VESUVIUS ERUPTION AND EARTHQUAKE

Scientists Unwilling to Advance Arguments Tending to Connect the Two.

SHOCK DUE TO SLIPPING ROCK

Evidences of Geologically Recent Faulting Are Abundant Throughout California.

Washington, April 18.—The possible relation of the earthquake in San Francisco to the eruption of Vesuvius formed the subject of discussion among scientists in this city today.

None of them was willing to advance any argument which would tend to connect one with the other. In fact, the officials of the geological survey declared that there was no relationship whatever between them.

PROF. HAYES' OPINION.

Prof. C. H. Hayes, professor of geology of the geological survey, said:

"The San Francisco disturbances are due to the slipping of the surface rocks to adjust themselves to changed conditions inside the earth. They have no relationship whatever to the eruption of Vesuvius. The interior of the earth is in a molten state except in the region of the volcanoes, but if you go down a distance of 60 or 70 miles, the rocks are practically in a fluid state from the immense pressure on top of them. They act like a liquid and they float to adjust themselves to changed conditions. But when you come nearer the surface where the strata are hard and brittle, the slipping of a part of the earth's crust along the line of a fault will give you just the conditions that attended the attack in San Francisco. The old earth, take it as a whole, is a very uneasy body and is in a state of constantly changing equilibrium. When the foundations dip down there has to be an adjustment of the surface like the breaking up of ice on a river and a readjustment of the blocks to each other. This is evidently what has just happened on the Pacific coast."

PROF. WILLIS MOORE'S IDEA.

Prof. Willis Moore, chief of the weather bureau, declared it as his opinion that there was no relationship whatever between the eruption of Vesuvius and the San Francisco disturbance.

DIRECTOR WOLCOTT'S VIEWS.

Director Wolcott of the geological survey said that when the news of the San Francisco disturbance reached his office, the question very naturally arose as to whether there might not be some connection between them and the recent Vesuvius eruption, but he declared that there is not the least probability of any connection between the two occurences.

"The Vesuvius eruption" he added, "is a purely volcanic phenominon, but the San Francisco earthquake is much like that of Charleston, S. C. in 1886, that is, it occurred in a district that is more or less faulted, and San Francisco is in region that has been visited by earthquake shocks, although most of them were very minute, being recorded only on the seismograph but the records of 26 years show many of these shocks each year at San Francisco.

The evidence of geologically recent faulting are extremely abundant through out the greater part of California, and especially the western section, in the coast range, and it is probably that most, if not all, of the earthquakes which visit that region are the result, more or less, of extensive movements along these fault planes."

SOME ENGLISH VIEWS.

London, April 19.—The calamity which has befallen the people of San Francisco overshadows in interest all other topics in the newspapers here this morning. All the papers publish long special despatches describing the terrible effects of the earthquake together with descriptions of the city, its beauty, etc., and interviews with San Francisco residents in London—in fact anything calculated to bring home to the English reader a realization of the stupendous nature of the disaster. Following so soon upon the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius and the earthquake shocks on the island of Formosa, the question is anxiously debated whether there is any connection between these events. Few scientists have as yet expressed an opinion on the subject.

PROF. JOHN MILNE.

Prof. John Milne, whose seismic observatory at Shide, on the Isle of Wight, recorded a disturbance at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, English time, expresses the opinion that the earthquake had no connection whatever with the volcanic eruption.

THINKS VESUVIUS THE CAUSE.

E. W. Munder, superintendent of the Greenwich observatory, on the contrary considers that in all probability it was a direct consequence of the activity of Mt. Vesuvius, whose eruption doubtless started a severe wave movement through the crust of the earth. He considers, however, that there is not sufficient reason to connect these catastrophes with displays of solar activity, and comments on the comparative rarity of earthquakes in the United States.

Dr. Davison of Birmingham, another seismic expert obtained valuable records, but could suggest no connection between the Vesuvius and San Francisco disasters.

All the morning newspapers print editorials deeply sympathizing with the American people and the victims of the calamity. The Standard says:

"We are well convinced that there will not be lacking in this land so happily removed from these sudden calamities an impulse to succor our citizens in distress."

DOWIE SCORES FIRST VICTORY OVER VOLIVA.

Rockford, Ill., April 18.—Following the filing of a bill to set aside the conveyance of property in Zion City valued at $21,000,000, Judge Wright of the circuit court today granted an injunction restraining Wilbur G. Voliva and others from interfering with or in any way preventing John Alexander Dowie from going to Zion City and remaining there or entering his house or his barn at will. The injunction also gives Dowie the right to hold religious services in the tabernacle on alternate days, and his opponents are enjoined from doing anything to affect title to property described in the bill of complaint. The bill was filed by Attorney Haley of Joliet. The hearing is set for April 25, before Judge Wright in Belvidere.

Chicago, April 18.—Attorney Emit C. Wetten of counsel for Dowie, in commenting on the temporary injunction issued by Robert G. Wright in the circuit court at Rockford today enjoining General Overseer Voliva from interfering in any way with Dr. Dowie when he returns to Zion City, said:

"There is now nothing to prevent Dr. Dowie from returning to Zion City, and he will go there when I give him the word, which will be some day this week. He will preach in Shiloh tabernacle and in every way resume all of the rights which he enjoyed previous to his departure from Zion City nearly one year ago.

