THE PRESIDENT'S CONDITION.

Reports Still Favorable.

WASHINGTON, 21. — Executive Mansion, July 21, 2 p. m.—The President is steadily convalescing, and has thus far passed a quiet and comfortable day. He has had no fever since last night and at this hour pulse is 92, and temperature and respiration normal.

Executive Mansion, July 21, p. m.—The President has had another good day. At 1 p. m, his pulse was 92, temperature 98.4, respiration 19. At 7 p.m. pulse 95, temperature 99.9, respiration 19.

(Signed) D. W. BLISS,
J. K. BARNES,
J. J. WOODWARD,
ROBT. REYBURN.

The following bulletin has been sent this morning to each of Cabinet officers by the President's private secretary:

Executive Mansion, July 21.—The improvement of the President's condition continues to be steady and uninterrupted. His pulse this morning is 88, with normal temperature and respiration. He is bright and cheerful, has an excellent appetite, and expresses a desire for more substantial nourishment. There is no better indication of his progress than the disposition he is now manifesting to think and talk on outside matters. The surgeons express themselves entirely satisfied with the progress of the case.

The following telegram was sent by the attending surgeons to the consulting surgeons to-night.

5 p.m.—Since our telegram of yesterday the President has continued to do well, and passed a comfortable night. This morning a morsel of clothing about one-quarter of an inch square came away spontaneously with the pus from the deeper part of the wound. It proved on examination to consist chiefly of cotton fibres, with a few woolen fibres adhering. The medication is continued without change. At 8.30 a.m. his pulse was 88; temperature 98.4; respiration 9. At 1 p.m., pulse 92; temperature 98.4; respiration 19. At 7 p.m., pulse 94; temperature 99.9; respiration 19.

(Signed) D. W. BLISS,
J. K. BARNES,
J. J. WOODWARD,
ROBT. REYBURN.

11 30 p.m.—The slight change which has taken place in the President's condition since the last official bulletin, has been in the direction of further improvement. He has passed a comfortable day, taken a little solid food again in the shape of boiled chicken, and gained in strength. The afternoon fever has subsided, and at this hour the President is quietly sleeping.

Dr. Reyburn's Hopes.

The President had another good day, and is doing well to-night. Dr. Reyburn said to a reporter to-night he had just examined the President, and he was getting along finely. Discharge of pieces of cloth shows the wound is drained out to the bottom. The wound continues to heal nicely inside. Dr. Reyburn said it was impossible to say just when the President would be able to take a sea voyage, but the surgeons hope to get him aboard ship soon, and if the present rate of progress continues, he can probably start in three or four weeks.

NEWS FROM ALBANY.

ALBANY, 21.—Joint convention ballot, short term: Lapham 67, Potter 45, Conkling 28, Woodford 1. Forster voted for Lapham instead of Evarts. Necessary to choice, 71. Adjourned.

The Senate reconsidered the vote by which resolutions making canals free were lost, and finally passed them—18 to 12.

There is more activity at the hotels to-night than for several weeks. Halfbreeds and stalwarts apparently are greatly excited. The stalwarts are demanding a caucus, intimating they will ever vote for the nomination of Lapham. The halfbreeds stand firm against a caucus. They say to hold a caucus now will be to admit they are responsible for the existence of the deadlock from the first, and that it is only to put them in that position the stalwarts are clamoring for a caucus. The stalwarts, they say, will claim if a caucus had been held at the commencement of the contest an election would have taken place the next day. The democrats are also considerably excited. They know they can break the dead-lock by simply remaining away to allow the election of Lapham, but fear to do this as they would thus render themselves liable to the charge of having been bribed. Some think they ought to run that risk, inasmuch as they now think they are being made tools of by the stalwarts. They say the stalwarts, while ostensibly demanding a caucus, and base their holding out on that ground, their real object is to prevent Robertson from taking the New York collectorship. They say to accomplish this the stalwarts will stand out till the 31st of December next. The democrats are seriously considering whether they should not end the dead-lock in the way stated above, and appeal to the people to sustain them, and at the same time relieve them from any unjust suspicions.

Mammoth Railroad Organization.

