Officer in Charge Maintains Authority With Loaded Pistol.

TWO SAILORS UNDER ARREST

Trouble Began During Vessel's 157 Days' Voyage From Swanses to San Francisco.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 6 .- With their captain dead, two men in prison for rebellious conduct, a crew bordering on mutiny, the subordinate officers of the French bark Connelable de Richemont, discharging coal at Howard's dock have appealed to the French consulate, the commander of the French cruiser Protet, lying in San Francisco harbor, and the Oakland police for protection.

Mate Thicutin, who is temporarily in charge of the vessel, is maintaining his charge of the vessel, is maintaining ms authority with a loaded pistol. The trouble on board the bark began during her 157 days' voyage from Swansea to San Francisco, thirty days of which were occupied in beating around Cape Horn. The delay enraged the crew, one of whom knocked the chief mate down. Another flatly refused to obey orders. Capt. Thoreaux died last Fri-day, and since this the mates have been unable to control the men. Two of the mutinous sailors have been arrested, and if the local authorities cannot deal and if the local authorities cannot deal with them, they will be turned over to the officer of the cruiser Protet.

New York, Jan. 6.-In an interview explaining the situation of the rubber company, which has just passed into the hands of a receiver, Chas. R. He declined to give the names of the bankers, however, saying that they were not worry-ing about the incident and that it was not a matter of great public intrest.

It affects the glands, the mucous membranes, tissues and bones; causes bunches in the neck, catarrhal troubles, rickets, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, cutaneous eruptions, etc.

"I suffered from scrofula, the disease affecting the glands of my neck. I did everything I was told to do to eradicate it, but without success. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the swelling in my neck entirely disappeared and my skin resumed a smooth, healthy appearance. The cure was complete." Miss ANTIA MITCHELL, 915 Scott St., Covington, Ky.

"My daughter was almost blind with scrofula. I had derived so much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla that I gave her this medicine and now her eyes are sound and she is in good health. Hood's cured me of nervousness and debility, and saved my life." OMIE KOUNCE, Cayce, Ky.

NEW CHAMPIONS IN 1902.

James J. Jefferies is the Only Man Not Defeated.

The year of 1901, now closed, was a disastrous one for the champion pugilists. Jim Jeffries was the only holder of a title who escaped defeat. All the other classes suffered, including the featherweight, of which Terry McGovern was the king bee for three years. Starting with the bantam weights, Danny Dougherty lost to Harry Forbes at St. Louis. Terry McGovern's defeat llowed, by Young Corbett at Hartford. Frank Erne, the lightweight champion, went down before Rube Ferns, and in turn Ferns was put out by Joe Walcott, thus shifting the welter-weight title to the black boy. Wal-cott beat George Gardner, the recog-nized middle-weight champion, and Wild Bill Hanrahan took the measure of Marvin Hart, who, up until a few weeks ago, was the undisputed cham-pion among the light heavy-weights. Had Jim Jeffries fallen before the pun-ches of Gus Ruhlin, there would have been a clean sweep in every class of pugilism. Of course Frank Erne went out of his class to fight Ferns, but at the same time Erne, a champion, felt the sting of defeat. The same holds good in the case of McGovern. He claims he did not give up the featherweight title when defeated by Young Corbett, yet there is no disputing the fact that a champion was knocked out. Two foreign championships were won by Americans. Kid Lavinge beat Tim Hegarty for the feather-weight cham-pionship of Austrillia, and Jack O' Brien of Philadelphia won the heavy-weight championship of England.

The six leading teams were on even terms in the distance traveled during the week, the winning places being taken in the last sprint. The battle for first money started on the last mile. Untile the fifth inp the order was: McFarland, Freeman, Gougoltz, Lean-der, McLean and King, Then Leander, in a burst of speed, went ahead of the field. He was going very fast, and Mo-Lean was after him. While rounding the bank into the back stretch Gougoitz and McLean came together and went down, the others running away from them. Trouble began almost as soon as the Free-man next went after Leander and struck him ful in the face. Thereupon riders, trainers and spectators took a riders, trainers and spectators took a hand, and for a few minutes the af-fair looked like a riot. Policemen jumped into the mass of men and straightened out watters, but the ex-clement was intense. The fight had been brewing all day. It grew out of Leander's sprinting in the afternoon, which threatened to break up a sup-posed combination between McFarland, McLean and Freeman to take the race McLean and Freeman to take the race in that order.

Leander's aprint broke up the alleged combination, as it proved hard for the three men said to be in it to keep the places in the bunch, which would have given them the advantage at night. Then, to add to the friction, Leander started the final sprint, and it was sooner than McFarland had figure don. It led to the spill and made the race anybody's. Referee Kelsey, who is the New England member of the board of control, said after the race that it was probable the N. C. A. would investigate the affair, which he called one of the most disgraceful on the track. Afterward Freeman went to Mr. Kelsey to protest Leander.

While trying to break the three-mile record, Will Stinson's front tire collepsed and he was thrown. He re-ceived many bruises and was uncon-scieus for some time, but no bones were broken.
