SALT LAKE HIGH BEATS COLLEGE

Red and Black Win by a Score of 44 To 0 and Clinch the State Championship.

There is now no doubt where the state football championship among high schools belongs. It has been clinched by the Salt Lake high school eleven, the Red and Black, when the Red and Black defeated All Hallows college Saturday afternoon on Cummings field by a score of 44 to 0.

Though the score was one-sided the college boys put up a much stronger game than heretofore and in spite of defeat played a game that caused many spectators to praise their work.

Both teams were well supported by the Salt Lake high school students and the Red and Black were given the game college boys.

All Hallows had the ball but a short time during the game but during that time they made big gains in rushing and passing. The Red and Black were not able to get within 10 yards of the goal line. But for the first time the Red and Black were able to get within 10 yards of the goal line. But for the first time the Red and Black were able to get within 10 yards of the goal line.

High School Boys DEFEAT TEACHERS

An interesting basketball game was played Saturday at Brigham City in the high school gymnasium between the Red and Black and the teachers. The Red and Black won by a score of 37 to 23 in favor of the high school team.

AERIAL FLIGHTS TO LAST A MONTH

Will be Extended and Prices Increased For Purpose of Attracting European Aviators.

New York, Nov. 22.—Instead of having one week of aerial flights, for the international aviation meet, which is to be held in this country next year, the Aero club of America is now planning a carnival of aviation at least a month in various cities. So many cities have offered a large sum for the big event that it has been found advisable to effect a different arrangement, particularly as it has been feared that the prizes for the international events would not induce all of the leading European aviators to come to this country.

STUDENTS WILL FLY

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 22.—Cornell university faculty has granted a petition of the Cornell Aero club for the establishment of a chair in aeronautics next year. The course will be in charge of Prof. C. R. McGovern. Heavier-than-air craft will be specialties.

COAST BASEBALL

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—The Philadelphia Athletics and the All-Nationals team played it today today, the game being called on account of darkness, with the score 1 to 1.

BILLY ROACHE HAS MONEY TO WAGER

New York, Nov. 22.—Billy Roache, famous as a manager and trainer of boxers and fighters, has returned here after a trip through the middle west with a $5,000 commission from James Butler of St. Louis and Kansas City, to be on hand for anything that looks like even money.

FIGHTING DICK VS. "CYCLONE" JOHNNY

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Bill McGarvey, who came to the Pacific coast from Philadelphia with Young Ernie some months ago, has assumed the management of Fighting Dick Hyland. Last night, according to McGarvey's announcement, he signed Hyland for a 10-round fight with Cyclone Johnny Thompson in Kansas City on Dec. 12. McGarvey and Hyland will leave for Kansas City immediately after the Powell-Walsh match. It is said that Hyland had a controversy with his former manager, Jack Perkins, as a result of which they had a split-up.

ABE ATTELL MEETS JIMMY MORAN TONIGHT

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 22.—Abe Attell, featherweight titleholder, will meet Jimmy Moran of Brooklyn, before the Phoenix Athletic club here tonight to go the rounds. The legal limit. The men are to weigh in at 125 pounds at 8 p. m. They have been training here for 10 days and are well conditioned.

IRISH WRESTLER

New York, Nov. 22.—Con O'Kelly and Pat Connolly, both of whom claim the wrestling championship of Ireland, will meet tomorrow night in a finish match, catch-as-catch-can, best two out of three falls. The winner, it is probable, soon will meet Frank Gotch, world's champion.
