and was bound over. A close contest is expected.

For the Orient.

This morning Elders J. M. Sjodahl and C. U. Locander left this city for the Orient, their destination being Turkey and her dependencies, where they will engage in missionary work. From advices received from Elder Hintze, who is in that field, it is learned that the work is opening up and progressing in Palestine.

Murdered.

Meagre accounts have been received of the murder of Marimus Jensen, in Colorado, a couple of weeks ago. The deceased is the son of Bishop Hans Jensen, of Sanpete County, who is now in the penitentiary for living with his wives. The son was engaged in freighting in Colorado, for a man who had been a convict. He suddenly disappeared, and eight days later his body was found in a ravine. His employer had been arrested for some crime, when it was also learned that he was young Jensen's murderer.

The Railways.

This morning J. Fawcett Smith, Esq., arrived in this city on the Utah Central train from the south, and Hon. Joseph A. West came down from Ogden. Both are from the scene of the Union Pacific prospecting ground in Nevada. For several months they have been engaged in surveying a route for the extension of the Union Pacific from Milford, Utah, to Southern California. They have met with excellent success, and have made extensive surveys in all directions along the proposed line. Mr. West says they have got two routes, either of which is not only practicable but is so situated that the road can be built at a much less expense than it could be from Salt Lake eastward.

The present outlook is that when spring opens the Union Pacific will be heading for the coast over one of the routes now marked out west from Milford, and that in a comparatively brief time the company will have a through line. With the building of this extension and the almost absolute certainty that the Salt Lake Valley & Eastern, from this city to Sioux City, Iowa, will be pushed with vigor next summer, there is every prospect that a railway "boom" will strike this part of the continent. There is still considerable talk about other lines heading this way, and they may do so within a few years, but just at present there is little indication that any more than the two roads mentioned will do any great amount of actual work.

Bagged a Mountain Lion.

For some time past the people of Wilson, Weber County, have been troubled and annoyed by the ravages of a large mountain lion, supposed to be the mate of the animal killed at Pleasant View some time ago. The ranch and orchard of Mr. John Staker, a man sixty years of age, appeared to be the favorite spot of the ferocious beast. It would kill his tame rabbits during the night and as the reports spread abroad, excitement amongst the people ran high. Early last Sunday morning, however, Mr. Staker's faithful dog treed the animal in the orchard and the old gentleman, nothing loth, determined at once to try his skill. He grasped his trusty Sharp's rifle and with a steady aim sent a life despatcher through the animal's hide, killing it almost instantly. When stretched out the lion proved to be a veritable monster, measuring five feet in length. Mr. Staker is to be complimented on his courage and skill in ridding the neighborhood of this unwelcome intruder.—Ogden Standard.

Another Suicide.

On Wednesday of last week word was brought to Eagle Rock that the body of Neils Hanson, a Swede, who lived on what is called the Island, about twenty miles up the river, for a number of years, had been found in the brush alongside the river.

Mr. Ed. Horrop was hunting and going along the river, noticed a handkerchief tied up and hanging in a small tree; going to it he found Hanson's body lying on the ground with a pistol in one hand. In the handkerchief was a sheet from a small note book in which he stated he desired to leave everything to his children. Hanson was a man at least fifty years of age, had a family of several children, some of them grown. He had been divorced from his first wife for some time, and about a year ago a woman came from the old country to marry him, but on meeting him refused to carry out her part of the programme.

Readers will remember that in May last, the account of a homicide where George Perkins killed his wife and her brother, named Chas. Talbot, leaving Mrs. Talbot a widow with two or three children. In August last Mrs. Talbot was married to Hanson, this occurrence leaving her a widow for the second time within five months. Hanson had a good ranch and quite an amount of stock, being considered pretty well fixed.—Idaho Register, Nov. 10.

ALLEGED MOBBING.

Elders in Alabama Said to Have Been Fanned and Feathered.

