C. Kirkwood, engineer on the Oregon Short Line railroad, residence 424 West Fourth South, says: "An advertisement In a Salt Lake City paper about Doan's Kidney Pilis so impressed me that I asked Mr. Kirkwood to call at the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store for a box, because I wanted to try the preparation to see if it would act as other medicines had acted in the past or perform what it promised. After an attack of the grip my kidneys were weakened and easily affected. The pain centered in the small of the back and was particu-larly severe, rendering stooping or the act of lifting anything but pleasant. Ogden, Utah, Jan. 24 .- A sensation was sprung last night in the judgeship election contest case, when Charles D. McNeal was arrested at the store of Reese Howell & Sons on a charge of extortion, preferred by Will Howell. Howell claims that McNeal came to him some time ago and threatened to furnish affidavits showing that he was guilty of criminal work in connection with the recent election, and that later he agreed to drop the matter and to make an affidavit that former statements which he had made in relation to the alleged actions of Will Howell were untrue and that he had been bribed to

Will Howell had Officer Pender, Capand Deputy S secreted in the office last night when McNeal arlyved. He read the affidavit over to McNeal, who, so Howell says, admitted it was true, but Howell wanted him to sign it before a notary and insisted on sending for George McCormick. The latter came but McNeal would not sign the affidavit. Howell had previously made out his check for $400, but had not signed his name to that. McNeal objected to continuing the discussion in the presence of Mc-Cormick, and started to leave, whereupon he was arrested. When seen at the city fail McNeal

The board of health presented its anntal report for 1904 showing 83 deaths, 55 males and 28 females. The births reported are 131 females and 176 males, total 307. The annual death rate per 1,000 was 10.57. This is on an estimate of 7,000 inhabitants.

rate por 1,000 was u.s.r. This is on an estimate of 7,000 inhabitants. The report commends the strict ob-servance by the board of education and the janitors of the public schools of quarantine rules, and ascribes to this the freedom from contagious diseases to a great extent. It is recommended that the council co-operate with the board of education for bi-weekly ex-amination of the schools and students by a competent practising physician. The council is congratulated on the ef-forts to supply the city with water from the springs in Provo canyon, and says "With the completion of the im-proved system you will be safe in say-ing that Provo will have the best and purest water supply of any city in the state." Improvements in sprinkling, in order to minimize the bad results arisstate. Improvements in sprinking, in order to minimize the bad results aris-ing from dust, is recommended, as are improvements in slaughter yards. The board recommends that a sanitary slaughter house be erected and operatslaughter house be erected and operat-ed by the city, and urges that in some way the city is be made to realize the danger arising from the prevailing un-sanitary conditions of outhouses. The report is signed by William M. Roy-lance, mayor: Moroni Snow, president of the council, and Fred W. Taylor, quarantine physician. A communication from F. C. Kalacy

Special Correspondence. Groveland, Ida., Jan. 18.-A deep gloom rests over, our quiet litle village tolay, the result of the very serious burning of Mrs. Chara Toleman Jensen, wife of Ben D. Jensen, and the fatal burning of their little one-year-old baby boy. Dicy Veltch Jensen. The shocking accident was cause ed by the explosion of a quart of tur-centus that may placed on the store was placed heat, for the purpose of doctoring a perinde the two purpose of doctoring a horse. It appears that B. D. Jensen thought-lessly placed the turpentine on the stove to heat and then went out to the yard with a neighbor, who had called to help him with the horse. In a few minutes sis-ter Jensen ran out of the house scream-ing, with her clothes all ablaze and throw herself into a small puddle of water In the dooryard. Mr. Jensen rushed into the house and found the babe lying on the floor enveloped in flames boribly barned. The flames were extinguished as soon as possible with hat slight damage to the house to new brick, but it was found that the little one was badly burned about the head and finits, one ye being burned out, in which state it inserted two hours when death came to its relief. Sis-ter Jensen is hadly burned about the face, arms and hands. Her overshoes were burned off her feet, but the shoes saved them from the flames. All that boying mands, can do is being done to alleving the sufferings of Mrs. Jensen. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are from Chesterfield having lived in this ward only a year or so.