Articles of association of the Mexican-Oriental Inter-oceanic, or International Railroad Company, have been received by the Secretary of State and laid before the governor for approval.

The articles state that on the 7th of June, 1881, a contract was entered into between the Mexican International Railroad Improvement Company, granting certain rights and powers and a subsidy in aid of the construction and operation of railroad and telegraph branches within the Republic of Mexico. The contract provides that said rights and powers could be transferred to one or more companies which might be organized for that purpose. The International Railway Improvement Company does not contemplate the maintenance and operation of railroads and telegraph lines built, only the construction of the same for other companies or individuals. The State of New York having expressly authorized the incorporation of companies for the permanent maintenance of railroads and telegraph lines beyond the limit of the United States, Jay Gould, Russel Sage, Sidney Dillon, Nurelo Green, Sidney H. Dillon, T. T. Eckert, M. Dodge, of New York; U. S. Grant, Green Wills and Francis Degress, of Mexico with others, have formed the above named company. The road is to commence at a point on the Rio Grande between Laredo and Reynosa, continuing south between longitude 1 degree west and two east of the meridian of Mexico, touching at San Bernando and Santander, and finishing with a branch road to Cruidad Victoria, to be completed as far as San Luis Potosi, with branches to Matamoras and Bar of Jesus Maria. In case this point should be opened to coasting and foreign trade, trunk lines shall continue from Santander Jiminish, to the City of Mexico by the most convenient ascent to the table lands and may continue from there to a point on the Pacific coast. The main line may divide or branch off before its ascent to the table lands, passing by Papantby and Meganti, with its terminus in Vera Cruz, with branches to Marina, Tampico, Luxpan and Gecalutha. The capital stock is placed at $25,000,000, divided into 25,000 shares of $1,000 each. The above named persons are to act as a board of directors. Jay Gould takes 100 shares, Sydney Dillon 100, Russell Page 100, Thos. F. Dillon 100, Amos Hoskins 100, Thos T. Eckert 100, Nervin Green 100, Thos. W. Pearsall 100, U. S. Grant 100, and Francis Degrass 100.

Star Route Conspiracy.

PHILADELPHIA, 21.—In the cases of the men recently arrested upon a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government by letting Star route contracts in Arizona, and Price, on Wednesday, last week, said he did not know Contractor Wiley, and had signed the bond at the request of McDervitt. He said he did own property in Clinton County, on which he had become surety. He said he knew Ensign, who had also become bondsman; hoped there would be no trouble about the matter, and that he had made trade for the land in question. At this point Acting District Attorney Valentine produced certificates proving the property claimed by Price to be worth $35,000, had been sold for taxes for $124, and not redeemed since. Ensign told the inspector he owned four improved city properties, but upon investigation it was shown that at the time of the existing bonds this property was mortgaged beyond its assessed value.

Wiley, who was the principal or bidder, was seen last week by the inspector, and upon interrogation stated that A. McDavitt had some time since visited him and requested him to bid for six Star routes in Utah, promising at the same time to furnish sureties and obtain for Wiley an appointment as route agent. Wiley was not to be bothered with contracts, and was to be held blameless in case of trouble. Four of these contracts bid for by Wiley were awarded to him, but upon his failure to carry out their promises, they were raised $7,000 and re-let to other parties. All communications referring to contracts received by Wiley were turned over by him to McDavitt. When Inspector Parrett reported this statement to McDavitt, the latter said it was all right, but he acted in the matter only to befriend Wiley, who was out of employment, and who he thought could obtain work in this way. Wiley has not been arrested, although his warrants have been out nearly a week. The total amount of surety entered on the four Star route bonds by Ensign and Price was $24,000. The certificate of the Philadelphia postmaster, which is signed by James F. Bingham, assistant postmaster, states that diligent and careful search has been made, and in the opinion of the postmaster, the sworn statement as to the responsibility made by Ensign to Price was correct.

What Conkling Intends Doing.

