The G. A. R. veterans claim in the cemetery non-agreement that their positon in demanding a deed from cemetery people in the proposed transfer of lots is perfectly just and equa-ble, in that without a deed they would have nothing to show their right to possession; and when the present board goes out the new board would have a right to resume possession of the Mts in question, as the G. A. R. would have no legal right thereto in case the new Loard was minded to make trouble.

The household of Chaplain Marvin of Fort Douglas is having hard trials and tribulations. They have been in quarantine now for over two weeks be-cause of measies, for as fast as one child showed signs of recovery, another would "come down" with them, and then the quarantine would be "on again. However, there are hopes that the children will be "out of the ds" by another week, and then the chapiain and his family can "walk broad" once more and breathe the atmosphere of freedom,

The members of the colored Baptist church met with such success with the possum dinner given by them last ek that they have determined to duplicate it. This time, however, the feast will be more elaborate and the woods of the south will be more generally represented. Rev. Mr. Washington, of the church, has secured ten 'possums, fice trifd turkeys and a number of Gelgian hares. The big supper will be given on the 28th of this month, and as it is to assist the colored folks in their efforts in building a church, the patronage promises to be large,

Bank Wrecker a Defendant in Utah Courts.

Theodore A. Hungerford late yesterday afternoon filed a suit in the district court against Michael Shaughnessy, W. K. Shaughnessy and Frank C. Andrews, wherein he asks that any payments made by Andrews under an agreement between Andrews and W. K. Shaughnessy, the wife of M. Shaughnessy, be declared the property of the latter. Hungerford has a judgment against Shaughnessy and also asks that the latter be declared to have a vendor's lien on the Tiewaukee claim at Bingham, which was sold by Mrs. Shaughnessy to Andrews, under an op tion given to Shaughnessy by McCor nick & Co., and fraudently transferred by him to his wife, for the purpose of defrauding his creditors.

An attachment suit was filed som time ago by Mrs. Shaughnessy against Andrews to collect $35,000 alleged to be due for the sale of the property referred to in this action.

It will be remembered that the de-fendant Frank C. Andrews is the Detroit man who is held responsible for the wrecking of the City Savings bank of that city.