"A bill in chancery will be filed in the circuit court of Lake county at Waukegan tomorrow asking that the transfer of all the property of the Christian Catholic church made by Voliva to Deacon Alexander Granger be set aside and declared void."

Chicago, April 18.—As soon as word was received in Zion City that Voliva and his associates had been temporarily restrained from exercising control of that place, the business council appointed by Voliva met and issued a call for a mass meeting in Shiloh tabernacle. Business was suspended and the people of Zion City flocked to the tabernacle.

The meeting was addressed by Voliva, who, after pronouncing the benediction, inquired of his hearers what they would do if John Alexander Dowie should return to Zion City and attempt to address them in Shiloh tabernacle. Four thousand persons heard Voliva's question and without a single exception all agreed to remain away from any meeting with which Dowie might or any way have connection.

NEGRO BOY MURDERED.

Crowd of White Boys in Kansas City Kill Him With Clubs.

Kansas City, April 19.—One of a crowd of white boys armed with clubs and stones, killed John Moore, a negro, 16 years old, near Tenth and Charlotte streets here late last night, breaking his neck with a club. The white boys escaped and are not known. The attack resulted from the feeling against negroes generally, a reflex from the race hatred at Springfield.

A UNIQUE PET.

Trained pigs have long been dear to the heart of the itinerant showman, but until recently the awkward animal has not figured in the role of lady's pet. An Englishwoman has introduced the fashion and now appears in public accompanied by a pig of considerable proportions and very intelligent behavior. During the Spanish war a black pig called Blanco became a great favorite with the men on an American warship and was solemnly installed as the crew's mascot. Blanco was rescued by the American sailors from one of the Spanish ships sunk at Santiago.

SCALY ECZEMA ALL OVER BODY

Eruptions Appeared on Chest, and Face and Neck Were All Broken Out—Scales and Crusts Formed—Iowa Lady Has Great Faith In Cuticura Remedies for Skin Diseases.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I had an eruption appear on my chest and body and extend upwards and downwards, so that my neck and face were all broken out; also my arms and the lower limbs as far as the knees. I at first thought it was prickly heat. But soon scales or crusts formed where the breaking out was. Instead of going to a physician, I purchased a complete treatment of the Cuticura Remedies, in which I had great faith, and all was satisfactory. A year or two later the eruption appeared again, only a little lower; but before it had time to spread I procured another supply of the Cuticura Remedies, and continued their use until the cure was complete. It is now five years since the last attack, and have not seen any signs of a return. I have taken about three bottles of the Cuticura Resolvent, and do not know how much of the Soap or Ointment, as I always keep them with me; probably one half dozen of each.

"I decided to give the Cuticura Remedies a trial after I had seen the results of their treatment of eczema on an infant belonging to one of our neighbors. The parent took the child to the nearest physician, but his treatment did no good. So they procured the Cuticura Remedies and cured her with them. When they began using Cuticura Remedies her face was terribly disfigured with sores, but she was entirely cured, for I saw the same child at the age of five years, and her mother told me the eczema had never broken out since. I have more faith in Cuticura Remedies for skin diseases than anything I know of. I am, respectfully yours, Emma E. Wilson, Liscomb, Iowa, Oct. 1, 1905."

DEMOCRATIC RATE BILL CAUCUS.

It Was Long and Resulted in Ill Feeling and no Agreement.

ADJOURNED WITHOUT DATE.

Probably in a Few Days Another Attempt Will be Made to Get Together.

Washington, April 18.—With considerable ill-feeling and no agreement on any phase of the controversy on the railroad rate bill, a conference of Democratic senators which continued practically all day was adjourned without any date having been fixed for another hearing. Speeches were made counseling agreement on some amendment or to support the house bill without amendment, the party harmony being urged as judicious politics. This program tentatively was adopted. Senator Bailey then called from the room some of the supporters of his amendments for a limited court review and for non-suspension of orders of the interstate commerce commission. During their consultation a motion to adjourn was made by Senator Rayner and carried.

When Senator Bailey and his colleagues returned they found the conference broken up. The Texas senator protested hotly against the course. The general expression of opinion, however, was that the differences would be smoothed over and that within a few days another effort would be made to get the minority together. The principal differences in the conferences were precipitated by a speech made by Senator Bailey that his court feature provided for a limited review. Exception was taken by his colleague, Senator Culberson, who declared that it was a broad review and from that point the discussion passed to the several pending amendments to prevent restraining orders being issued to interfere with rates established by the interstate commerce commission. It developed that a majority of the Democrats would vote for an amendment of this character. Several senators said after the adjournment of the conference that it should be decided to invoke the party adjournment of the conference that if it would result in the minority supporting the house bill without amendment.

PACIFIC SQUADRON NOT DESTROYED.

Washington, April 18.—Asst.-Secy. of War Oliver has telegraphed Maj.-Gen. Greely, commanding the Pacific division, with headquarters at San Francisco, instructing him to co-operate with the local authorities and use all resources at his command to assist in alleviating the suffering.