PHILADELPHIA, 21.—The Ledger's New York special learns from a well informed source that Senator Conkling has views as to the future as soon as the Albany contest is decided. It is understood he will take a trip across the Atlantic, with a view to rest and recuperation, and on his return in October he will make a journey through the Southern States, including in his programme the Cotton International Exposition at Atlanta, Ga. His friends say he is solicitous about strengthening his political influence in that section, and to that end he will take the earliest opportunity to remove the unfavorable impression his stalwart speeches during last year, and especially during the Presidential campaign are supposed to have made on the southern mind. The ex-Senator clearly has not abandoned the expectation of one day being President of the United States, and if he has weakened his position at this end of the Union he would seem to consider it sound policy to do what he can to strengthen himself elsewhere. It will be his aim to demonstrate to the southern mind that the stalwart policy meant the restoration of Southern prosperity and Southern influence within the legitimate terms of that measure.

Edison's Electric Districts.

NEW YORK, 21.—The World: Edison is still pushing on his preparations for lighting the district bounded by Spruce and Wall Streets and Mission Street and East River. Wires have been put in nearly 500 houses, and the district will probably be lighted by lightning October 1st. His work is all complete with the exception of the erection of heavy engines in the Central Station. The contract with subscribers is that the light shall cost the same amount as gas. The lighting of the district, Edison thinks, will reduce the cost of gas to $1 per 1,000 cubic feet.

Ohio Temperance Resolutions.

CINCINNATI, 20.—The temperance resolutions set forth graphically the evils of intemperance, and that the platforms of both parties tend to increase those evils that temperance people should act immediately in the premises for constitutional prohibition. They demand a stringent local option law. They will support the temperance candidates for legislature in every county, republicans, but if there be no such candidates will support their own.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, 20.—After the land bill becomes a law Parnell will address a meeting in Ireland. He will visit America in November.

The great strike of nail makers in Staffordshire, which began last month when 30,000 operatives went out has ended. The employers have conceded 1½ per cent. All the advance demanded.

In the rifle contest for the Keolopose cup the Canadian team won by 20 points.

In the House of Commons, Dilke, Under Foreign Secretary, said England never objected on principle to specific duties, but held that regarding cotton and woolen goods it would be difficult, if not impossible to find specific duties which would be equivalent to ad valorem.

The House went into a committee on the land bill. Clause 12 was abandoned. Clause 15 and 27 passed. On reaching clause 34, for the appointment of two law commissioners they were appointed only for seven years in order that Parliament might have opportunity to review the constitution of the commission. With the arrangement as far as the present session is concerned, he said it was purely provisional and it was impossible to estimate what the commission would have to do. The government intended instead of the sum of £1,000,000 asked for in public works, as a loan bill to take £2,000,000 from the consolidated fund. About £10,000,000 of purchases, he said, might probably be made within six years. The consideration of new clauses has begun. Forster gave notice that he intended to offer a new clause after clause 18, dealing with small holdings of laborers.

Right Hon. Geo. J. Goschen in an address since his return from Constantinople, testified to the cordial co-operation of six ambassadors of the Powers in settling the Greek question. He declared emphatically that he saw no deviation from a straight course on the part of Russia, who was so much suspected, and that no power had been more prudent than Austria. If it be true that Austria harbored the design of pushing down to Salonica, he had found no trustworthy evidence of such intention.

Lord Colin Campbell and Miss Gertrude Blood were married to-day. The Princess Louise and the Duke of Argyle were present. The Bishop of Kentucky assisted at the ceremony.

London, 21.—A Paris correspondent says: The Spanish government has long felt hurt by the toleration in Paris of a man who openly declared his resolution not to abandon his claims to the Spanish crown. Some time ago Don Carlos visited Pepignac, where he met some of his partisans, and decided to attempt some partially scattered risings, which at the approach of the elections in Spain would stir up agitation. The Spanish ambassador at Paris was often embarrassed by the presence of Don Carlos in the different drawing rooms.

Wimbledon, 21.—At Wimbledon yesterday, Albert Jewell, competition, 1,000 yards, was again won by the Americans. Scott, of the American team, won it in 1880 and 1870, and Farrow, also of the American team, won it in 1876. This year, Frank Hyde, American, and Captain Gaisall, of the Second Bucks Regiment, each made a score of 70 out of a possible 75, and on shooting off the tie, made three bulls-eyes against Capt. Gaisall's two inners and one bulls eye, thus winning the prize.

