

CHAMBERLAIN'S
SPEECH RESENTEDGermany Does Not Like Reference To Franco-German War.

AN ENTENTE WITH AMERICA

English Public Men and Press Favor
It as Worth More Than a German Alliance.

New York, Nov. 5.—According to the London correspondent of the Tribune, Englishmen have been noticing with surprise the bitter resentment excited in Germany by Mr. Chamberlain's casual reference to the Franco-German war. It is a straw showing the direction of the wind in Germany, where, in spite of the emperor's cordial relations with the reigning house here, England is regarded as an industrial enemy, and is not liked. This revelation of anti-English feeling in Germany strengthens the desire of public

Over-Work Weakens
Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble. Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. *House of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. belongings caused by a collision between the steamer Claudine and the barkentine William Carson, wherein the Carson was sunk. The point was raised by the appellees that the act which made provision for the judicial system of the district of Hawaii does not authorize the appeal of admiralty causes to the circuit court of appeals. The court held that it had jurisdiction.

A Football Victim.
Chicago, Nov. 5.—Grave apprehensions are felt for the safety of James M. Sheldon, captain of the Chicago University football team who was injured in the game with Northwestern last Saturday. It is believed his skull was fractured and that his condition is much worse than physicians admit. This suspicion was increased when Sheldon's sister, Mrs. E. A. Elmes, was hastily summoned from her home in Forest, Ill.

Porto Ricans See the President.
Washington, Nov. 4.—A delegation from the Porto Rico chamber of commerce, headed by Antonio Balanquilla, called upon the President today and submitted some dispatches in favor of a duty of 5 cents a pound on coffee from countries other than Porto Rico. They claim that such a protective duty is necessary to build up the coffee industry of the island. The delegation has been touring the United States for the purpose of investigating the industrial conditions here. They were accompanied by Maj. Gen. Fishback of Boston.

President Goes Home to Vote.
Washington, Nov. 4.—President Roosevelt left today at 11 o'clock for Oyster Bay, where he will vote tomorrow. He was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Secy. Cortelyou, Asst. Secy. Loeb and Henry Plunkney, the White House steward. The party traveled in the

THE DREIBUND
NOT INFORMEDOf France's Contemplated Naval Action in Turkey.

SMYRNA CUSTOMS SEIZED.

Admiral Galliard's Squadron Takes Definite Action—Government Interpolated in the Deputies.

New York, Nov. 5.—It is learned from a reliable source that France has not, up to the present, informed the triple alliance of any contemplated naval action in Turkey, says the Herald's Berlin correspondent.

The Tagblatt compares the attitude of M. Delcasse to that of Napoleon III in 1870. Like the sultan, King William of Prussia had already yielded when France, by already pressing new claims, critically embittered the situation.

SMYRNA CUSTOMS SEIZED.
London, Nov. 5.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says he understands that dispatches have been received at the French capital announcing that Admiral Galliard's division of the Mediterranean squadron has arrived at Smyrna and seized the customs.

GOVERNMENT INTERPOLATED.
Paris, Nov. 4.—In the chamber of deputies today, M. Sembat (radical socialist), interpolated the government on the Franco-Turkish dispute, criticizing the action taken by France in its attempt to have intervened at the time of the Armenian massacres.

The foreign minister, M. Delcasse, replied that France's patience had been exhausted by the port's bringing its commerce to a standstill. In the present difficulty pursued no fresh advantage but everybody would agree that this effort on the part of France ought at least to serve to put an end to the anarchy and unjust treatment, of which French workers in the orient, scholastic and hospital establishments and commercial and industrial enterprises had been the object. He added: "Unless parliament arrests our action the government wishes to show that France, after exemplary patience, has other things to oppose in the long and persistent refusal to do justice than simple observations. The government intervened in the quays question in order to get Turkey to fulfill her engagements. If the government had not done so there would have been an end to the numerous enterprises which France had created in Turkey, in the shape of railroads, roads, lighthouses and banks."

The port has also persisted in its refusal to reimburse MM. Tubini and Lorando, in spite of the decrees of the tribunals in their favor. The government will only present to the port demands which are in conformity with its conscience and which can be justified in perfect tranquility of mind before the whole world. The debt has been reduced by a large percentage and the port, in August, agreed to give up the numerous enterprises which arrangements were forgotten and others were proposed. Our minister then ceased official relations with the port. There was no ultimatum, but the cessation of relations indicated that the government took the port's word seriously and that it intended that the engagements entered into should be respected, but it reserved to itself fixing the moment for their execution.

"Our rights are certain and nobody will dispute them. Our action is legitimate and nobody can take umbrage at it and as our patience has been long, so our action must be more resolute." As to Armenia, M. Delcasse said that during the past three years he had not overlooked the question, and while defending France's material interests he had displayed equal solicitude for her moral interests and for her traditions. M. Delcasse said also that the appearance of French cruisers off the Turkish coast had several times proved that France had not forgotten the protection she owed to Christians, and the latter understood it. It is true that the reforms promised the Armenians had not been executed, that the Armenians had too often been the victims of unpunished outrages, and that oppression also reigned in Macedonia and in old Serbia. The French government, however, put forth every effort to restore justice and peace, but France was not alone bound by the treaty of Berlin. The chamber could rest assured that the government would never forget its duties to humanity. But it must, first of all, remember its duty to France. The foreign minister's statements were greeted with applause.

