SUNDAY CLOSING BILL.

Friends of the Sunday closing bill have decided to let it lie on the table, have decided to let it lie on the table, where it awaits a motion from Hol-lingsworth to reconsider it. A motion to reconsider must be made the day following the notice of intention so to do, but in this case, there is no official "day following," however many hours clapse on private time pieces. The local option bill reposes in the same manner at the foot of the cal-endar, and it is now conceded that there is no hope of successfully put-ting it upon its passage.

GOVERNOR ON LAND BOARD.

The recent investigation in the land office found an echo in a special com-munication sent to the upper house today by Gov. Cutler. It calls attention day by Gov. Cutler. It cails attention to two matters of importance, one of which is the fact that the secretary of the land board should have full con-troll of all employes in his office, and other is that the secretary of the rd of equalization ought to be put ler bond. Dear Sir: I have the honor to call the attention of your honorable body to two matters of urgent importance: In my opinion, the secretary of the land board should have full control of all the employes in the office. They have the handling of funds for which the secretary is responsible under his bond; and he should be allowed to have a voice as to who the assistance in the a voice as to who the assistants in the office shall be, and there should be a definite understanding of their respons-bility in him ibility to him.

my message to the legislature, page The recommendation was made that the secretary of the board of equaliza-tion, who is empowered to collect taxes from car companies, be required to give a bond for this work. So far as I have heard, no action has been taken in this direction by the legislature. I am still of opinion that this requirement should be made.

JOHN C. CUTLER.

Governor. Governor. No action was taken this morning to-wards securing the passage of legisla-tion in conformity with the governor's suggestion. It is thought that the matter will come up this afternoon, along with the question of confirming the appointment of Candland and Lynch as commissioners, their names having been submitted to the senate.

Until yester-day morning he was in his accustomed health and continued his work at the machine shops of the Rio Grande West-ern until Monday night. On the even-ing of that day he called at his father's place of business on Richards street, and together they walked home from their employment, as was their wont. On being called at 6:80 yesterday morn-ing, the young man did not arise as promptly as was his custom, and his father went to his room a second time for the purpose of arousing him. He complained somewhat as he joined the family, and later told, his mother that he was not feeling well and believed he would stay home for the day. He grew rapidly worse, and by 6:30 this morning the frightful malady had cut him off at the very threshold of life's manhood and with every prospect of a successful fature. In answer to inquiries this morning, the management of the store stated that they had nothing to say beyond what the cards announced-they spoke for themselves.

In other circles, however, it was learned that the Walker store had long been dissatisfied with the Tribune and Telegram on various grounds, not the least of which was their attitude in perpetually "knocking" the city and the state. It was also freely prophesied that this was only the beginning, and that other merchants and the real es-tate dealers especially would voice their disapproval in the same way.
