In relation to the above dispatch it is interesting to know that both Reiff and Henry, the American jockeys ex-pelled from the British tracks, have employed counsel and are determined to fight the case against the French Jockey club to a finish. Whether or not Henry will be successful remains to be seen. He has been ruled off in this country for questionable riding before ever he set foot on foreign soil. He is popular, and his record in this country as well as in England shows that he was never even set down by judge or starter for any breach of racing rules whatever. In-fluence is at work in his behalf that will, it is hoped, bring about the de-sired result of a reinstatement. His friends in this country are all firmly His convinced that his suspension is a mistake of some kind, and look French officials to see to it that the young man receives just treatment in

EXPERTS ON THE GAME.

Give Opinions on Contest Between Michigan and Wisconsin.

On account of the great amount of interest taken throughout the west on last Saturday's great football game be-tween Michigan and Wisconsin, it will be of more than passing interest to lo-cal gridiron enthusiasts to read the different opinions of experts who saw the wonderful struggle. Referee Hinkey-I do not care to say anything. It was a good, clean game and the best team seems to have won. No one was reuled off for rough tactics. Umpire Everts Wrenn-It was as close and as good a game in every way as one would want to see-nothing but clean, hard football from start to finish, with every man apparently doing his best to help win. The score shows the relative merits of both teams. Wisconsin took a good brace after being scored against, but was unable to do more than keep Michigan from repeating the trick. Wisconsin has a good team, though

It was unfortunate in getting a bad start, and Michigan for a while swept the Badgers off their feet. Michigan's defense was closer than Wisconsin's and seemed to have more power, while the most of the gains were made with straight plays, the Wolverine tricks failing utterly. Coach Yost, Michigan-I am naturally well pleased with the result, al-though I was a little disappointed in the score being so small and cannot help feeling it should have been about Is to 0. It is the 'nothing' end that pleases me, by the way, and I take more satisfaction in It than I would had the score been 46 to 6. We simply outplayed them and their best mer were not formidable propositions to us We fooled them, completely in our mode of attack, as we went after their line men, instead of their ends, as they expected, Redden threw Haumerson out all the time on the cross bucks, After all the disparaging remarks that have been made about our defense I think it proved pretty good. Th Badgers were not as strong as I fear The ed they were before the game, their de-fense proving stronger than their of. ense. It was a good, clean game. Captain Weeks, Michigan-While am glad we won, it was no more than I expected, though the low score was not looked for. We gained enough ground to have had two more touchdowns, and feel to blame, as I used poor ment at a couple of critical times. Wis-consin fought better than I thught in would. Our men did well, and thei defense really surprised me. I think it was our defense that put Wisconsir up in the air at the start, as it had ev. idently been led to think our defense weak. Wisconsin played a good game, weak. but we have a better team. Manager Baird, Michigan-It was great game, also a clean one. Michigan deserved at least two more touchdowns, I feel better now than I did before the game, as I was a little afraid of Wisconsin. The attendance was gratifying. Zeigler Bests Bennett.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 5 .- Owen Zelg-er of this city and Jack Bennett of McKeesport, Pa., met here tonight for twenty rounds at 147 pounds. Before the first round was half over, Zeigler caught Bennett on the point of the jaw with a left uppercut and the Pennsyl vania man went down and out.