A telegram from Jasper, Walker County, Alabama, tells of another dastardly outrage alleged to have been committed upon "Mormon" Elders in the Southern States. The names of the victims of mob violence are not given, and the circumstances are meagre, but are in effect that three Elders were preaching the Gospel to the people of Marion County, Alabama. The Marion County Herald, a weekly paper published at Hamilton, having learned of the presence of the Elders, had an inflammatory article, denouncing and vilifying the "Mormons," and inciting the people to violence by calling upon them to drive the "Mormons" out. The wicked utterances of this sheet had an effect upon some of the people. On last Sunday, Nov. 11, the Elders held meetings at the home of a gentleman named Moore; that night a crowd of ruffians, about fifty in number, and said to include leading men of the town, assumed the role of mobocrats, and assailed Mr. Moore's house. They took therefrom the three Elders, whom they dragged to the woods and covered with a coat of tar and feathers. The cowardly mob then left their victims, with a warning for them to leave the State.

It frequently occurs that sensational dispatches are sent out by correspondents, giving accounts of alleged mobbing of "Mormons," when no such thing has occurred, and we sincerely hope this to be another case of that kind. Of course the object in this is plain—to work up public feeling against the "Mormons."

The Elders who are liable to be the victims of the mobbing, if one has occurred, cannot be definitely stated from this distance. The postoffice addresses of three Elders are in the vicinity, one, H. Perry, being at Hamilton, and two others, D. T. Hibbard and R. Harkness, in neighboring counties.

It will be remembered that it was in this vicinity that Elder Alma P. Richards, of Milton, Morgan County, mysteriously disappeared last August. Since that time all efforts to find him have been vain, and those who have been enraged in the search are satisfied that he has been murdered and his body secreted.

CITY COUNCIL.

The S. L. & F. D. R. R.—Purchase of Shale Beds.—Nuisances, Etc.

The City Council met in regular session at 11 o'clock last evening. Mayor Armstrong presiding.

Elbridge Tufts asked that the water mains be extended so that his residence could be supplied with city water. Referred to the committee on waterworks.

A communication from Whittemore & Busby, enclosing a plat of Geneva addition, was referred to the committee on streets.

William Bayliss represented that he had been unjustly taxed for the extension of water mains, and asked that $54.42 be refunded to him. Referred to the committee on waterworks.

Julian Sandberg and others protested against the extension of waterworks on Fourth West; Lucinda Pettit also offered similar objections. Laid on the table to come up in their order.

Dr. Groves and others protested against the extension of the water mains on First South, between West Temple and First West streets, because of the fact that they were already supplied from other sources. Laid on the table, to come up in its order.

One retail liquor license was granted. Police Justice Pyper presented his report for the month of October, showing the number of arrests made and the amount of fines collected in labor, cash, etc. The total number of cases tried during the month was 119. Received and placed on file.

The committee on streets, to whom had been referred the petition of A. A. Leonard and others in reference to the grading of Apple Street, reported recommending that the improvement be not made at present. Adopted.

The committee on improvements, to whom had been referred the request of Peter Nystrom and others, asking that more light be shed on First South Street, recommended that a street lamp be placed at the corner of Commercial Street.

Mr. Ritter thought the present a good time to discuss the advisability of placing all the street lamps in the centre of the street.

Mr. Dooly was of the opinion that the centre of the street was the proper place for them.

There was some discussion, when Mr. Ritter moved that the petition lay on the table pending a report from the committee on improvements as to the advisability of placing all street lamps in the centre of the streets, including those now in use and those hereafter to be erected.

Mr. Clark saw no reason for a reference. There were but two members of the committee, and both were present. It was a matter of opinion, and the opinion could probably be obtained right at once.

Mr. Ritter thought a formal report much more desirable, and the motion was carried.

The committee on waterworks represented that they had examined the quarterly reports of the superintendent of waterworks and found them correct. Adopted.

The petition of M. Livingston and others, asking an extension of the water mains, was granted on a favorable report from the committee on waterworks.