Paris, 21.—The Oram correspondent of Temps says, in connection with troubles in Algeria, that settlers were sent from Mecca in 1880 to all Mahommedan countries, vigorously appealing to the sentiment of brotherhood, uniting all Mussulmen, declaring Islam was threatened with complete destruction; that England was mistress of India, France of Algeria and Russia of Turkistan, and it therefore behooves Mohammedans to move everywhere and throw off Christian domination.

The bitterness of the ministerial press toward Turkey culminated in a violent hostile article in the Republique Francaise, professing great apprehension in regard to the action of the Porte in Tripoli, and not only attributing to the Sultan a desire to stir up Mussulman fanaticism on the frontier and in the interior of Tunis, but directly charging him with keeping agents for that purpose.

Tunis, 20.—This country may be said to be in a complete state of anarchy. The Bey's government is no longer recognized, apparently. The rebellion will spread here whenever the French are not in occupation. This state of things must lead to complete annexation, the only alternative being evacuation.

Berlin, 21.—The heat here Tuesday and Wednesday was almost intolerable, and several cases of sunstroke occurred.

A Girl's Laconic Description of a Dainty Youth.

When a young girl forms an opinion about any of the young men who flit about her, say the Philadelphia Times, she knows how to give that opinion expression in a way so original and direct as often to startle those more given to reflection. It was a young girl who, upon being asked her reason for declining to enter the marriage state with a young man who was known to have urged her on on this pleasant matter, explained that she thought "the was too much of a fluffy angel." It was the quick suggestion of a girl's mind, but it was to the point, and all the labors of the masters of language would fail to produce an expression that would more fully meet the case. The girl had said just what she wanted to say.

The fluffy angel is not an uncommon thing on this earth, where any sort of an angel is very rare indeed. The fluffy angel which the young girl referred to is the perfectly sweet but insensibly soft young thing we have all seen somewhere—in fact, we see him almost everywhere. He is just too nice for anything all through the earlier social life of the average girl. He wears such lovely gloves; his moustache is just awfully cute, and his neckties are perfectly killing. Any young girl will tell you this. He understands the latest and positively the most fascinating of the dances, his clothes are just exquisite, always up to the latest turn of fashion, and frequently a few days ahead. With some of the fluffy angels, in fact, fashion often has trouble to catch up. He always knows—to resume the recital of the fluffy angel—where the awfully delicious ice cream is to be had; he always seems to have money to buy it with, and never seems to have anything to do but to be a fluffy angel. All this is very nice for the young girl who hasn't begun to get an idea of life beyond a dish of ice cream and a waltz. In her day dreams and in her night dreams she is so mixed up in the sort of thing that you would suppose it impossible that she could ever extricate herself. She has no care about herself, and no thought concerning whether she will do it or not. She enjoys herself in this way better with a fluffy angel than she would with any other kind of human being, and when a young girl gets her mind upon her enjoyments she has got it fully occupied.

When, however, the fluffy angel goes to the young girl with a marriage proposal she instantly comes out of her dream—that is, if she is one of ninety-five in every hundred girls. She knows that a husband can't possibly be made of a fluffy angel, and when the fluffy angel gets to the point of supposing that he can be anything else, she knows that his usefulness is gone; she turns elsewhere. If the fluffy angel is capable of thought to any extent he ought to try and reflect upon this and try not to be so much of a fluffy angel that he can't be anything else. He would be useful further along in life than he now is. In truth, he might not be a fluffy angel at all, and his earthly work would not necessarily come to an end the moment he proposed marriage.

HALL'S
VEGETABLE SICILIAN
HAIR
RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.
It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being in one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

BLACK TIP
That is now so extensively worn on Children's Shoes.
TO WEAR AS LONG AS THE METAL.
Which was introduced by them, and by which the above amount has been saved to parents annually. This Black Tip will save still more, as besides being worn on the corner it is worn on fine and costly shoes where the Metal Tip on account of its looks would not be used.
They all have our Trade Mark A. S. T. Co. stamped on front of Tip.
Parents should ASK FOR SHOES with this BEAUTIFUL BLACK TIP on them when purchasing for their children.
These Tips are recommended by Z. C. M. I. and are used extensively on Children's Shoes manufactured in their Shoe Factory.