Gen. A. W. Greely can throw 3,000 soldier into the city from the Presidio and fortifications adjoining San Francisco. In the Presidio there are three companies of the Fourteenth cavalry, three batteries of field artillery and 10 companies of coast artillery. At Fort Mason there are two companies of engineers. Fort McDowell has five companies of infantry. Fort Baker has two companies of coast artillery and at Alcatraz there are five more companies of infantry. The total number of tents available is 3,345. In an emergency temporary shelter can be afforded by these tents to 20,000 persons.

The Pacific squadron, under command of Admiral Goodrich, sailed yesterday from San Diego for San Pedro bay, California. Secy. Bonaparte said that this squadron can be sent to San Francisco without delay in case its assistance be needed. The squadron consists of the Chicago, Boston, Marblehead and Princeton.

Washington, April 19.—A telegram received at the navy department this morning from the commander of the Pacific squadron sent since the earthquake reports that all is well with this squadron. The Chicago and Marblehead are en route from Long Beach to San Francisco and will probably reach there some time tomorrow. The Boston and Princton also at Long Beach.

CHICAGO WILL TAKE OFFICIAL ACTION FOR RELIEF

Chicago, April 18.—Chicago will take immediate official action to aid in relieving the suffering and destitution in San Francisco. A special meeting of the city council has been called for tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at which resolutions of sympathy will be tendered to the stricken city and Mayor Dunne will be authorized to appoint a committee representing all of the business houses, trades organizations and nationalities in the city to take charge of the contributions of money and supplies which will be sent to the Pacific coast as rapidly as possible. This committee is now being formed. Immediately after the official appointment of the committee a meeting will be held and arrangements for the formation of trains bearing relief to the stricken city will be made. Besides the official action to be taken by the city a mass meeting of citizens will be held tomorrow for the purpose of formation measures of relief. The Chicago clearing house association telegraphed the clearing house association of San Francisco today expressing the deepest sympathy and tendering assistance in any manner in which it may be desirable.

At a meeting of the Chicago Commercial association tonight a message was sent to the president of the Merchants' association in San Francisco offering aid to the citizens of San Francisco.

The following telegram was received tonight from Mayor Dunne, dated Dunkirk, N. Y.:

"To the people of Chicago: Recent dispatches indicate the appalling nature of the complete catastrophe at San Francisco, the distress and destitution must be widespread and all prevalent, and instant action is imperative. I call upon the citizens of Chicago to act promptly in the face of the disaster which has fallen upon our sister until a relief committee is organized."

Mayor Dunne's telegram says he is authorized that W. R. Hearst, through his newspaper will see that all moneys are forwarded to San Francisco for immediate use without charge.

Chicago, April 19.—At the weekly meeting of the executive board of the Chicago Federation of Labor resolutions of sympathy were adopted for the trade unionists of San Francisco, and steps will be taken to send them financial assistance at once.

The executive committee of the Chicago Vesuvius Relief association met yesterday and decided to change the name to the San Francisco-Vesuvius Relief association and to divide all funds equally between the sufferers in Italy and those in the Pacific coast city.

SPRING PRACTISE FOR FOOTBALL MEN

Maddock Turns His Squad Out For Punting and Passing.

TO TRAIN THROUGH SUMMER.

Players Are Expected to Report Next Fall Well Drilled and Ready For Team Work.

Spring practise in football is a new wrinkle at Cummings field, and its object is to do away with poor punting, poor holding of the ball, and poor passing, in time to allow Maddock next fall to finish off his men in the gentle art of teaming it in the critical moments.

Last night the veterans held a meeting on the question, and today agreed to turn out in force, and go through a regular course of football work. Maddock accordingly came down town and bought a new ball, for the punting squad today, and this squad he promises to make larger than ever. Heretofore the varsity has depended on Bennion's boot for the leg work, but the fact that Bennion has only one more year to go, has created a feeling that more punting knowledge is needed. In addition to this the new rules compel a punting and long passing game next year, for which reason the team in general must be drilled into punting and passing form.

In addition to the regular team all candidates for the general squad, and for the second team will report for duty, and will work regularly from now on until the end of the school year. At that time instructions will be given them in their summer work, and they will be furnished with an outfit sufficient to keep them busy getting into form. Next fall a squad is expected to report in splendid trim, instead of in the first recruit stages as heretofore.

Nervous Worn-Out

If you are in this condition, your nerve force is weak—the power is giving out, the organs of your body have "slowed up," and do their work imperfectly. This failure to do the work required, clogs the system and brings distress and disease. When the nerves are weak the heart is unable to force the life-giving blood through your veins; the stomach fails to digest food; the kidneys lack power to filter impurities from the blood, and the poisonous waste remains in the system to breed disease. Nerve energy must be restored. Dr. Miles' Nervine will do it, because it strengthens the nerves; it is a nerve medicine and tonic, that rebuilds the entire nervous system.

"Several years ago I was all broken down. I was nervous, worn-out, could not sleep, and was in constant pain. I doctored for months, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and used altogether eight bottles, and I became strong and healthy, and now weigh 170 pounds."