The same committee reported, in reference to the petition of Hiram Newton and others, that it was very indefinite, and asked that the recorder make an effort to discover just what the said petitioners desired. Adopted.

The applications of Enoch Covey and L. B. Rogers, asking that they be allowed to lay private water pipes from the mains to their residences, were taken up, and it was recommended that they be refused. Adopted.

The bill of Mrs. M. A. Burt, boarding city prisoners, 1,221 meals, at 15c., $183.15, was allowed.

Jesse W. Fox, Jr., city surveyor, presented a bill of $240.50, for services rendered. Referred to the committee on claims.

C. E. Mitchener presented a petition asking that the city approve of a certain plat of land in Brighton Ward.

On motion of Mr. McCormick, the city recorder, with the attorney associated, was instructed to examine the matter and report on the same.

The resolution granting a franchise to the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway Company along Fourth West Street came up on its third reading.

Mr. Young moved that the title be amended to read "John W. Young and associates," instead of "Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway."

Mr. Ritter was opposed to the change. Every franchise given lately had been granted to "somebody and associates," and the Council never knew who the associates were. If the Council were dealing with corporations they knew what they were doing.

Mr. Dooly thought it about time to cease granting franchises to paper corporations all over the city.

Several others—So do I. Mr. Young wanted to know whether Mr. Dooly meant to say that the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas was a paper corporation.

Mr. Dooly—it certainly will be, if the change is made.

Mr. Richards saw no reason why the changes asked for should not be made. There was no second to Mr. Young's motion, and it therefore failed.

The resolution was then read through by sections, and Mr. Young moved that it pass.

There was silence for a few seconds, when Mr. Webber seconded the motion, and the resolution passed. Ayes—Ritter, Webber, McCormick, Young, Carlson, Teasdel, Roberts, Jeremy—8. Noes—Pyper, Clark, Dooly, Sowles—4. Absent—Sharp, Smith—2.

Referred to the committee on enrollment.

A bill for an ordinance amending section 81, of chapter 23, of the revised ordinances, then came up for consideration. It provides as follows: For license to engage in crushing or smelting ores, $100; for license as an assayer, $12; for a license to engage in the business of sampling ores, $25. The bill passed and was sent to the committee on enrollment.

Mr. Dooly—Now that the question of license is before the Council, I would like to ask whether the national banks of this city have paid any license for this year?

The Recorder—No sir.

Mr. Dooly—Then, I would like to ask why the other banks should not also be exempt.

The Recorder—We have collected from the national banks in the past. This year, however, they object, and say they should not have paid any since 1881.

No. 20, a bill for an ordinance amending section 19, chapter 32, of the Revised Ordinances, introduced by Alderman Pyper, came up for consideration. It was passed, and said section now reads as follows:

Section 19.—Where a nuisance exists upon property and is the outgrowth of the usual, natural or necessary use of the property, the landlord thereof, or his agent, the tenant, or his agent, and all other persons having control of the property on which such nuisance shall exist shall be deemed to be the authors thereof; but where any such nuisance shall arise from the unusual or unnecessary use to which such property may be put, or from business therein conducted, then the occupants and all other persons contributing to the continuance of such nuisance shall be deemed the authors thereof.

The Mayor stated that he had a chance to buy eighty acres of shale beds, situated in Emigration Canon, and within from half to three-quarters of a mile off the present terminus of that branch of the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway. The land, with a perfect title, he said, could be obtained for about $100. He wished to know whether the Council would authorize the expenditure of $100 for this purpose. By unanimous vote the purchase was ordered to be made.

The Council then adjourned for one week.

London, Nov. 17.—The Viceroy of India has framed a durbar that the British government would not avail itself of offers of money from Indian princes for the defense of that country, but would ask them to form strong native defenses for service with imperial troops. The government would provide English officers and furnish breech-loaders and a battery of four guns for each Punjab chief.
