The "electrical ordinance," which has been fought and urged by its enemies id supporters for two years before the city council, bobbed up again before the committee of the whole last night. After over three hours of monotonous discussion it went back to the committee from which it had come for revision. It is declared to be a bun-glesome affair as it stands, and will have to be pruned in many places. Councilman Stewart is held culpable for the statement that if assod the ordinance and contact on fordemic for the statement that if assed the ordinance would create an "epidemic of inspectors." His dry humor was re-ceived with acclaim by the gathering of electrical engineers and electricians in general, who were present to protest gainst a favorable report on the mat-

Several Witnesses.

A murder and suicide was committed at 11 o'clock last night in a roominghouse at 64 west Second South street, by Edgar Bowman, a boilermaker from Los Angeles. Angered because his young and pretty wife refused to live with him longer and suffer from his brutality, and because she was taking steps to secure a divorce from him, Bowman shot her and then plac-ing the weapon to his own head blew out his brains. Bowman died instantly, but the young woman lingered at St. Mark's hospital until shortly after 3 o'clock this morning when death ended her sufferings. The body of the murderer and sui-cide is at O'Donnell's undertaking par-iors while the body of the woman is at Hall's.

That Bowman had planned to murthat Bowman had planted to have der his wife and then kill himself is evident from the circumstances. About three hours before the crime was com-mitted he borrowed $3 from John Eva and with the money purchased the re-volver. Bowman fired two shots at his wife but the first went wild, being di-verted by Frank J. Adamson, who sprang upon the man as he drew the weapon. The second shot, however, struck Mrs. Bowman in the left breast just above the heart. With a moan trawoman sank to the floor. The enraged man then turned the revolver upon himself. He fired two shots, one going into the wall while the other crashed through his brain. He was instantly killed.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Mrs. Bowman was hurriedly taken to the emergency hospital at police head-quarters and Police Srugeon S. G. Paul summoned. After making an examina-tion of the wound Dr. Paul decided to send the unfortunate woman to St. Mark's hospital. He stated at the time that here chances for recovery were dethat her chances for recovery were de-cidedly slim. She was taken to the hos-pital about 1 o'clock and lived a little

She was making preparations to secure a divorce and Bowman learned of her intentions. He wrote to her several times and tried to induce the young wife to return to him, but she refused. Ten days ago Bowman arrived from Los Angeles and finally persuaded his wife to promise to return to Los An-geles with him. He promised to stop drinking and said he would treat her better. A week ago he asked her to go with him to Bingham Junction to visit her grandmother, but she did not want to go, and her refusal angered Bowman, and he made threats to kill her. She told her father of the threats and he advised her to secure a diand he advised her father of the threats and he advised her to secure a di-vorce as soon as possible and to keep away from the man. Bowman learned of this and began drinking heavily. After purchasing the revolver, a .38 committee will report at a later meet-ing of the board of county commis-sioners. Dr. Simmons was found practising without a certificate from the board of examiners, was duly arrested and as duly fined $1. He appealed and at-tacked the constitutionality of the act. One clause in the law provides that the veterinary must not use any title that may be conferred by a school in veterinary science, and reads as folterinary science, and reads as fol lows: "Nothing in this act shall pervent any person from practising veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry, provid-ed such persons do not use the title veterinary surgeon.' or 'veterinary dentist,' or any analogous title or any cogree, or part thereof conferred by any legally chartered veterinary school or agricultural college." Judge Lewis, in considering the con-stitutionality of the act, says:

stitutionality of the act, says: situtionality of the act, says: "I am of the opinion that the leg-slature has attempted to confer upon college graduates the exclusive use of the words, 'veterinarian,' veterinary surgeon,' and 'veterinary dentist.' It is beyond the power of the legisla-ture so to do, it being class legislation of the most vicious sort. The de-murrer is sustained."