M. Sembat was not satisfied with Delcasse's statement, and moved that the chamber, convinced that France would fail in her duty if she did not protect the Armenians in an effective manner, resolve that the government facilitate this protection by an agreement between the powers.

The premier, M. Waldeck-Rousseau, then rose and said that M. Delcasse's statement showed that the government's task was heavy and complicated. As the government desired respect for the interests of its fellow-citizens, so it intended to defend the patriots of all nations living in France. It needed the confidence of the chamber in order to accomplish its task.

M. Sembat's motion was rejected by 324 to 55 votes.

M. Castene then moved that the chamber, confident that the government would enforce respect for the interests and honor of France, pass to the order of the day.

Prior to the debate on the Turkish incident, M. Berry asked leave to interpolate the government regarding the measures it proposed to take in accordance with other governments to call upon the British government to remove the women and children in the South African concentration camps to healthful districts.

M. Deschanel, president of the chamber, remarked that it would be difficult to interpolate the French government for the acts of the British government.

After a brief discussion, during which M. Millevoye was called to order for speaking of Mr. Chamberlain, the British colonial secretary, as a coward and an assassin, the chamber decided to debate M. Berry's interpolation at a later date.

The chamber then, by 305 to 77, voted, sustaining the government's action toward Turkey and expressed confidence in the long term.

A DAILY NUISANCE.

A Simple Remedy Which Will Interest
Catarrh Sufferers.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later, the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines. Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucus, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The only treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine, as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastis, Eucalyptol and similar cleansing antiseptics which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way the reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche may be used to give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching, and local application and further arrest of the disease in the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet." Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 25 cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

having traveled in that time a distance of 8,400 miles, leaving Vancouver, B. C., they sailed for 56 days without seeing land or sail of any description and on August 31 they landed at Penrhyn Island. From there they cruised to Fiji, both men were in good health and some travelers remained but a few hours in Apia—only long enough to secure a supply of water and provisions—and then set sail for Sydney by way of Fiji. Both men were in good health and expressed themselves as satisfied that they would be able to complete their undertaking.

John Considine's Trial Begun.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—The trial of John Considine, charged with the murder of Chief of Police Will Meredith, began in the superior court this morning before Judge Emory. The attorneys for the defendant renewed their motion for a continuance, which was again denied. The work of impugning a jury was at once commenced. The case of Tom Considine, John's brother, accused with his brother John, has not yet been set for trial.

St. Louis Tetanus Cases.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—The coroner's inquiry into the infection of anti-toxin serum with tetanus germs which, it is alleged, caused the death of ten children and the serious condition of others, was concluded today after the testimony of Dr. Chas. Ellis, health department veterinarian; Dr. E. W. Saunders and Dr. H. H. Nix, superintendent of the City hospital, had been taken. Deputy Coroner Frank Boogher said that the verdict would be postponed until the three experts, who are making bacteriological tests of the serum, have made their report.

An expression commonly heard is that good feeling with America will be worth more than the closest alliance with Germany. The objections raised by Canada to a settlement of the canal controversy are attracting attention, but the hope is entertained that Premier Laurier's influence will be exercised and that there will be no opposition from Ottawa to embarrass the foreign office in opening a way for the adjustment of the entire series of Canadian questions.

FAVOR ANGLO-RUSSIAN ALLIANCE.
New York, Nov. 5.—The Berlin correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times after reviewing and commenting upon Great Britain's policy toward Germany, favors a direct agreement between Great Britain and Russia in regard to certain international matters. He asserts Germany is about to make Persia a European question.

The correspondent quotes a recently published lecture by Count Richard Meulneke, who says that while Great Britain believes that her recent treatment of Emperor William has made him her friend, British criticisms by Great Britain to Mr. Kruger were an insult to the whole German nation, and a day of reckoning is coming. The same authorities declare Germany has been tricked a hundred times by Great Britain but that now she will not allow herself to be hampered in any way by Great Britain throughout the globe.

New York, Nov. 6.—Business men were surprised by the delivery of mails that left New York on Tuesday last, says the London correspondent of the Herald. The delivery was at least a day in advance of the usual time. Often it is Wednesday before they are delivered.

This remarkable record is due to the rapid passage of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, which arrived at Plymouth at 38 minutes past midnight on Sunday, thus covering the 2,975 miles in five days, eight hours and eighteen minutes.

This is only about an hour more than the fastest passage ever recorded, which was accomplished by the Deutschland.

Father and Mother have both been improved by the use of Grape-Nuts Food. Mother was troubled with sleepless nights, and got very thin, and looked care worn. She has gained her normal strength and looks, and sleeps well nights. Don E. Cooper.

When a student begins to break down from lack of the right kind of food, there are only two things to do; either take him out of school or feed him properly on food that will rebuild the brain and nerve cells. That food is Grape-Nuts.

A boy writes from Jamestown N. Y., saying, "A short time ago I got into a bad condition from overstudy, but my mother having heard about Grape-Nuts Food began to feed me on it. It satisfied my hunger better than any other food, and the results were marvelous. I got fleshy like a good fellow. My usual morning headaches disappeared, and I found I could study for a long period without feeling the effects of it. After I had been using Grape-Nuts Food for about two months I felt like a new boy altogether. My face had been pale and thin, but is now round and has considerable color. I have gained greatly in strength as well as flesh, and it is a pleasure to study now that I am not bothered with my head. I passed all of my examinations with a reasonably good percentage, extra good in some of them, and it was Grape-Nuts that saved me from a year's delay in entering college."
